

Society

INTERESTING MEETINGS OF WOMEN'S CLUBS.

The ladies' auxiliary of the Knights of Pythias order held their initial social of this season Wednesday evening of this week. A very entertaining program was given, Mrs. John Perl being responsible for that feature. The numbers were given in the following order:

- Piano solo—"Die Erl Konig"..... Schubert
- Miss Venita Hamilton.
- Vocal solo—"Sunshine and Rain"..... Jacques Blumenthal
- Miss Iva Coffin, accompanied by Mrs. E. V. Coffin.
- Remarks..... Dr. Herman F. Ratte
- Violin solo—"Perpetual Motion"..... Carl Bohm
- Miss Ione Flynn, accompanied by Miss Lorraine Bliton.
- A Half Hour of Magic..... Professor L. E. Gregory

Professor Gregory, an understudy of Herrmann, the world's greatest magician, has recently returned from his thirteenth trip around the world, during which he received great honors, being decorated by the Chinese emperor. His entertainment Wednesday evening was extremely interesting.

The program was followed by dancing. Mr. H. H. Howell furnishing the music. Supper was then served in the banquet hall adjoining the lodge rooms. Hallway decorations prevailed, centerpieces being jack o'lanterns and pyramids of fruit and autumn leaves. The committee on arrangements were Mrs. Lillian Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Perl, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Byden, Mrs. Kershaw, Mrs. Cleone Hodge, Mrs. Canon, Mr. Ernest McKee, Mr. Earl Reynolds.

Mrs. S. T. Richardson entertained Wednesday afternoon with a delightful affair given in honor of Misses Gertrude and Frances Ashe. The rooms of the pretty home were charming with roses and chrysanthemums, the dining room especially so in a color scheme of pink. After an hour or so of sewing a three-course luncheon was served. The tables, with covers for four, had as centerpieces, bowls of pink illusion encircling a bowl of pink roses with rose shaded candles casting a pretty glow. Mrs. Richardson wore a gown of black silk combined with primrose shades. Guests included Misses Gertrude and Frances Ashe, Messdames Walter T. Keimery, George Roberts, Charles Lebo, Homer Rothermel, Harold Helwig, J. A. Wolf, W. F. Quisenberry, J. W. Keyes, Cleone Hodge.

The marriage of Miss Pearl Louisa Hoover and Mr. Charles Zimmermann occurred at the residence of Mrs. W. W. Allen yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The home was beautifully decorated, a unique feature being a large floral heart serving as an altar composed of evergreen bows tied with white and pink ribbons. After the ceremony which was performed by T. D. Boyle of the Christian church a beautiful dinner was served and with the good wishes of their many friends the happy couple left for a wedding trip to California.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Christian church was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pierce on East Main street Wednesday evening. Over one hundred of the members and guests were present. A program included a number of songs and readings, and selections by Mrs. Daddysman's orchestra which were much enjoyed. Refreshments were served at the conclusion of the affair. A unanimous vote of thanks was tendered for a very pleasant evening.

Miss Fern Jerome was complimented Friday afternoon, the eleventh, by Miss Flora Welch who entertained with a "quitting party" at her home on South Riverside avenue. Rooms were decorated with roses. A buffet luncheon consisted of salads, sandwiches, coffee and macaroons. Guests present besides the bride-elect were Misses Jessie Budd, Ione Flynn, Bertha Brandenburg, Lorraine Bliton, Bertha Welch, Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. Welch.

The Young Ladies' Embroidery club which was organized recently met at the home of Miss Lorraine Bliton Wednesday afternoon. About twelve members were present, invited guests were Miss Alleene Kingsbury, Miss Bertha Brandenburg and Miss Vera Bradley of Waterloo, Iowa.

Invitations are out to a number of affairs for the 31st. The Greater Medford ball heads the list, with high school and juvenile parties by the score.

Maxview, the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. MacClatchie, five miles west of the city was the scene of a very pleasant party Friday evening. Cards and dancing were enjoyed, and a buffet supper served. Misses Blanche and Eva MacClatchie assisted in entertaining. An arrangement of pine boughs, sweet brier roses and autumn leaves added to the inviting appearance of the attractive bungalow home. Those enjoying the evening's merriment were Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Riddell, Mr. George Treichler, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Moe, Mr. and Mrs. N. Quayle, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Root, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Tracy, Mr. Ben Sheldon, Dr. Deane, Mr. Robert Wilson, Mrs. A. L. Wilson, Mr. M. E. Root, Mrs. J. F. Root, Mrs. C. M. English, Mrs. F. H. Goffe, Miss Laura Treichler, Miss Jeannette Butler, Miss Hazel Herring, Mrs. James Herring.

