

SUNDAY SCHOOL WORKERS MEET

The annual convention of the Jackson County Sunday School association is now in session at Ashland, having opened Thursday. A large number of delegates are in attendance. Following is the program:

Thursday, October 17, at 10:50—Handshaking and assignment of delegates.

Afternoon, 1:30—Song service. Appointment of committees. Report of secretary and schools of the county. "The Primary Department," Mrs. G. W. Seager; "Sunday School History," George Iverson; "How to Grade the Sunday Schools," C. B. Lamkin.

Evening, 7:30—Song and devotional service (special music, "Sevenfold Purpose," George Iverson; solo, H. N. Aldrich; address, "Lengthening and Strengthening," Charles Phipps.

Friday, October 18, 9:00—Service of praise. "Boys, and How to Win Them to the Church," J. R. Burnett; "What the Church Should Do for the Sunday School," Homer Billings; "Home Department, and How to Organize," Mrs. C. A. Meeker; "How to Start and Conduct a Cradle Roll," Audrey Holmes. Reports of nominating committee.

Afternoon, 1:30—Service of praise. "Graded Work in the Junior and Intermediate Departments," C. P. Young; "Some Rural Problems and How to Solve Them," H. O. Butterfield; "How to Interest Sunday School Workers in Teacher Training," John Arnell; "Relation of Foreign Missions to Sunday Schools," A. C. Joy; "Relation of State and County Work to the Individual School," Charles Phipps.

Ahrens Has Birthday.
Ahrens store today announces its second anniversary with a half page ad of seasonable goods at reduced prices. Mr. Ahrens has finished two years of successful merchandising in Medford, the only store of its kind in the city. He has every confidence in the growth and prosperity of Medford and in consequence, has this year stocked up his store with an extra large line of suits, coats, waists, hosiery, etc. It will pay any woman to carefully look over the list of bargains offered by Ahrens today.

NEW BUILDING ORDINANCE TALKED

Medford is at last to have a new building ordinance, action being hastened by the burning of the opera house last week. A committee was appointed at the last session of the city council to take this matter up at once and already the committee has held a meeting with the city attorney and discussed the ordinance.

Dr. F. C. Page who contemplates immediate work on the construction of a new theater appeared before the committee and discussed his plans for a new theater. He was told to go ahead on his foundation. The new ordinance will provide for safeguards against fire in all public buildings.

The proposed ordinance will provide that the fire chief shall be a building inspector with power to enforce the ordinance.

BRUSH FIGHTS FOR CHAMPIONSHIP COIN

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—A red hot fight to the coffers of the National League is promised here today by John T. Brush, president and owner of the New York club.

Last winter Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh club, caused the adoption of a rule providing that the pennant winning club transfer 24 per cent of its receipts from the world's series games to the National League. Brush contends this rule was illegally adopted, and has forced the appointment of an arbitration committee to consider the case.

Death of W. E. Carlock.
W. E. Carlock of Merlin died Monday and was taken to Jacksonville for burial, interment taking place Tuesday. His brother, F. M. Carlock, of Bakersfield, Cal., and his wife were with him when death came. Mr. Carlock was about 70 years of age and had been a resident of Southern Oregon about 38 years.

An international exposition of horticulture will be held at St. Petersburg in the spring.

BENEFIT RACING MEET A SUCCESS

The benefit racing meet for the Jackson county fair association at the fair grounds Thursday afternoon was fairly well attended and the deficit in the recent fair fund was reduced considerably.

The races Thursday were fair while the bucking contests were warmly applauded. Several bulls were ridden but they furnished the most fun while being saddled.

A feature of the day was the ladies relay race won by Miss Slinger from Miss Chase. Miss Chase was thrown at the start but pluckily remounted and completed the race.

CROWDED HOUSE ENJOYS MARINE BAND

The U. S. Marine Band gave a concert last night under the auspices of the B. P. O. E. The audience was a very large and appreciative one. Many people were here from the adjoining towns. This bringing unusually fine talent to Medford is a good and worthy work for the Elks. It requires a local organization of this kind to make the big things pay, and the Elks are the boys to give Medford the high class musical attractions that need special work. The program was well chosen, being largely made up of popular music of the better class. There was, however, three classic numbers which were well rendered. The director, William H. Sautelmann, as a director of a military band, is a good one, but his interpretation of Wagner is wide of the mark. He has no idea of the delicate shading required in Wagnerian music; neither has Sousa for that matter. There is a wide difference in directing a military band and rendering a classical program.

POWER COMPANY AND CITY MEET

Members of the city council and the mayor met with representatives of the Oregon California Power Company Friday morning and discussed briefly the clause in their franchise relating to the payment of 5 per cent of the gross income of the company to the city, or the payment of a lump sum of $20,000.

No progress was made at the conference, the company being asked to submit a proposition in writing. Following this further discussion will be held. It is believed that a settlement can be reached without resorting to the courts.

CENTRAL POINT BOY WRITES A NOVEL

(Central Point Herald.)
Considerable surprise was occasioned in this city when it became known about town that "Peanut" Holmes had written a book and that the publication of the volume was about finished with every evidence that the work was to be a pronounced success.

The title of the book is "The Maid of the Mountains" or "The Mystery of the Tall Pines" and we understand that the story is drawn from local surroundings and local characters. That the book is all right is indicated by its acceptance by the large publishing house that has undertaken the printing of the volume. R. C. Reame is interested in the venture with Mr. Holmes in that he has helped to get the company interested and in other ways giving encouragement to the author.

All of "Peanut's" friends will be glad to see him get the success he deserves in his venture and will hope that this is only the beginning of his work in the writing of books that are money earners.

NOTICE.
Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will apply at the special meeting of the city council October 21, 1912, for a license to sell malt, spirituous and vinous liquors at 22 North Front street, for a period of six months.
SELSBY & KENNEDY.
Dated October 9, 1912.

TO FIGHT GREAT WHITE PLAGUE

President Johnson of the local typographical union is making plans to secure local co-operation in the nation wide effort to observe Sunday, Oct. 27, as anti-tuberculosis day. Preachers will be asked to lend their assistance in arousing sentiment against the spread of the white plague.

October 27 is to be observed all over the country as a day set apart to work in conjunction with the National Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis and the International Typographical union, in an attempt to prevent the spreading of the terrible disease and to cure the thousands who are now suffering with it.

The typographical union has been one of the most active crafts or organizations in the country in attempting to stamp out tuberculosis. For many years the printers have maintained an international home for those of the craft who have been stricken with the great white plague.

The local committee will meet in a few days to discuss plans for holding the meeting on tuberculosis Sunday. The meeting is to be public and is to be addressed by men who are competent to discuss the question.

The Imperial German postoffice has a new machine for printing stamps in rolls which are used in automatic slot selling devices.
