

Yes, Gwendolyn, the Life of an Actor Is Very Rocky

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Well, here I am seated in the cozy little home of our daughter, Tavin, in the quiet little town of Fairview, trying to write an account of something of what I saw and heard on my way from home to this place and something of what I have seen since I arrived. On my arrival in Medford about the first place I landed was the Medford Mail Tribune office where I transacted a little business and gave a subscription for the daily Mail Tribune for my daughter that I am visiting, so that I would keep in touch with what is going on at home, that is, in southern Oregon, as I would feel completely lost without my paper.

Well, after visiting the office and waiting until 10:21 a. m. for the car to take me to Grants Pass, I entered the motor car and came spinning along at the rate of about thirty miles an hour. I noticed as I passed along between Central Point and Tolo that they were still treshing grain and had considerable still to tresh, and from the size of the stack was led to believe that the grain was quite heavy, in fact from what I could learn from asking questions and by observations I came to the conclusion that the general crop in southern Oregon is fully up to date. After passing Tolo there seemed to be less, in the line of agriculture to attract the attention of the traveler, although there are some fine farms and orchards along the route but generally small places.

Arriving at Grants Pass the first place I landed was Dr. Findley's office where I went to get the doctor to examine my eyes and ears and supply me with medicine for the trip, of at least a month. I found the doctor as busy as usual and found that my number of the list was 15, and the doctor told me that my case would be attended to about 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Well, as I did not expect to leave there until 7:33 p. m. I rested quietly and looked around town for items of interest for the readers of the Mail Tribune, but failed to note anything of interest. In the afternoon I visited an acquaintance and while there he remarked that he had been up to Eagle Point and had looked over the country north of our town and that he saw more real good land and one farm out there than there was in Josephine county, but I think that he was a little off, for I saw while strolling around Grants Pass some as fine vegetables and especially squashes as any one need want to see.

Taking the car at 7:40 we started for Portland and there was nothing of special interest occurred that I know of for I was soon asleep and about the first thing that attracted my attention was the "breaky" calling out Roseburg and after satisfying the new conductor with regard to my ticket was soon lost in slumber and the next thing I knew we were at Cottage Grove. Here there was quite a number to get on the car and from that on I was awake the most of the time, but it was so dark that I could see nothing of interest. As we passed through Salem day was beginning to break, but nothing occurred of interest and we reached Portland about 7:30 a. m. and I boarded a street car and went to Powers' big house furnishing establishment expecting to find one of my brothers-in-law, who is general manager of the establishment, but I was too early for him. He soon came, however, and by 9 a. m. my daughter Tavin, Mrs. C. H. Shaw, met me and we spent the day going around town shopping and taking in the sights and at 4 p. m. took the car for Fairview—the railroad name for Cleone—and in my next will tell the readers of the Mail Tribune something of what I saw in Portland, about Cleone, my visit to the Mail-

DEBENGER GAP

Mrs. J. C. Hannah has been quite sick, owing to the fact that she has just gotten over a severe spell of the whooping cough, but I am glad to say she is much better at this writing.

Norman Gage visited home folks at Debenger Gap Sunday. He intended leaving for the machine on which he is employed, but he was unfortunately detained until Monday morning on account of the bicycle he was riding. It bucked at the last moment as they will sometimes.

Miss Muriel Coffeen and her aunt, Mrs. John Coffeen, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hannah last Monday.

Dr. Kirchgessner made a professional call at Central Point last Monday.

Last Saturday night the residents of Debenger Gap ranch were pleasantly surprised by a visit from Robert Baber and son, Groff. Robert owns the champion racehorse of the state. The horse won the race at the following places: Salem, Klamath Falls, Independence and at the Medford fair. Groff Baber owns thirty-five head of fine blooded racehorses. Mr. Baber and party are on their way to Grants Pass, where they live.

FLOUNCE ROCK ITEMS

Mrs. J. H. Erskine and daughter, Miss Margery, spent last week in Medford the guests of Mrs. Payne.

Miss Eva Callahan, former school teacher in this district, is spending some weeks at the Flounee Rock ranch.

J. B. Richardson and son, Edmund, leave Sunday for Mr. Ryan's place on Butte creek where they will work for some time on the new house.

Mrs. Gordon and daughter, Miss Clara, are spending the fall weeks at R. B. Vincent's.

The hanglun on the Gordon place is completed now and is quite comfortable and handsome. It takes the place of the old Gordon house which was burned last spring.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ditsworth took a trip to the hatchery Thursday and brought home about forty pounds of nice fish.