The Medford Pan-Hellenic association at a meeting held last Saturday elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Mrs. J. G. Wilson, president; Miss Ruth Merrick, secretary; Miss Bess Kenter, treasurer. Those who are members of the following college fraternities are eligible to membership in the local association: Pi Beta Phi, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Delta Gamma, Alpha Phi, Gamma Phi Beta, Alpha Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Alpha Xi Delta, Chi Omega, Sigma Kappa, Alpha Omicron Pi, Zeta Tau Alpha, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Delta Phi, Delta Zeta, Phi Mu. Any women eligible to membership who have not yet affiliated with the local Pan-Hellenic, are urged to notify immediately either the president or secretary of the association.

The concert given by the United States Marine band Thursday evening gave pleasure to a large number of Medford people. The local order of Elks were responsible for the affair. The program was well selected to please a popular audience, at the same time including some excellent classical numbers. We are indeed fortunate in possessing the Natatorium hall which is very adaptable for affairs of this kind, both as to acoustics and seating capacity. The solist Thursday evening, Miss Mary Louise Sherier, combined a very pleasing stage appearance with a delightful soprano voice. She gave two encores which were greatly appreciated.

Mrs. Charles English entertained with seven tables of bridge at her home Thursday afternoon. Yellow chrysanthemums and ferns were used in the living room, with pink carnations in the music room. Mrs. T. E. Daniels won first prize, Mrs. W. T. York, the second. Those enjoying Mrs. English's hospitality were Messdames Grey, Mills, York, Daniels, Perkins, La Clare, Riddell, Bridge, Carey, W. L. Ellis, George Roberts, Purdin, Walthers, H. C. Kenter, C. I. Hutchison, C. S. McMillan, W. H. Brown, Charles Brown, Deloe, M. E. Smith, Horton, M. A. Barber, Luke, Salade, Harmon, Lumsden, Root, Tracy, Willard Campbell.

The Parent Teachers Circle of the Roosevelt School met Friday afternoon at the school building. Mrs. George F. King, president, presiding. Programs and plans for the ensuing year were discussed. It was also arranged to furnish a rest room for the teachers in the school. Mrs. Leonard as chairman of the program committee, announced that subjects of mutual interest to teachers and parents would be discussed throughout the year. Mrs. Van Scoyoc was heard in a well rendered vocal selection. A ladies quartette was also been organized.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church have arranged for a "red pencil day," the date to be October 25th. The report is "that if everyone is not writing with a red pencil by election it will not be the fault of the ladies." An auto tour of the world is also planned to take place Friday evening, October 24th. The itinerary will include all of the principal countries of the world, refreshments to be served at each "stop." The presidential candidates will be in America to greet their friends who will have an opportunity to cast their vote.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Campbell, Miss Horton and Mr. Earl Huntley left this week for an auto trip to Klamath Falls. They expect to visit Crater Lake also if weather conditions are favorable.

The Misses MacClatchie entertained a number of their friends at their home "Max Va Ranch" Friday evening. Medford should be proud of the latent but very apparent artistic ability displayed that each should illustrate the object written upon a slip of paper given. One could almost guess some of them. Miss Lenore Vance guessed the greatest number, Frederick Heath won the "booby" prize, thus proving his imagination was not quite so vivid.

The latter part of the evening was spent in choosing partners by matching postcards, dancing and refreshments.

Those present were: Misses Lenore Vance, Mayme Dael, Orbee Natwick, Josephine Root, Vera Olmstead, Phyllis Tisdale, Irene Smith, Ethel Guthrie, Margeret Souther, Blanche MacClatchie, Eva MacClatchie, Messrs. Richard Hance, Frederick Heath, Herbert Alford, Jay Gore, Robert Wilson, Arnett Grigsby, George Gates, Henry Souther, Ralph Pierce, Robert Kinleyside, Frank Ray, Luther Tisdale.

The next meeting of the Greater Medford club will be held Monday, October 28th. In place of last year's mid-monthly socials the members of the club have agreed to give a series of card parties and charge admission. A ball will be given on Halloween.

A beautiful gift and one that is sincerely appreciated has been given to the ladies of the library board by Mrs. J. T. Broadley of the Capitol Hill green house. Mrs. Broadley presented an exquisite fern to be used in the main room of the Carnegie library.

