Corn grown the present season upon the Skakly ranch near Gold Hill, by T. Van Hovenburg, has attained a height of eleven feet on the average, and is decorated with a yield of fourteen inch ears which will harvest at least fourteen hundred bushels, says the News. As Rome was not built in a day, neither was this signal success at corn culture arrived at in a single fortunate season but is the result of careful breeding which has extended over a period of four years. The present season the crop was planted between the rows of an infant pear orchard, and the brooding crop served the double purpose of shielding the young sets from the vigorous sun and yielding at the same time an immediate and substantial profit upon the land and labor employed.

CLAIM TELEGRAMS PROVE GUILTYNESS

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 10.—"Clean house at once."

This is the telegram E. A. Clancy of San Francisco, former member of the executive board of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers is alleged to have sent to his wife from Boston immediately after the dynamiting of the Los Angeles Times newspaper plant. United States District Attorney Charles W. Miller, who is prosecuting the forty-seven of the ironworkers' union on charges of illegally transporting dynamite, interrupted the examination of witnesses at today's session of the federal court long enough to hurl this accusation into the face of the San Francisco labor leader. Miller stated he regarded the message as showing conclusively that Clancy knew the Times building was to be dynamited, and as warning Mrs. Clancy to clear his home of any incriminating evidence.

Telegram Not Found

Despite Miller's charge, it was developed later that the heads of the Postal and Western Union Telegraph companies in San Francisco and Boston have been unable to produce copies of Clancy's alleged message to Mrs. Clancy.

Edward Hawkins, manager of the Western Union office at Muncie, Ind., this morning produced a carbon copy of a telegram which Hoekin is alleged to have sent from Peoria to Peter Smith at Newcastle, Ind., asking Smith to meet Hoekin in Cincinnati.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 10.—Portland commercial organizations are today in the activity of the United States district court in seizing misbranded goods in the city. "Women's Rights"

There are over 100,000 women in Oregon. The majority of them do not want to vote. A small proportion in any given community is asking for the ballot. Is that not true in your town? What do the rest want?

Many of the more actively opposed. To put upon these women a responsibility from which they have hitherto been exempted and which they do not wish to assume, is not "Woman's Rights."

Many of them are indifferent. The indifferent male voter is one of the serious problems of the present electorate. Would you add to it a large body of votes avowedly indifferent? The demand for woman suffrage is the demand that woman shall assume an equal share with men in the responsibility of carrying the government of the city, the state, the Nation. It means she shall enter with him the political arena. For it is an arena. Politics is not a conflict of opinions, it is a conflict of wills. It carries with it public meetings, public debates, public marchings and counter marchings, public discussions of public questions, and of the character of public candidates, and all the other incidents of a campaign.

It is not democratic, nor just, nor fair to draft this large body of women into this campaign against their wills.

This is the sixth time the voters of Oregon have been asked to vote upon this question in spite of the fact that every two years the opposition to it has increased so that in 1910 suffrage carried in only one county in Oregon, and in that one by five votes, the total vote being 35,279 for suffrage, the smallest vote for it since 1900, and 59,065 against, a majority of 23,795.

The Oregon State Association Opposed to the Extension of the Suffrage to Women asks that you give this amendment your earnest consideration, and that you defeat it this time by so great a plurality that the suffragists, local and imported, must bow before the will of the people of Oregon, and acknowledge that the majority rules in America.

The Oregon State Association Opposed to the Extension of the Suffrage to Women.

Wilson Stands For a Principle— Will You Stand By Him?

Woodrow Wilson is a vastly different order of man than you find among the ranks of many good men in practical political life.

Woodrow Wilson is not among the great majority of politicians and business men, otherwise estimable characters, who believe that the end justifies the means, who are honest in a commercial or political sense.

The candidate of the progressive voters of the country not only does not believe in the doctrine of "anything to win," but he insists on plain old fashioned honesty in every detail of his campaign.

Woodrow Wilson proposes to win on the merits of his candidacy and platform or not at all. "Clean hands or no fight" is Wilson's ultimatum to his supporters throughout the country.

No Tainted Money For Wilson

Not a dollar of questionable money will be spent to elect Woodrow Wilson. The Democratic National Committee is heart and soul in accord with the candidate's views.

And the corrupting influences, with no political faith, casting about to win a foothold in the new government with bribes of ill-gotten gains, have despaired of reaching Wilson or his campaigners.

They have gone to the enemy, whoever that enemy may be. It is a matter of common knowledge that the "Interests" are using all their political funds to defeat Wilson.

What the American People Need to Know

The people have constantly made the mistake of believing that this is a money-ridden nation. Such is only the case insofar as the People fail to get together and so permit the few to control the dishonest representatives they, by mistake, elect to office.

The actual money power of the People is still greater than that of the Interests.

The Progressive People of the country, if they get together, can buy and sell the Corrupting Influences and destroy their financial power.

So Woodrow Wilson and his managers believe that not only is it the only clean method but the most practical method for the Progressive People of the country to supply the Woodrow Wilson Campaign Fund.

The People to Fight With THEIR Dollars

This year a popular president is to be elected with the People's money. The Woodrow Wilson Campaign Fund is to be collected from the rank and file of the Progressive Voters of the country.

The bills of the Democratic National Committee are to be paid, not with the thousands of the Interests, but with the individual dollars of the earnest, eager voters who desire clean, efficient government and who are willing to help Wilson as he wants to be helped.

Money thus needed is not spent in improper ways or in any manner similar to the way in which the funds of the Interests are disbursed.

But we have to tell the voters of the country about Woodrow Wilson. We have to tell them what he has done. We have to tell them what he stands for. We have to point out to them the important planks in his platform. All this means that to hold up our end we will be obliged to spend as much money as those who oppose us.

This means that every man or woman who believes in Wilson should be willing to contribute to his cause. Let the supporters of Wilson help us to spread the Wilson gospel to the four winds. Let the Progressive Voters battle this year with their pocketbooks as well as their ballots.

We Solicit Popular Subscriptions—Can You Give From $1 to $20?

Of course, you can—and you are glad to support the cause in this way. Practically every voter can afford to give $1 to aid the Wilson Campaign. A great many can give $2. A great many can give $5. And there are lots and lots of progressive voters who will be eager to donate from $10 to $20. These are the kind of contributions we want.

And we will be proud to receive from thousands, who can only afford $1, their $1 contributions. We want to hear from every man who has a dollar to give. This year the man with the dollar must defeat the government trader who spends his thousands.

Get Club Subscriptions If you know many Wilson men, if you work among many Wilson men, head a list with your name and money and get the others to join with their subscriptions. Then send your list with the money to C. R. Crane, Vice Chairman, Finance Committee, Democratic National Committee, 900 Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois. No loyal Wilson man can do more than this to assure Wilson's victory at the polls in November.

Woodrow Wilson Campaign Fund LOYALTY COUPON To C. R. CRANE, Vice Chairman, Finance Committee, The Democratic National Committee, 900 Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill. Wilson's campaign. Name..... Address..... R.F.D..... State..... Endorsed by W. H. Canon, State Committeeman, to whom subscriptions can be handed, if preferred
