BOXING COMMISSION FOR SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 11.—All four round boxing promoters in San Francisco will appear before the police commission of the board of supervisors late today, when the advisability of appointing a boxing commission to supervise the game will be discussed. Recent decisions in a number of bouts, especially those of last Friday night, have aroused the committee to the necessity of taking drastic action, and in a commission with full power it sees a cure for the evils that have crept in.
If the commission is appointed, the intention is to give it complete control in the matter of licensing referees, suspending and fining boxers for failing to keep engagements or for putting up bad fights, throwing out unequal matches, revoking promoters' permits who fail to keep their promises and otherwise regulating all matters in connection with the four round shows.

BOSTON WINS FOURTH GAME

Boston had lost some of the smoke to his staff, but was carried along by a defense which was absolutely a stone-wall before the Giant attack.
Teareau started again for the Giants, but rocked too badly before hitting his stride. After a bad start he settled in brilliant fashion but the stand came too late.
Both teams played great ball and Boston won a deserved victory, although the Giants once more outthit the American Leaguers.

If you have ever fumed and fussed, because of dirt and grime and rust, and said unto yourself, "Oh, dear! This household work will kill, I fear"—then it is time that you should find some other method far more kind.

Of all the woes a housewife bears, one always fills her day with cares: The kitchen after-meal-time mess, is quite enough to make one fuss. What, with the pots and pans and pans, the knives and forks and plates and cans, no task of man, however grim, the half as mean is handed him.

Two little willing workers aim to enter in this household game: their job, the lessening of work, a task that neither of them shirk. With active little hands and brains they grab the irksome household reins, till soon each kettle, pot or dish, is just as bright as you could wish. And not until the chores are done, from sink to silver, sun to sun, could anything inspire the two, to drop the tasks they have to do.

Therefore, if you have never known, assistance such as we have shown, your troubles end, where joy begins. Now, Mrs. Drudge, the Gold Dust Twins! Henceforth, as dishes congregate, when cutlery, in sad array, awaits you at the close of day—"Cheer Up!" Forget the labor planned: You have two aids at your command.
