

GERMANY WILL SIDE WITH AUSTRIA IN CASE OF WAR

LONDON, Oct. 26.—Where Germany will stand in the division of the powers on the Balkan situation is not known although it is believed that she will line up with Austria if a struggle of world importance comes. Russia's position is puzzling. Bound to the Balkan confederates by ties of blood and religion, it is regarded as doubtful if she would ally herself with Austria. It is thought more probable that the Russians would stand with Serbia, Bulgaria, Montenegro and Greece, bargaining with them, if necessary, rather than to trust to Austria's promises of an even division of the Moslem territories.

It is doubtful if France has any territorial designs, but she probably would stand with England and Italy if it became necessary to choose.

Should the situation develop so with England, Italy, France and the Balkan States and Russia on the one side and Austria and Germany on the other as allies of the Turk, the world war which Europe has dreaded since the first days of the near eastern question probably would develop into carnage without parallel in the history of humanity.

Whether the partition of Turkey will ever be put to the arbitrament of arms, of course, is doubtful. There are great forces working to prevent such a catastrophe. But it is a certainty that the Balkan allies have felt their power as never before, that they united as never before, and that, if they crush the Turk, they will not allow themselves to be robbed of the fruits of victory without a struggle to the death.

Moore of the Panama Pacific International exposition, received a letter here today expressing the gratitude of the Japanese government for the kindness and sympathy shown by the people of San Francisco, as well as the officers of the exposition over the recent death of Emperor Mutsuhito.

"My government is not unmindful of these courteous attentions," writes Nagai, "and ventures to see in them the evidences of the growing good will between the people of America and Japan."

From a representative in Washington, President Moore has received word that Mexico's exhibit at the exposition will be a permanent gift to the people of the United States. The building, it is said, will be designed after the Palace of Ayuntamiento, in Mexico City.

South American newspaper confirm reports that Chile has appropriated $200,000 for an exhibit.

NEW RATES ROB WESTERN SHIPPERS

SALEM, Ore., Oct. 26.—According to a statement issued by T. C. Davies, statistician of the state railroad commission, the suspension of the operation of western classification No. 51, the new classification governing all freight rates west of the Mississippi, is a matter of prime importance to the people of the Pacific Slope.

The advances under this classification are now being investigated by the inter-state commerce commission, the same being contested by the Oregon and fifteen other state commissions. According to Davies the advance covers hundreds of articles, but are so insignificant when the individual article is considered that the sum total of the advances is not taken into consideration by the paying and buying public.

BRITAIN TO WAR WITH GERMANY

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 26.—That a staggering war between Great Britain and Germany is imminent is the opinion here today of Dr. Iur Lenoir, a lieutenant in the Jager regiment, known in Germany as the "Kaiser's Own."

"Lord Roberts is right," said Dr. Lenoir, who is returning to the Fatherland after attending the funeral in Tokio of the late Mikado of Japan. "His statement that Germany was ready and anxious to strike is a fact of the most ominous truthfulness. Germany has had a long era of peace, and her officers, even the highest executives, are anxious to show the world the great military advances which Germany has made during the last thirty or forty years."

"I do not believe Germany will win, but even if France joins with England, which I believe she will, Germany will destroy so many British battleships that America will become the greatest naval power in the world."

BAR DOPE FIENDS FROM ASYLUMS

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Oct. 26.—With the population in state hospitals for the insane increasing at an alarming fifteen per cent. in the past eighteen months, Chairman Neyland and Commissioner Seavey of the state board of control are out with the recommendation today that the state law admitting drug fiends and inebriates to the insane hospitals be abolished. Both assert that this law has proven a failure so far as the general good of the patients is concerned.

Hospital superintendents declare that the drug and liquor victims make life miserable for the insane patients by continual fault finding and appear to take great delight in teasing the weak-minded inmates. The superintendents agree that the state should find some other place of refuge for the drug fiends and drunkards, not only because the hospitals are crowded, but for the general good of the insane patients as well.

The board of control is calculating upon a rapid increase in the number of insane patients to be cared for in the next few years, and will ask for an appropriation of at least $5,000,000 for the two years beginning July 1, 1913.

Lingenfelter and George Johnson two neighbors. Hyde went up to his room in the afternoon and turned on the gas.
