COLONEL WOOD TO SPEAK TUESDAY

Col. C. E. S. Wood will speak in Medford next Tuesday evening for the national democratic ticket.

Col. C. E. S. Wood graduated from West Point in 1874 and resigned to practice law in 1884 in Portland, Oregon. Judge George H. Williams was his partner till his death and Richard W. Montague is now associated with him in the practice of the law. Colonel Wood was the editorial writer of "Impressions" in the Pacific Monthly and is the author of several books. He is an eloquent orator, never partisan and it will pay you to hear him.

His view is that this is the most important campaign since the civil war being the first attack by an aroused people on entrenched privilege. He thinks the tariff the one issue and that voters must choose between Taft and the party which built up the trusts. Roosevelt who believes monopoly and trusts are good things if regulated by himself; and Wilson and Marshall who both believe that monopoly is a curse and must cease—and that the true test of prosperity is the welfare of the plain people.

GREER HELD FOR LIBEL

members of the alleged gang, and that he was under no obligations or agreement to anyone and would run the office on business lines, in the interests of the taxpayers if elected, that he was his own boss and was not under obligations or pledges to anyone.

The defense submitted no evidence but Attorney Briggs occupied half an hour in explaining that the word "loot" did not necessarily mean robbery or theft, and that it might mean the advocacy of county expenditures in excess of constitutional limits; that all the alleged members of the "gang" were reputable and progressive citizens and that the writer of the article did not mean that they were thieves.

Nominal Bail Fixed

Attorney Reames concluded with the assertion that the arguments of the defendant's attorney were an insult to intelligence, that the defendant published assertions intended to injure the complaining witness and others, that they had been circulated all over the county, and that it was not what the defendant meant to say, but what his readers thought was meant when they read the charge that these men had formed a gang to loot Jackson county had looted it for half a million dollars, and that they had made "a deal by which they knew they could control Tou Velle."

Objections of the defense were overruled by the court, who bound Editor Greer over to the grand jury and fixed bail at $100.

BIG BLACK BEAR ON WAGNER BUTTE

Game Warden Artbur Hubbard "jumped" a big black bear near the slopes of Wagner Butte one day last week—it having a lair about a quarter of a mile from what is known as Wagon Camp Corral, says the Valley Record. Mr. Hubbard was not armed at the time but it is probable that Bruin will be brought to a speedy end one of these days as several hunters have signified their intention of going into that region with dogs.

Mr. Hubbard states that cattle from the Little Applegate have recently been in that locality and that not far from where he found the bear he found a dead cow partly eaten.

In this connection it may be stated bears are reported frequently. E. N. Butler who lives on the Green Springs Mountain ranch, reports that one went through the brush adjacent to his cow lot a few evenings ago.

Consumptives Helped by Tuberculosis Medicine

It is folly to believe that Consumption differs from every other disease in not requiring the use of any medicine for its treatment. For a number of years an enormous mass of voluntary and thankful testimonials from persons who consider that they owe their lives to Eckman's Alternative, a medicine for Tuberculosis, has been accumulating. Surely plenty of time to demonstrate its lasting value. You can write to any of them. Here is one:

"Gentlemen: In the winter of 1903 I had an attack of Grippe, followed by Pneumonia and later by Consumption. I grew steadily worse. In the winter of 1904 I had cough, night sweats, fever and raised quantities of spittle-looking stuff and later I had many hemorrhages; at one time three in three successive days. My mind and eyes became so distressed I could keep nothing down. Three physicians treated me. I was ordered to the mountains, but did not go. Eckman's Alternative was recommended by a friend. After taking a small quantity, I had the best quiet night's sleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the first. I gained strength and weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually lessened until entirely gone. I am perfectly well. Everything I say here can be verified by my family and friends."

(Sworn Affidavit) ANNE F. LOUGHRAN, Eckman's Alternative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in rebuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet or habit-forming drugs. Write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.