Mrs. Lathrop Perkins was hostess to twelve ladies at her home on Stewart avenue Friday afternoon in compliment to Mrs. H. A. Mills of Texarkana, Texas, who is a guest of her daughter, Mrs. H. A. Grey of this city.

A number of friends were entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Misses Edith, Sibyl and Carol Fish near Phoenix. Four tables of bridge were played. Autumn coloring was carried out in wild vine foliage and rose brier branches.

The musical service of the First Presbyterian church tomorrow morning will include a selection by the quartette, "God Shall Wipe Away All Tears From their Eyes," by J. P. Field. Also a contralto solo by Mrs. Florence Halliday Haight.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Stewart entertain friends at dinner this evening at their home. Those present will be Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hodge, Miss Jeanne Hodge, Mr. R. W. Sharp of Larned, Kan., and Miss Helen Dahl.

Members of the Altar society of the Catholic church are very busy preparing for the bazaar and fair to be held the last of November. The ladies meet every Thursday afternoon for this purpose.

Walter Hoover and wife of Los Angeles, Cal., have come to Medford to spend the winter with his mother, Mrs. L. E. Hoover, and assist his brother Charles in the nursery business.

Dr. and Mrs. John Hart, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Ellis and Mr. J. W. Keyes left Friday morning for an automobile trip to San Francisco. They will be absent about two weeks.

Misses Aileen Perl and Thelma Eastman are among the many who will "do the honors" as All Hallowes eve approaches. They entertain next Saturday evening.

Messdames Hoover, Schmalhausen, and West, drove over to Mt. Pitt orchard Wednesday, and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Soliss.

Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Soliss spent the week end visiting with their son J. E. Soliss and wife, at Mt. Pitt orchard near Eagle Point.

Mrs. Ed Pottinger and daughter Cleone went to Eagle Point Saturday, to visit with her sister, Mrs. Pruett over Saturday and Sunday.

The Friday evening Bridge club met with Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Antle this week.

Mrs. T. Kinsman is visiting friends in Portland for a short time.

A pretty home wedding took place Wednesday of this week at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Corlies on North Orange street when their granddaughter, Miss Fern Jerome became the bride of Mr. Wayne Leever of Central Point. Large chrysanthemums in yellow and white roses and smilax were effective decorations in the living and dining rooms. The marriage was solemnized at high noon, Rev. William Lucas of Ashland being the officiating clergyman. Miss Jerome was attended by Miss Jessie Budd of Whitehall, Montana, a former schoolmate, Mr. Edson Jerome, brother of the bride, acting as best man. Miss Jerome's gown was of chiffon broadcloth in a delicate shade of Copenhagen blue. Miss Budd wore champagne broadcloth. After the ceremony a four course luncheon was served. The guests comprised only the immediate relatives including Mrs. Alfred Edwin Jerome, mother of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Corlies, Kenneth Jerome, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Leever, Earl Leever and Mrs. William Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Leever have the sincere friendship of many residents of this valley who extend their heartiest wishes for their success and happiness. They will make their home in Central Point, receiving friends after November the first.

On Tuesday evening the local lodge of Rebekahs entertained Mrs. S. May Green, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Medford reviewing the work of Olive Rebekah lodge, No. 28, with its officers, leaving Wednesday afternoon for Jacksonville and other points. She will be in Ashland Saturday, October 19, where the district convention of Rebekahs will be held.

The missionary society of the Baptist church met Tuesday of this week at the home of Mrs. Yping on Olsen street with good attendance. The lesson of the day on Mohammedanism was presented in a clear and forcible manner by Mrs. Dr. Stearns. Dainty refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

A "birthday party" will be given next Tuesday evening at eight o'clock in St. Mark's hall by the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Mark's church. A musical and literary program will be given and refreshments served. The invitations read:

Miss Venita Hamilton expects to leave shortly for San Francisco, after several months spent in Medford with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hamilton. Miss Hamilton will continue her piano studies under Hugo Mansfield.

A breakfast picnic was enjoyed by sixteen young ladies this morning at the reservoir hill. A very palatable menu was prepared, served and partaken of. The affair was given for Miss Vera Bradley.

Misses Ethel and Marie Eifert entertained Saturday evening for a number of the young people of Ashland who were in Medford to take part in and witness the ball game.

Mrs. Frank Isanes has been spending the past week at Portland where she attended the grand lodge of the Pythian Sisters, as delegate from the local order.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Boggs are spending a short time at Eugene. They will also visit a number of the coast cities before their return.

