WILSON CALLED DOWN
 BY W. C. T. U. SUFFRAGISTS

PORTLAND, Oct. 22.—The national delegates and other members of the W. C. T. U. and the suffragettes here are indignant today over the promulgation of a pamphlet condemning woman's suffrage as reactionary in the interests of temperance, and a hindrance rather than an aid to the cause. The pamphlet is said to be the work of Rev. Clarence True Wilson, ex-pastor of the Grace Methodist church. The case of southern California is cited in the pamphlet, the writer declaring that since the adoption of the ballot by women in that state conditions have not vastly improved there.
 Dr. Wilson is now general secretary of the national Methodist Episcopal temperance society and a resolution from the W. C. T. U. has been sent him asking him to cease striking at the cause of suffrage.

ARMS FOR RURALES TO END BORDER WAR

NOGALES, Ariz., Oct. 22.—Two thousand of Mausers and a large shipment of ammunition arrived at Nogales today from Mexico City.
 The munitions are for the purpose of equipping Colonel Kosterlitzky's newly organized corps of rurales.
 The Madero government hopes with the aid of this new force to maintain peace in the state of sonora and drive the remaining scattered bands of rebels from the state.

DIAZ REFUSES TO RETURN TO MEXICO

PARIS, Oct. 22.—Although displaying great interest in the operations of his nephew Felix Diaz, now in control of Vera Cruz, ex-President Porfirio Diaz of Mexico expressed today his determination of remaining away from the southern republic.
 "Under the circumstances," Diaz said, "I prefer not to express any opinion relative to my nephew's intentions or his chances of success."

JUDGE CROWELL REMAINS AT MEDFORD NATIONAL BANK

Arrangements have been made by the Medford National bank to continue the services of Judge Crowell for a number of years. The judge has concluded his first year with the bank and during that time the resources have increased $170,000. He has been in the banking business in Medford since 1905 and is recognized as one of the leading bankers of the state. His many local friends and those among the banking fraternity in general will be glad to know that Judge Crowell is well and permanently located.

OREGON NEEDS BOURNE.

"WHEN I went to Washington a few years ago as president of the First National bank to have it made a government depository," states Judge W. S. Crowell, "I was told that it was impossible. It was just after the panic of 1907 and the government had adopted the policy of withdrawing its deposits and curtailing the number of depositories. I presented the matter to Senator Bourne and in less than 24 hours, the bank had been made a government depository with $50,000 of government funds.
 Senator Bourne gets results and is the man Oregon needs at Washington. Although a life-long democrat, I shall vote for him. Oregon needs him."

This is but one of many instances that can be cited showing that Mr. Bourne has the happy faculty of getting what he goes after—and he goes after whatever his constituency demands.

Bourne's record of accomplishment for Oregon is a long one. His record of accomplishment for the people is even longer. He is the author of the presidential preference primary law, the parcels post law and the recognized champion and advocate of popular government measures.

As the Chicago Public, one of the ablest edited papers in the country remarks:

"It is gratifying to learn that Senator Bourne of Oregon is after all to be a candidate to succeed himself. He could not have been defeated at the primaries, if he had worked for the nomination; but, believing that his place of duty was at the national capitol, he stayed there through the primary campaign, leaving his official record to speak for itself. A good record it is. But democracy hasn't yet had experience enough with good records to understand them without the voice of a candidate to interpret. So Senator Bourne was defeated by an interior man. But this man has been making a record since his nomination which the people do understand, and a cry for Bourne has gone up backed by a 12 per cent petition. For the sake of the democracy of Oregon, and for the good of the whole country, let us hope that Bourne will be re-elected with a majority big enough to leave no doubt of the political intelligence of the Oregon electorate."

EMASCULATING THE INITIATIVE.

THE so-called majority amendment submitted to the people, No. 322-3 on the ballot, is designed to kill the initiative in Oregon. It provides:

"No measure submitted at any election under the initiative shall take effect, or become the law unless it shall be approved by a majority of all the electors voting at such election, whether voting on such measure or not."
 (See state booklet, page 84.)

An active campaign in favor of the bill is being made, advertisements carried in all the newspapers and money freely spent in its advocacy.

Who furnishes this money and why? Who pays for these ads? The answer is easy—the public service corporations, the liquor interests and other interested parties who want to take legislation out of the hands of the people and place it with the legislature which they can handle.

Under the present law, an initiative bill becomes a law when a majority of those voting upon the measure approve it. Only the more intelligent voters study the initiative measures. The ignorant do not vote upon them.