The Flounee Rock and Peyton people are very proud of their new daily mail service. They are also proud of the roads which have recently been built in this section of the country, especially the Flounee Rock grade.

Mr. Payne and son took two loads of fruit to Fort Klamath last week, starting Thursday.

Merl Payne is home for a while from Medford here he and his sister go to school.

Mrs. R. B. Vincent and Miss Clara Gordon returned Monday from Medford, where they had been to place their niece, Tessa Gordon, in the academy.

Rev. Little of Ashland is coming to Peyton on the 15th inst. to hold a protracted meeting. Rev. Little was her last spring and held a very successful meeting.

Sunday school services have been held at the Peyton hall, every Sunday this summer and there is always a good attendance. There are prayer meetings also, every Thursday night.

The embroidery club met Saturday at the home of Mrs. T. M. Peelor and Mrs. H. D. Blanchard. The house was decorated in brilliant autumn leaves. Light refreshments were served. The following ladies were present: Mesdames J. H. Erskine, J. B. Richardson, R. B. Vaughn, J. F. Ditsworth, Uriah Gordon, Peelor and Blanchard. Misses Ida Lytle, Violet Vaughn, Margery Erskine, Hazel nonah county fair, etc. I expect to start tomorrow morning for Hood River to attend the conference of the Congregational church and then go on above Pendleton.

Cleone, Ore., Oct. 9, 1912.

Ditsworth and Hester Rose. Miss Rose had promised to read "Trayclothes" to the ladies but as this was the first meeting of the club, no time was found for reading.

Mr. Ed Kirby, wife and tiny son, Miss Kay Kincaid and Miss March Kincaid arrived Saturday at their father's, Mr. Geo. Kincaid, and found a nice new house awaiting their coming. Miss Abbott of Butte Falls accompanied Miss March home. With the four home folks and Miss Rose who boards there, Mrs. Kincaid has quite a large family.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Phipps, Mr. Nelson Nie and Mr. Manning are prospecting near the head of the Applegate river.

The young people of the neighborhood gave a surprise party for Ora Ditsworth, Saturday night.

PHOENIX PARAGRAPHS

Captain Caton is again able to be on the streets after his recent illness.

Rev. Mr. Boyle of Medford will preach in the Christian church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Gay Bishop left the first of the week for Roseburg, where he has accepted a position in a packing house. Mrs. Dunlap of San Diego is visiting her father, Mr. Sargeant, this week.

The W. C. T. U. met with Mrs. M. Peok of West Phoenix last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes moved into the Trask cottage this week.

Rev. O. Morgan of Lakeview, Oregon, visited his family for a few days last week as he was on his way to attend the Presbytery which meets in Roseburg.

Rev. Griesby, state evangelist for the Presbyterian church, occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church here Sunday morning.

Dr. Baillie left Monday morning to attend the Presbytery which meets in Roseburg this week.

The chicken pie supper to be given by the Presbyterian ladies has been changed from Thursday evening to Friday evening of this week.

Mrs. Hunt of Portland, Mrs. Dodge and Mrs. McNeil and Miss Elsie Reames of Ashland visited Mrs. Elmer Coleman last Friday.

Miss Lee of Sisson, California, has been visiting relatives in town for the past week.

Mrs. John E. Roberts and daughter, Lula, spent Monday in Medford. A number from here went to Medford Saturday evening to hear Dr. Anna Shaw's lecture on equal suffrage.

The coffee club met with Mrs. Elmer Coleman Tuesday evening of this week.

S. Graham and wife of Medford were callers in town Monday.

A. H. Fisher, George Alford and S. P. Cope made a business trip to Central Point Monday.

NEW TODAY

Eight and three-quarter choice acres near the reservoir, in east part of town of Medford. Fine soil and irrigated. Good three room bungalow and screened porch—a cozy little home, modern, with electric lights telephone and city water installed. An acre is in strawberries and the balance is fine garden land. Raised potatoes this year. Barn for two horses, a good young family orchard, $5,600.00. Time on part it desired.

The 110 acres just out of the town of Rogue River, with 65 acres in grain and hay, all sub-irrigated, with abundance of wells and springs. Is a fine stock and general farming proposition. A comfortable house, and barn, two hay sheds, three chicken houses and pens. Three acres of good bearing orchard. Power, light and telephone available. Only $70 per acre. Terms.
