

BOTH PUGS CLAIM VICTORY TOMORROW

Both Bud Anderson and Danny O'Brien are ready for the sounding of the gong at the Medford Athletic club tomorrow evening. These boys are in as good condition for their ten-round go as ever two boys were, and speaking of boxers, the worst has never produced a light-weight boxer that is the equal of either in their division.

The winner of this contest is entitled to the lightweight championship of the northwest, and the honor is no small one. This will be the fourth time these youngsters have faced each other in the squared circle, and each boy claims that there will be no question as to the winner. Every follower of the game in Oregon and Washington will be watching for reports from this encounter, and without a doubt it will be the greatest ten-round match ever staged in the state.

Anderson, with his aggressiveness and endurance, which has returned him winner in all of his contests, is going to be a hard proposition, but O'Brien claims that no matter how tough they are, that class and cleverness will turn the trick, and that time on this occasion he will trim his old-time rival.

The demand for seats for this show has been greater than ever before in the history of the club, and interest in the contest is increasing every day.

This afternoon will be the last day that the boys work out in the gymnasium, but both boxers will do light road work tomorrow morning. The weight, 135 pounds, has been easy for both Anderson and O'Brien, and puts the boys into the ring at a weight that will allow either of them to go to the limit without exhaustion.

Below is the record of some of the most important bouts engaged in by Bud Anderson and Danny O'Brien:

- Anderson's Record
 Danny O'Brien, draw, 15 rounds.
 Earl Henderson, won, 7 rounds.
 Oakland Frank Edwards, won, 17 rounds.
 Gene West, won, 2 rounds.
 Australian Kelly, won, 5 rounds.
 Tommy McFarland, won, 3 rounds.
 Oakland Frank Edwards, won, 8 rounds.
 Jack McLellan, won, 3 rounds.
 Rough-House Burns, won, 8 rounds.

CANDIDATES SHY WHISLER DEBATE

Mr. Whisler will not be accommodated by any of the local men he challenged to debate the equal suffrage question. Mr. Ramp, the socialist advocate, however, will be agreeable to such a debate, and Mr. Whisler is also agreeable, although Saturday, November 2, is the only date the republican candidate has open. The members of the equal suffrage club are now endeavoring to get Mr. Ramp for this date.

The reasons the three local notables cannot lock horns with Mr. Whisler are given under signed statements as follows:

"The Medford Equal Suffrage Association: In regard to Mr. Whisler's challenge to debate the question of equal suffrage with Messrs. Reames, Mulkey and myself, I think Mr. Whisler's views on the subject have been given sufficient publicity, and I am too busy with my own campaign to engage in a discussion which, as it seems to me, is entirely futile.

"Sincerely yours for the good of the cause. "E. E. KELLY."

"Secretary Medford Equal Suffrage Association—Dear Madam: I beg to decline C. E. Whisler's challenge to debate on woman suffrage, because there are so many women in Medford better posted on the subject than myself and therefore better able to defend it. Under these circumstances I do not think it necessary to take my place as their champion. Very truly,

"B. F. MULKEY."
 "Secretary Women's Suffrage Club, Medford, Or.—Dear Madam: It is with a feeling of the greatest reluctance that I am forced to decline to participate in a joint debate with Mr. Whisler, because of the stress of previous engagements of a political nature which will take up most of my time during the next few weeks. With kindest regards, I am, sincerely yours, C. L. REAMES."

- O'Brien's Record
 Bud Anderson, draw, 15 rounds.
 Charley Neary, won, 10 rounds.
 Rufus Turned, won, 4 rounds.
 Jerry Murphy, won, 4 rounds.
 Willie Holmes, won, 4 rounds.
 Louis Rees, won, 4 rounds.
 Frankie Burns, lost, 8 rounds.

BIG DOINGS AT FAIR GROUNDS THURSDAY

The Fair association benefit at the fair grounds Thursday promises to be a big event with plenty of excitement and some splendid races. Those in charge are putting forth every effort to make it one of the biggest day's amusement ever given in Jackson county.

The stores and offices will all close from 2 to 5 p. m. and the first event will begin at 2:30 sharp, and there will be something doing all the time. The riding of bucking bulls and horses by some of the best cowboys and riders in southern Oregon will take place between each heat of the two big harness races.

There have been four wild bulls and two ferocious wild heifers secured and there will be plenty of fun when an attempt is made to ride them.

For the bucking broncho contest, the horses promised so far are Murphy's black horse from Ashland that no one has ever been able to ride; the Lindsey horse from Ashland; Gray lamond from Eagle Point, Vaughn's horse from the Potter Palmer ranch, Howard mare from Roxy Ann, upon whose back no rider has been able to stick, and Circle J., Dr. Helm's famous plunger.

In the ladies' two-mile relay race, in which they change horses every half mile, there has been three entries so far, and maybe more.

The admission will be 50 cents, with no extra charge for reserved seats, autos or buggies.

Everybody should go and help the fair association get out of debt.

UNCLE SAM WINS $24,000 IN TIMBER CASES TRIED HERE

The United States government was given judgment for $18,699 against J. D. Hamaker and $5865 against Hamaker and John Stindt jointly by Judge Wolverton of the United States district court in an opinion handed down Monday. These sums are the value of timber cut from the public lands by Hamaker and Stindt, who operated a small portable sawmill in Lake county for a number of years. The government allows every citizen to cut $50 worth of timber from public lands each year for his own domestic use, and the sawmill operators claimed that they cut the timber under contracts from settlers, taking part of it as their payment. Judge Wolverton upheld their defense, holding that the settlers had the right to make such contracts in exercise of their right to cut timber to the value of $50 a year, but the amount of timber cut by Hamaker and Stindt exceeded the amount of such contracts by nearly 2,000,000 feet, which Judge Wolverton held to be worth $10 a thousand.

Sykes Hamaker and Elize McClelland, who also were sued on the same grounds, proved that they cut only such timber as they had contracts with settlers for, and the cases against them were dismissed by the court. Robert F. Maguire, assistant United States attorney, represented the government in the case which was tried recently at Medford.

OBITUARY

Robbins
 Mrs. Sarah Robbins died at the home of her son, John Robbins, on North Riverside, on Monday, October 14, in the 70th year of her age. Mrs. Robbins came to Oregon thirty years ago from Brown county, Illinois, and had lived in Medford for the last six years. Her husband, J. W. Robbins, died here about two years ago.

Mrs. Robbins is survived by two sons, John and Charles, and a daughter, Mrs. M. E. Job. The funeral will be held from the Methodist church today at 2 p. m., Rev. E. O. Eldridge in charge.

REFUSES TO SELL BABE FOR CASH

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Oct. 15.—Mrs. Annie E. Hensley, of Ashland, Oregon, alleges in a suit against her husband, filed here, that he offered her $500 for their 4-year-old daughter, Genevieve, and that she spurned the offer. She is suing to compel Robert L. Hensley to pay her $100 a month for their child's support and to enjoin him from disposing of any property. The couple were married at Ashland, where they grew up together.