If this bill had been in force, scarcely a measure that the people have enacted would have become a law. The local option law, the recall, the presidential primary, the corrupt practices act, the three-fourths jury verdict law, the good roads amendment and the Rogue river fish bill would have never been enacted.

It would kill the initiative in Oregon as it has killed it in Oklahoma, where it is in effect, and the people have not been able to enact a single measure.

On its face, the bill looks fair, but it is not majority rule, for there is always a percentage of voters too ignorant to vote upon the measures and who by withholding expression, kill the measure.

The measure is a joker designed to put the initiative out of business. Every friend of progressive or popular government should vote against the bill. X323.

Dedication of Oak Ridge Abbey

In the Shadow of Abraham Lincoln's Tomb at Springfield, Illinois, a Proper Repoze for the Dead.

It takes time for us to break with custom, though that custom dishon-ors our dead. But the better way of human burial has come. Not one objection can be urged against it, and not one argument can be offered in favor of burying the helpless dead in the water-soaked vermin-infected earth.—L. L. Austin.

In the dedication of the magnificent community mausoleum in the very shadow of Abraham Lincoln's tomb at Springfield, Illinois, said in his dedicatory address:

How About Your Dead?

"We are holding these services within a few hundred feet of Lincoln's tomb. The citizens of this state, you who are here today, gladly gave of their money to build this splendid tomb. You wanted the body of this great and good man kept from dissolution. Are your own dead less to you? Certainly not.
 Should you not give them that last consideration, the best burial the world affords, especially when such form of entombment may be had in your own city, in this beautiful mausoleum reared here for the needs of the citizens of this city, which will ever hold in its keeping the remains of the immortal Lincoln. In the erection of this structure, the builders have rendered the greatest service of which men are capable, in giving you a fit, appropriate, artistic, sanitary and permanent resting place for your dead."

Not How Long, but Forever

"Before you stands this magnificent mausoleum, built of reinforced concrete, solid masonry, marble and bronze. Nothing but a terrific earthquake can move its firm foundations or mar its classic beauty. Were its facing walls blown down with dynamite, the seamless crypts which hold your dead, would remain, and will remain, intact to the end of time. Its massive foundation extends ten feet into the earth. Its beautiful tile roof rests upon, and is a part of, the reinforced concrete base. Its walls would make a fortress as did the Pantheon at Rome. This building will defy the elements and the ravages of time, and will witness the passing of the hundredth generation as calmly as it does our presence here today.

"We, therefore, dedicate this building to the 'better way' of human burial, to the entombment of your sacred dead. It is your to have and to hold forever. Here you will lay to their last rest, your loved ones amidst the dignified associations of this celebrated cemetery. In your heart will ever linger the great joy that you gave them tombs fit for kings, in keeping with the dignity of your sorrow and loving tenderness, and in just appreciation of their worth while living."

The Silent City vs. the City Beautiful

These words will convey to Medford people, as nothing else perhaps can, the degree of human interest everywhere prevailing in the east and middle west on the subject of mausoleum burial. As can be readily judged, it is a living question, being deliberated upon by all classes and appealing especially to communities which are striving to establish high ideals and perpetuate the true, the good and the beautiful in all things pertaining to civic improvement."

LONDON, Oct. 22.—Ordered last week by her physicians to take a month's rest at Herrogate, the Duchess of Marlborough, formerly Consuelo Vanderbilt, is today preparing to undergo an operation for appendicitis. Appendicitis first threatened the duchess in 1911, but her physician at that time decided that an operation was unnecessary.

CUSTER'S LAST
 STAND AT STAR

"Custer's Last Fight," the most sensational war picture in modern filmdom, will be shown at the Star theater Friday and Saturday of this week. It is one of the famous Bison "101" films and shows the history of Custer's little band, the details of their trip after Rain-in-the-Face, and the terrible massacre.
 The well known last stand, with the whirling circle of redskins in pictured in realistic manner, the final scene shows the dedication of the Custer monument on the battle field.
 The film is staged by 1000 Indians and 1000 soldiers and the cost was more than $20,000.

DAVIS COMPLETES

 new owners plan to start further development work at once upon the tract. Reports that the deal had fallen through were unfounded.

 during that time the resources have

LAXATIVE FOR OLD PEOPLE--"CASCARETS"

What Glasses Are to Weak Eyes, Cas-carets Are to Weak Bowels—A 10-cent Box Will Truly
 Amaze You

Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets.
 One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty.

Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.
