SOUTHERN Oregon feels grateful to Senator Bourne, not only for his work for the entire state at Washington, but especially for his successful work in securing the first $50,000 installment of the $700,000 appropriation for the improvement of Crater Lake national park.

The history of this appropriation is well known. Introduced by Senator Bourne in the senate calling for $100,000 and passed, it was defeated in the house. As an amendment by Bourne to the civil sundry bill, it again passed the senate, only to be slaughtered a second time in the house. When the bill came to the senate conferees, Bourne again amended the measure to include the Crater Lake appropriation and held up the bill ten days until the house conferees agreed to compromise on $50,000 for the park—the only measure of its kind that passed at the last session of congress.

The fact that Senator Bourne was on the appropriations committee and that he was influential enough to induce the senate conferees to stand pat with him, secured the improvement of the park. In order to secure the balance of the $700,000, it is important that Bourne be re-elected.

Oregon would be very foolish to sacrifice such an asset as Bourne has proved to be in the senate to gratify the spleen and animosity of disgruntled politicians. It would be business folly to retire him for an unknown stranger.

Senator Bourne will hold an informal reception to meet the people of Medford at the Medford hotel tonight and learn their desires. He should be greeted with a large attendance in appreciation of his efforts.

A PROSECUTOR THAT WILL PROSECUTE.

AN important office which has been largely overlooked in the present campaign, is that of district attorney for the first judicial district, comprising Jackson and Josephine counties.

This is an office upon which depends the enforcement of the law in the two counties and the protection of citizens from lawbreakers by the prompt and vigorous prosecution of offenders.

It requires an attorney of ability, of extended experience, a good jury lawyer, a man of backbone and stamina, who will discharge the duties of the position fearlessly and impartially.

The people of the two counties cannot afford to educate young attorneys at public expense. They should not select men who have never conducted a criminal case nor addressed a jury. It is not to the taxpayers' interests to leave the moral and social welfare in inexperienced hands—no matter how engaging the personality.

Among the candidates for this office, by all odds the best qualified, is Judge E. E. Kelly. He has demonstrated his ability as a criminal lawyer, having had the bulk of the criminal practice in Jackson county for the past few years. A man who can successfully defend the crook, and thoroughly understands criminals, is the best man to prosecute them.

Judge Kelly is of the good-natured, witty, fighting Irish type. He is utterly fearless, morally and physically. He has no corporation affiliations, is as honest as men are made, and if elected, there will be an impartial enforcement of the law.

This is the kind of a prosecutor we are in need of. Judge Kelly should be elected.

Original Contract for Medford Bridge, Built by Jackson County Without Protest

Before Jackson county constructed the Medford bridge in June, 1902, some question was raised as to the right of the county to build it. The county court referred the subject to A. E. Reames, then district attorney, who in an exhaustive opinion given in September, 1901, held that it was within the province of the county to build the bridge.

The contract was let by the county court composed of Charles Prim, of Jacksonville, county judge, Irwin S. Butler, of Ashland and Thomas Riley of Eagle Point, county commissioners. There was no protest in the part of any taxpayers. The following is a copy of the bridge contract:

Bridge Contract
This agreement made this 18th day of June, 1902, by and between the county of Jackson, state of Oregon, by Charles Prim, county judge, G. S. Butler, county commissioner and Thomas Riley, county commissioner, acting for Jackson county, Oregon, the party of the first part and, George Ridinger the party of the second part, witnesseth,

That the said party of the second part, for and in consideration of the sum of the five thousand nine hundred and ninety-five ($5,995.00) dollars agrees to construct in a good and workmanlike manner a steel bridge made of genuine steel across Bear creek in the city of Medford, Jackson county, Oregon, the said bridge to consist of two spans of 110 feet each as shown in the specifications attached hereto and made a part hereof, and the said bridge to be constructed in the manner as shown in the specification hereto attached.

It is further agreed by the said party of the second part under the above consideration that he will make the fills required at each end of the bridge when constructed to the present dirt road leading to the bridge, said fills to be 18 feet wide on the top the fills to have the slant they would naturally take in dumping the material thereon used in making the fills.

construction of the said bridge to be as specified in the specifications attached hereto.

It is further agreed on the part of the party of the first part that when all of the material to be used in the construction of said bridge according to the specifications and plans hereto attached shall be delivered on the grounds in the city of Medford, Oregon, there shall be paid if demanded of the said party of the second part a sum not to exceed $4,000.00, to the said party of the second part, said sum so paid to be deducted from the entire amount of $5,995.00 under the terms of this contract.

It is further agreed on the part of the party of the first part that the sand and gravel to be used in making the fills and in the construction of the piers shall be furnished by the said party of the first part.

