

ESPEE SEEKS TO CONTINUE HIGH MEDFORD RATES

WASHINGTON, Oct. 17.—The Southern Pacific railroad today filed suit in the United States commerce court here to overturn the order of the interstate commerce commission prohibiting the company from charging higher freight rates for traffic between points intermediate between San Francisco and Portland than for traffic between those cities.

The railroad company alleges that it has been forced to make lower rates on the long haul because of water competition, charging higher rates on the shorter or intermediate haul.

The interstate commerce commission denied the Southern Pacific company's application for relief from the provisions of the "long and short haul clause" of the new railroad act. The company challenges the constitutionality of the clause and asks an injunction to restrain the commission from enforcing its order.

MATTY COULDN'T BEAT 17 MEN

(By Grantland Rice.)
BOSTON, Oct. 17.—There is only one answer today to the most dramatic and most heartbreaking series of games for the world's championship ever played. Good old Christy Mathewson, the central figure in yesterday's game could have beaten the Red Sox unaided, but he was powerless before the combined assault of both the Boston and New York players. Even though pitching with all the wonder of his big brain, big heart and strong arm, he was unequal to the task of beating both teams.

Mathewson was never greater in his big league career than yesterday but no man great enough to deal with seventeen ball players ever lived. Three times he fought back the Boston rush and then carried them into two extra inning sessions, despite his ragged support. In his three contests he allowed but two earned runs, while the Giants scored eight earned runs behind him. But in the three games Boston scored eleven runs, nine being presented to the Sox through the miserable support accorded the "big train."

Backed up as he should have been, Christy would have won two while the other one was a fair draw.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 17.—E. G. Lewis, the University City publisher and promoter whose troubles with the postoffice department attracted wide attention and resulted in a congressional investigation, was arraigned in the United States district court today to stand trial for the second time on charges of using the mails to defraud. In the first trial of the case, which was held about a year ago, the jury failed to agree.

ANDERSONS WINS FROM THE O'BRIENS

It was a great night for the Anderson family and incidentally the fight fans. Pitted against foremen worthy of their best, both Bud and Freddie came home under the wire, winning 10 and 6 round bouts with Danny and Frankie O'Brien. While the Anderson boys received both decisions, Bud had an easier time of it than Freddie who had to travel all the way to win.

Bud Anderson today, for the first time, stands as the undisputed champion of the northwest. In four previous contests he was unable to dispose of Danny O'Brien who fought him to a standstill each time. O'Brien then invaded the south and kept up his record until Frankie Burns stopped him. His claim to the northwest championship was as free of fault as Anderson's yesterday but not today.

When the 10-round contest opened Wednesday night Anderson fiddled for two rounds, O'Brien having a shade. In the third he began walking into O'Brien's offerings regardless, coming up smiling from each punch. He learned that O'Brien hadn't the kick he feared and went after his man. In the seventh, eighth and ninth O'Brien was badly punished O'Brien going down for a count of eight in the eighth. In the ninth Anderson failed to check him and O'Brien showed well in the tenth. A decision to Anderson was eminently fair.

The preliminary was a closer bout however and Freddie Anderson won only on a hair line decision.

The sport was good and the crowd large.

FADERO PAVES WAY FOR OVERTURES WITH REBELS

EL PASO, Oct. 17.—It was made known today that overtures have been made by men prominent in Madero's government at Mexico City to a representative here of Orozco. It was learned also an emissary is on his way to Paris to see former President Diaz, the departure of the messenger from Mexico being almost simultaneously with the arrival at El Paso of another emissary bearing word to the rebel junta here from what is said to be the revolutionary element at the national capital. It was said today on the highest authority that Felix Diaz, who has arisen in arms against the Madero government, is one of the five candidates named to succeed Madero. The new revolutionary party, said rebel leaders here, will be unique in that it will champion no one man.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 17.—Federal District Attorney Miller telegraphed to Attorney General Wickersham tonight asking the department of justice to make a rigid investigation of the reported slugging at Kansas City of H. E. Pearce, who testified Monday as a witness for the government in the dynamite conspiracy trial. Pearce, who was a hotel clerk, testified that McManigal signed the register as "J. W. McGraw." Pearce was one of the important witnesses in trailing McManigal's movements.

INDIAN VILLAGE UPON SITE OF EXPOSITION

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 17.—That an Indian village existed between 500 and 700 years ago beneath the waters of San Francisco Bay close to the site of the Panama Pacific Exposition is the assertion of scientists here today who are examining a number of relics unearthed by a dredger while excavating in preparation for the 1915 fair.

The discovery was made when the dredgers unearthed what appeared to be a three foot layer of shell and bone dropped by human hands. After a close examination the anthropology department of the University of California declared the fossils were the remains of the first dwelling place of man on the peninsula, a race known as the sea lion hunters.
