

RARE TREAT FOR MUSIC LOVERS

That an unusual treat is in store for the people of Southern Oregon when Gadski sings, is evidenced by this letter from H. G. Gilmore former music and dramatic critic of the Detroit Free Press:

"If the music loving citizens of Medford think they had a superb treat in listening to the great contralto, Schumann-Heink, they will find themselves doubly paid both in money and time in listening to the magnificent dramatic soprano, Mme. Gadski.

It has been my good fortune to hear Gadski several times, and in my opinion there is no greater artist in concert or in opera."

Mme. Gadski will sing one concert at the Natorium Monday evening, October 28.