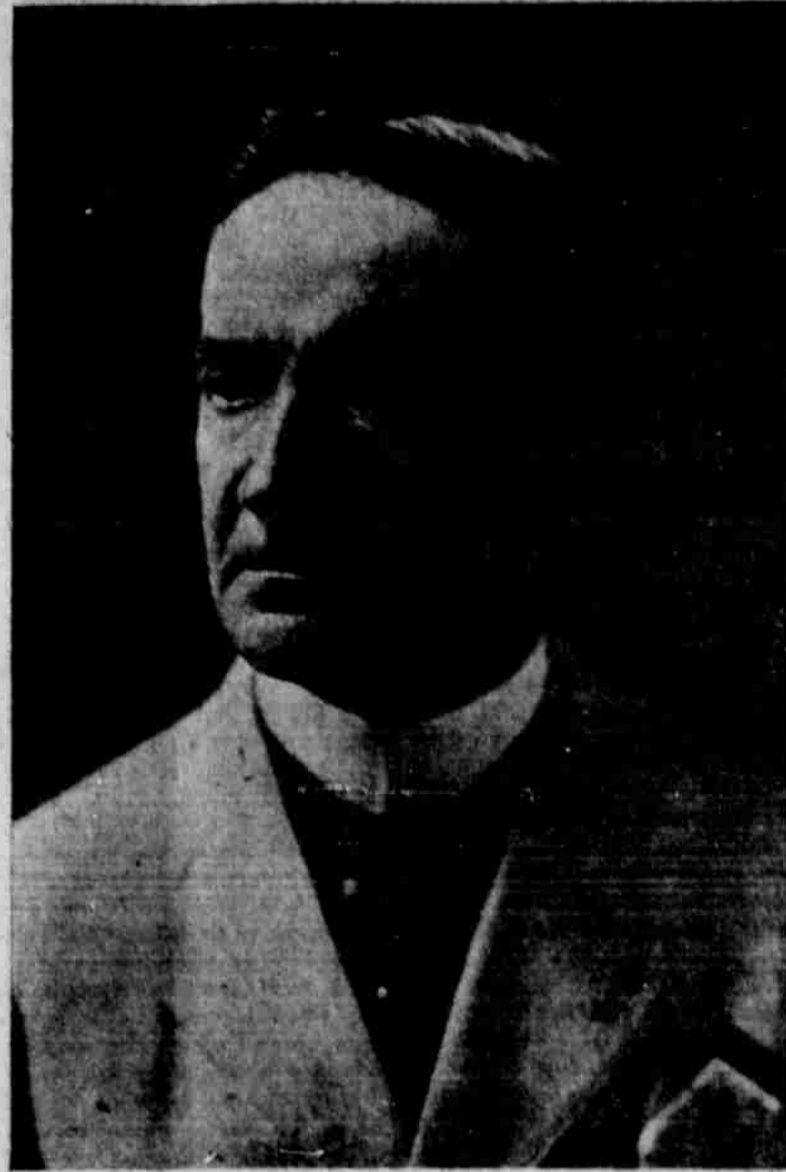

The amounts to be paid to the party of the second part under the terms of this contract to be paid in county warrants.

It is further agreed by the party of the first part that the said party of the second part is to have the old bridge now standing for the sum of $50.00 provided that the new decking on the said bridge is to be removed by the party of the second part and placed within the city limits at some place to be specified by the party of the first part, said decking to be the property of the party of the first part, and the old bridge is to be removed by the said party of the second part, free of cost to the said party of the first part.

GADSKI'S COMING HAILED WITH DELIGHT

(From the Spectator.)

The announcement that Johanna Gadski, the great Wagnerian soprano of the Metropolitan opera house, New York, will be in Portland, is received with delight by all music lovers. No one stands higher in the world of art today than Gadski. Her glorious voice so admirably adapted to splendid outbursts of impassioned emotion and tenderness, which characterize Wagnerian opera is at its best.

Year by year Gadski has developed new power as an artist of supreme and consummate genius. Her Brunhilde, half goddess, half woman, is a marvellous study, more impressive in its heroic dignity of outline and poise than any Wagnerian soprano has given the world. Gadski has caught the spirit of those grand old Norse legends and into the mesh breathes the fire of pure and lofty genius. No singer of the day holds a loftier place in art than Gadski.

Mme. Gadski sings one concert in Medford at the Natatorium on October 23. Seats at Haskins' now.

COMMUNICATION.

Fears Standpat Candidate.

Riddle, Ore., 19, 1912. To the Editor: The end of the campaign is nearing. I have taken little interest in matters locally but having been in Douglas county considerable during the past month, I have interested myself a little in the joint representative campaign. The two candidates are campaigning this county, and both being from Medford I believe myself capable of making a selection. I believe that in electing men to legislatures we should elect men to represent the people, not standpatners who don't believe in people's rule. We want men who are broad enough to construct laws in conformity with the wishes of the people as they express themselves from time to time through the ballot. I have watched this particular campaign and continually see in print articles from the pen of Candidate Whisler taking a decidedly negative stand on two of the measures which the people will decide on November 5th. Should the people decide in favor of these measures and Whisler be elected I fear that his standpatism would materially hamper the people in getting what they voted for if by the passage of other laws operation could be nullified or delayed. It don't make any difference to me what either Mr. Whisler or Mr. Reames thinks about single tax or woman's suffrage. I am going to vote the way I believe and neither of the two gentlemen's votes will count any more than mine.

One Dose Makes Indigestion Go.

All Stomach Distress Quickly Ended With "Pape's Diapiesin."

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you mustn't injure it with drastic drugs. Pape's Diapiesin is noted for its speed in giving relief; it's harmless; it's certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomachs. It's millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them; if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas; causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapiesin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. It's promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

PACIFIC OUTLOOK OF GRANTS PASS SUSPENDS

The Pacific Outlook, published at Grants Pass has suspended, the subscribers being cared for by the Courier. In 1895 the Oregon Mining Journal was started in Grants Pass by Judge John L. Childs of Crescent City. Attorney Wade secured control soon after the birth of new Journal, and Arthur Conklin became associated with him and a little later assumed full management which he continued till two years ago, when Wm. R. Brower contracted for the plant and conducted the business till last week, when the paper was discontinued and the plant turned back to Mr. Conklin.

For the first twelve years of its existence the paper was published as a mining journal, and for a time was the representative mining publication of the state. It later left the list of class publications, however, and changing its name to that of the Pacific Outlook, entered the local field.