Mrs. C. I. Hutchison and Mrs. Harold Lumsden entertained at the home of the latter this afternoon with eight tables of bridge.

Mrs. George Cornitus entertained a few friends at dinner at her home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Harman have returned from a trip to Portland.

Mrs. S. May Green, president of the Rebekah Assembly of Oregon spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Medford reviewing the work of Olive Rebekah lodge, No. 28, with its officers, leaving Wednesday afternoon for Jacksonville and other points. She will be in Ashland Saturday, October 19, where the district convention of Rebekahs will be held.

The missionary society of the Baptist church met Tuesday of this week at the home of Mrs. Yping on Olsen street with good attendance. The lesson of the day on Mohammedanism was presented in a clear and forcible manner by Mrs. Dr. Stearns. Dainty refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

A "birthday party" will be given next Tuesday evening at eight o'clock in St. Mark's hall by the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Mark's church. A musical and literary program will be given and refreshments served. The invitations read:

Miss Venita Hamilton expects to leave shortly for San Francisco, after several months spent in Medford with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hamilton. Miss Hamilton will continue her piano studies under Hugo Mansfield.

A breakfast picnic was enjoyed by sixteen young ladies this morning at the reservoir hill. A very palatable menu was prepared, served and partaken of. The affair was given for Miss Vera Bradley.

Misses Ethel and Marie Eifert entertained Saturday evening for a number of the young people of Ashland who were in Medford to take part in and witness the ball game.

Mrs. Frank Isanes has been spending the past week at Portland where she attended the grand lodge of the Pythian Sisters, as delegate from the local order.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Boggs are spending a short time at Eugene. They will also visit a number of the coast cities before their return.

Mrs. C. I. Hutchison and Mrs. Harold Lumsden entertained at the home of the latter this afternoon with eight tables of bridge.

Mrs. George Cornitus entertained a few friends at dinner at her home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Harman have returned from a trip to Portland.

On last Monday evening quite a large number of the members of the First Methodist Episcopal church, surprised Mr. D. T. Wilson at his home on Beatty street and presented him with a very handsome easy chair in honor of his 76th birthday. Mr. Wilson is one of the oldest members of the church, and in presenting the chair, Rev. Eldridge, his pastor, in his usual happy manner, assured Mr. Wilson of the love and esteem in which he was held by the church and public at large. After speechmaking and a general good time, refreshments were served, and good-bye said, all wishing the honored guest many returns. Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. E. O. Eldridge, Messrs. and Messdames C. E. Denning, C. D. Hoy, D. T. Lawton, Henry Metz, C. W. Conklin, N. G. Tinker, C. J. Coburn, Hugh Elliott, E. S. Hitzler, R. E. Wilson, J. W. Smylie, R. H. Bennett, H. L. Wilson, W. M. Stine, Leo Heisel, W. A. Lantz, Mrs. L. Bishop, Mrs. W. C. Wilson, Mrs. A. M. Jones, Mrs. R. M. Eberle, Mrs. A. Wines, L. E. Arnold, Mr. W. H. Meeker, Mr. C. A. Meeker, Mr. C. H. Corey, Mr. E. O. Conklin, Mr. N. L. Townsend, Mr. J. L. McAbraham, Mr. M. B. Banker, Mr. J. McPherson, Mr. F. T. Carritt.

The Wednesday Study club which held its second meeting of the new year at the Medford Library Wednesday afternoon, has outlined an unusually interesting program for this year's work. The calendar is made up of the leading modern dramas, a study of their authors, and an observation of the relationship that women assume in the problem plays of the day. Mrs. Root gave a most interesting paper Wednesday on the "Development of the Drama," sketching with interesting details the growth from the crude dramas of ancient Greece down to the finished production of the present age. The next meeting will be held Nov. 6, at which meeting Mrs. Alford has charge of the program. The play "Lady Windermere's Fan" by Oscar Wilde, will be under discussion.

Following is the program to be given at the birthday party given by the Woman's Auxiliary of St. Mark's church Tuesday evening:
Piano duet—Miss Anna Purucker and Mr. Taillandier.
Tenor solo—Mr. Fletcher Fish.
Piano solo—Miss Villa Grigsby.
Violin solo—Miss Ione Flynn.
Reading—Miss Reba Dwight.

Prof. and Mrs. P. J. O'Gara are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Allen at Klamath county.

