W. E. Whiteside of Portland visited his mother Mrs. R. M. Whiteside and his brother E. G. Whiteside the first of this week.

W. H. Norcross and J. E. Boswell have returned from their hunt on upper Elk Creek.

R. H. Ellsworth made a business trip north the first of the week. The Misses Esther and Pearl Pankey spent Sunday with friends in the north end of the county. E. L. Farra, Geo. Pankey and Dill Pankey are on a haut on upper Evans creek this week.

Fred Farra, Floyd Ross and Mr. Smith, Jr., left Sunday morning for a hunt in the vicinity of the city of Rogue Hiver.

The new Presbyterian church was dedicated here Sanday. A large number of our citizens were present at the dedication.

The boys' conference which was held here the last of the week proved to be a great success. Many boys from the near towns were here in attendance. The Ladies' Auxiliary deserve much credit in the way they managed this affair. A mass meeting for older boys was held here at the Baptist church Sunday afternoon and was attended by a large delegation of our own citizens and the visiting boys of the coys' conference who much appreciated the able address of L.
