CORROBORATION OF ROOSEVELT BY CORTELYOU

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—Corroboration of testimony of Colonel Roosevelt concerning contributions by the Standard Oil company to the republican national campaign in 1904 was given the senate investigating committee here today by George R. Cortelyou, former private secretary to the colonel. Cortelyou, who was chairman of the republican national committee in 1904, swore that he first heard of the alleged oil trust subscriptions through a letter and telegram from Colonel Roosevelt.

When he showed these communications to Cornelius N. Bliss, then treasurer of the republican national committee, Bliss denied, Cortelyou said, that he had received any contributions from the Standard Oil company.

Cortelyou vehemently denied that he asked Morgan to contribute to Roosevelt's campaign or that he had heard J. P. Morgan had contributed until testimony to that effect was adduced at the Clapp committee hearings.

James Cannon, of the Fourth National Bank of New York, mailed Chairman Moses E. Clapp a copy of Bliss' political account in his bank, showing deposits aggregating $240,000 from October 27 to October 31, 1904. The deposits totalled the exact amount the late E. H. Harriman is alleged to have raised for the 1904 campaign.

James Murfin of Detroit testified that the pre-convention primaries in Detroit were "as rotten as rotten could be." Both sides, he said, were responsible, money being the only thing that counted.

Cortelyou denied that the tobacco trust offered to contribute to Col. Roosevelt's campaign. He also denied that he had ordered all campaign documents destroyed in 1901, explaining that only the least important papers referring to contributions were burned.

Cortelyou bitterly rebuked those who had accused him of using secrets of the department of commerce and labor in 1904 to extort contributions. He declared that he had never discussed campaign contributions with Colonel Roosevelt.

TYPHOID DISTRIBUTOR CURED BY ISOLATION

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 17.—"You have performed a valuable service to your fellow citizens in California," is the verdict written to Harry Ohlsen, the typhoid distributor, by Secretary W. F. Snow of the state board of health today upon receiving word of the discharge of the sailor after six month voluntary isolation in charge of the United States health authorities at San Francisco.

Snow said that Ohlsen might have fought in the courts the demand of the state for his quarantine when he was manifestly not suffering from typhoid.

Ohlsen submitted without question, and the medical world has been able to prove that a confirmed distributor of the contagion can be wholly cured of typhoid. For the past three months Ohlsen has been free from the disease.

LAWSON SAYS $17,000,000 FUND WAS RAISED

Standard Oil company gave between $500,000 to $700,000 to Judge Parker's campaign in 1904 and gave their agents a free hand at the convention which nominated Parker.

Lawson said he knew "in a general way" that Wall street interests planned to inject Colonel Roosevelt into the present campaign, split the republican party and defeat Taft. He asserts, however, that Col. Roosevelt did not know of this plan.

In referring to his own contributions Mansey said: "The little amount which I contributed makes me look like a piker in view of the huge sums I was reported as giving."

Mansey asserted that Roosevelt's pre-convention campaign cost $754,000.

Cortelyou was not sure whether officials of the Standard Oil company had contributed as individuals, adding:

"I considered that Colonel Roosevelt's letters referred solely to the Standard Oil corporation and not to individuals. If he had ordered the return of individual contributions I do not believe I would have obeyed such orders. We drew no line against corporation contributions. It was Roosevelt who objected to money from the Standard Oil company."

COOK'S STORY THOUGHT TO BE PUBLICITY FAKE

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 17.—Testimony offered here at the trial of the 47 members of the International Association of Bridge and Structural Ironworkers, charged with illegally transporting dynamite, by John Cook, who swore he participated in the Los Angeles Times dynamiting, was discredited here by United States District Attorney Chas. W. Miller. Cook appeared voluntarily before the government officials in Chicago and asked to be sent here to testify. He said he was associated with James B. McNamara in the Los Angeles dynamiting.

"I do not believe Cook's story," Miller said today, "but I am going to investigate it. It sounds to me like the story of a notoriety seeker. In the California and Indiana investigations no one ever heard of Cook. However, the unexpected sometimes happens and we will attempt to verify his statement."

Miller telegraphed today to Attorney General Wickersham asking for a government investigation of the attack in Kansas City on H. E. Pearce, a hotelman, who had identified Orrie McManis as having registered at his hotel. Pearce also mentioned the name of W. Bert Brown, a Kansas City official of the ironworkers' union, in connection with dynamiting. Pearce was slugged and robbed of $5 in Kansas City.

In discussing the attack on Pearce in Kansas City, F. M. Ryan, president of the ironworkers' organization, said:

"The attack on Pearce was absurd. If it was the work of friends of union men, they certainly were misguided. Pearce's testimony was routine, and hurt none of the defendants here. I am sure none of the accused men or their friends had anything to do with the attack."

Gertrude McCarthy, formerly employed by John J. McNamara as a stenographer; William Cosgrove of Scranton, Pa., and Thomas Hamblin of Minneapolis this afternoon identified certain union documents and signatures.

C. C. Campbell, assistant cashier of a San Francisco bank, identified a letter alleged to have been written by Olaf A. Tveitmo to F. M. in which thanks were expressed for "Christmas presents to the Pacific Coast." Campbell said Tveitmo, as secretary-treasurer of the State Buildings Trades Council of California, kept an account at the bank. He identified Tveitmo's signature.

BECKER'S BANK ACCOUNT BARRED FROM EVIDENCE

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—The Becker defense scored a telling point today when it succeeded in preventing Becker's bank account being presented to the jury.

Household Economy How to Have the Best Cough Syrup and Save $2. by Making it at Home.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of plain syrup. If you take one pint of granulated sugar, add 1/2 pint of warm water and stir about 2 minutes, you have as good syrup as money could buy.

If you will then put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have as much cough syrup as you could buy ready made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly.

And you will find it the best cough syrup ever used—even in whooping cough. You can feel it take hold—usually stops the most severe cough in 24 hours. It is just laxative enough, has a good tonic effect, and taste is pleasant. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

It is a splendid remedy, too, for whooping cough, croup, hoarseness, asthma, chest pains, etc.

Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in guaiacol and all the healing pine elements. No other preparation will work in this formula.

This recipe for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used and prized in thousands of homes in the United States and Canada. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

BATTLE WITH STRIKING MINERS

ELY, Nev., Oct. 17.—In a battle between twenty strikers and a party of guards at the gate of the Steptoe mine and smelter at McGill today two Greeks were killed. The imported armed guards are said to have done the killing.

Governor Oddie witnessed the rioting at McGill yesterday, and immediately sent the state police from Carson to the scene.

The crowds dispersed, but reassembled this morning. The strikers allege that the guards opened fire upon them without provocation.

Two hundred and fifty guards are now on duty at the mine in McGill, and everything is quiet this afternoon.

The mine operators are trying to get troops to the scene.