Miss Flora Welch will leave soon for Los Angeles to join her aunt, Mrs. Fred C. Page and spend the winter in that place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Howard have been enjoying a visit from their son, Mr. Charles Howard of Josephine county.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Carnahan spent a few days in Medford the first of the week.

Miss Vera Bradley of Waterloo, Iowa, is a guest of Miss Polra Welch.

Notice, Hunters Take Warning. Hunting, shooting and fishing on the Van Dyke place on Bear creek southeast of the Gore orchard, is positively forbidden, so beware! On application special permission for the open season may be obtained by paying a small fee.

B. P. VAN DYKE.

Dear friend:
With greetings full and hearty,
We invite you to a birthday party.
We also send you a little snack.
Please either bring or send it back.
We only ask that you will give
A cent for each year it's been yours to live.
But if you dislike your true age to tell
Then put in a dollar, 'twill do as well.
Kind friends will give you something to eat,
And others will furnish a musical treat.
We trust, dear friend, you'll be happy and hearty,
And let nothing prevent you from attending our party.

The first pupils' recital of the season of the Medford Conservatory was given last Saturday. The recitals will take place hereafter every first Saturday of the month beginning at eight o'clock. All interested are invited to attend. Those participating last Saturday were Aletha Johnson, Jeannette Patterson, Iva Coffin, Herbert Alford, Raymond Taylor, Aileen Perl, Caroline Paul. Different students will take part at each recital.

The Choral society under the direction of Mr. Taillandier met for the second rehearsal last Wednesday evening. Several more members were admitted. The number of sopranos is now sufficient and no more will be admitted unless vacancies occur. Applicants will be put on waiting list. Apply in writing to Mr. Taillandier. There are openings at present for tenors, altos and a few basses. Next rehearsal as usual on Wednesday at eight o'clock in the evening.

Miss Flora Welch will leave soon for Los Angeles to join her aunt, Mrs. Fred C. Page and spend the winter in that place.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Howard have been enjoying a visit from their son, Mr. Charles Howard of Josephine county.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Carnahan spent a few days in Medford the first of the week.

Miss Vera Bradley of Waterloo, Iowa, is a guest of Miss Polra Welch.

Notice, Hunters Take Warning. Hunting, shooting and fishing on the Van Dyke place on Bear creek southeast of the Gore orchard, is positively forbidden, so beware! On application special permission for the open season may be obtained by paying a small fee.

B. P. VAN DYKE.

The Repulsiveness of Medusa

(Note.—Medusa, one of the three Gorgons mentioned in Mythology, is described as being a fair maiden of rare and touching beauty. Because of the desecration of her temple, the goddess Minerva in revenge changed Medusa's hair to snakes and decreed that whosoever should look upon her face be turned to stone.)

Due, Not to Distorted Features, but to her Snaky Hair

Minerva knew that the surest way to ruin a woman's beauty was to destroy her hair. Hence she took a most terrible revenge when she turned Medusa's hair into serpents and thus robbed a feared and hated rival of all claim to loveliness.

Many a woman today is being robbed of her personal attractiveness by the loss of her hair just as surely as was Medusa. There is one sure way to check the loss of hair and add to its beauty and luxuriance, and that is by the use of the well known scalp prophylactic and hair dressing

NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

The Original Dandruff Germ Destroyer

Normally everyone should have good hair, and were it not for unnatural conditions existing in the scalp, luxuriant, fluffy hair would be the rule rather than the exception. Dry, lustreless hair is due to dandruff caused by an invisible microbic growth or germ. The regular and consistent use of HERPICIDE removes the dandruff scale, kills the germ and keeps the hair and scalp in a clean, sanitary condition. It acts as a preserver of the hair, prevents it falling out and stops itching of the scalp almost instantly. Herpicide has a most delightful odor, contains no grease and does not stain or dye. If it is results you want, insist upon having Newbro's Herpicide and not an off brand article. Applications at the better barber shops and hair dressing parlors.

SAMPLE BOTTLE AND BOOKLET FOR TEN CENTS.

Send 10 cents in silver or postage to THE HERPICIDE COMPANY, Dept 87 B, Detroit, Mich., for trial bottle and booklet about the hair, sent postage paid to any address.

Try Herpicide Aseptic Tar Soap for Shampoo. There is nothing better. To know the real comfort of hair-dressing, ladies should use the Herpicide Comb, No. 999. Ask your druggist about both.

Two Sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Sold and Guaranteed everywhere—money refunded if results are not as promised.

MEDFORD PHARMACY

Special Agents.