BOYS CONFERENCE RACING MEET AT CENTRAL POINT

greatest gatherings of any kind in southern Oregon is to be the big boys conference which is to be held in Central Point, October 25-27.

This conference is under the auspices of the State Young Men's Christian Assocation of Oregon and is open to delegates fourteen years of age and over who represent Sunday school classes or boys study clubs.

This is truly a conference for and by boys. They will elect their own ready much interest is being shown officers and all the conference papers will be prepared and read by the boys. The theme of the conference is to be "Leadership" and the various topics will come under this head. Plenty of time will be given for discussion on floor of the conference and the fellows are expected to set some new stakes along lines of real leadership for the boys of southern Oregon. Among the men who are expected to be present are C. A. Phipps, state Sanaav school superintendent; I. B. Rhodes and W. E. Wright of the Oregon state committee, all of Portland, and several men of prominence from points in southern Oregon.

H. A. Dalzell, the state boys work secretary has been visiting all towns! between Grants Pass and Ashland and reports he expects a booster crowd of live wires at Central Point at time of this conference. Ashland, Medford and Grants Pass are planning to send strong delegates and several of the smaller towns along to be ridden, and the riders who are the line will be well represented. It is expected that there will be no less Phipps, Colorado Sam Taylor, Bob than seventy-five registrations by the time the conference opens.

Anyone wishing further informa' tion regarding conferences may obtain it by writing either Harry Tuttle, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., Harum, Lady Sunrise, Albia and been and still is, a stand natter on 305 Y. M. C. A.bidg., Portland.

BIG POTATO DISPLAY PROMISED AT PORTLAND

PORTLAND, Oct. 14.-A potato display bigger than any ever held in the Pacific northwest is promised for the Land Products Show to be held in Nortland November 18-23. The tubers will be exhibited in 30-lb boxes and there are many entries in this division ranging in size from 10 boxes upward. The first prize is $100 and a silver cup and there are many other premiums for the best potatoes.

Fifty-eight districts of the Pacific northwest have so far applied for space at the show. This means that the four states participating will be well represented. There is a great deal of interest in the district displays of agricultural products as well as in the district showings of fruit. Attractive prizes are offered le both closses. The Portland Commercial club offers a handsome trophy cup for the member of the Oregon Development league, the South west Washington Development asso* ciation or the Southeast Washington Oregon Development league scoring report the following sales. ### Why Salves Can't Cure Eczema ing easems through the blood has been given up by scientists, many different salves have been tried for skin diseases. But it has been found that these salves only clog the pores and cannot penetrate to the inner skin below the epidermis where the eczema germs are lodged.

This—the quality of penetrating—probably explains the tremendous success of the well known liquid eczema remedy, oil of wintergreen, thymol, giverine, etc., as compounded in D.D.D. Prescription.

We have sold other remedies for skin costs you not a cent.
