

ONLY BRIEF ACCOUNT OF GREAT BATTLE

LONDON, Nov. 1.—The four days' battle in Thrace has ended in the triumph of the Bulgarian commander-in-chief, General Savoff, whose skillful strategy has probably brought to a close one of the shortest and most remarkable wars on record. The great Turkish army, estimated at more than 200,000 men, has been defeated and is in retreat. Constantinople is believed to be at the mercy of the Bulgarians and the council sitting at the porte is discussing the advisability of suing for peace. Such is the news from Constantinople. Only the briefest and vaguest accounts of the great battle have yet been received, for the war has been especially remarkable in that not a single war correspondent has been allowed at the front except in the case of the little Montenegrin campaign against Scutari. Apparently Nazim Pasha has been completely outmaneuvered. The Bulgarians' turning movement along the Black sea coast now appears to have been a feint, with the successful intent of drawing Nazim to throw his main army to the eastward while Savoff hurled his strength against the Turks' weakened left wing, which he crushed at Lule Burgas. The fighting along the whole front, which has apparently been most stubborn and determined, was carried on day and night. The capture of Nazim's headquarters at Achola is highly expected. In this event the Turks will be forced within the defensive lines of Tchatalja, the only remaining fortified position protecting Constantinople. It lies twenty-five miles to the northwest of the capital.

M'NAMARA PLOTTED WHILE IN PRISON TO "GET" BURNS

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 1.—That J. J. McNamara, arch dynamiter, since his imprisonment in San Quentin penitentiary, has plotted to "get" William J. Burns, detective, and also "get" Walter Drew, who worked up evidence against him, was the substance of testimony given at the dynamite trial today. The story as related on the witness stand was by Herbert S. Hockin, who went to San Quentin last spring and said McNamara, in a conversation with him through the bars of the cell, said: "I would like to see them get both Burns and Drew." Edward J. Brennan was the witness who gave the testimony. Brennan, who is a government agent, said this was told to him by Hockin, who also stated that later Hockin went to San Francisco, where Anton Johannsen, the labor leader, told him that "Mac" (meaning McNamara) was anxious "to get Burns and Drew." Johannsen, then, according to Brennan, told Hockin that after Hockin's return to Indianapolis a stranger who he said would introduce himself by saying, "I am the arrow, not Darrow," would appear on the scene. The stranger appeared. He brought a package which he left at union headquarters.

OROZCO, SENIOR, IS FREED FROM PRISON

EL PASO, Nov. 1.—An attempt by the Mexican government to hold Pascual Orozco, Sr., in jail here ten days more without trial was frustrated today by District Judge Walthal. Orozco has already been held forty days, as prescribed by the treaty, and was freed today at the expiration of his allotted time, the Mexican government offering no proofs warranting extradition. As soon as freed, Orozco was re-arrested on a charge preferred by Governor Gonzales of Chihuahua, through Governor Colquitt. This was made possible through the extradition treaty between the two states. On application for release on habeas corpus Walthal declined to keep Orozco in prison on the grounds virtually the same issue was involved.

COURT FREES MORAL CENSOR OF CHARGE OF DELINQUENCY

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Nov. 1.—City Prosecutor Guy Eddle was exonerated of the charge of having contributed to the delinquency of Mrs. Alma Jones by Judge Wilbur in the juvenile court late today. In dismissing the case Judge Wilbur referred to the discrepancies in the testimony of Mrs. Jones and of the general character of the witnesses for the prosecution. He said there was insufficient testimony upon which to hold Eddie for trial. In a statement issued by Eddie after his discharge he said the charge of improper relations with Mrs. Jones was placed against him by his political enemies. Eddie's trial on a charge of having contributed to the delinquency of Mrs. Alice Phelps will begin November 20.

SAMS VALLEY FARM SOLD FOR $7,500

O. V. Myers Thursday sold to O. Connor of Los Angeles, Cal., 120 acres in Sam's Valley for $7,500, taking possession at once. The new owner will set the property to trees and alfalfa. Mr. Connor also plans the making of many improvements on the place, including the building of a new barn.

The 120 acres is a portion of the A. P. Talent tract and is considered one of the best agricultural pieces in that section. The place belonged to Mr. Myers, he handling the deal.

WHITE SLAYER IS GIVEN TWO YEARS IN STATE PRISON

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—Two years in the federal prison on McNeil's island was the sentence pronounced upon Thomas Beaumont, who has a wife and child in Alaska, on a charge of violation of the white slave law. Through misleading correspondence, Beaumont, an elderly man, induced Charlotte O'Hara, a young girl, to come to San Francisco to accept a position and then took advantage of her.

"I am disgusted and incensed that a man with a wife and child should be taken in this sort of a crime," said United States Judge Van Fleet, in passing sentence.

SEARCH OCEAN VESSEL FOR WHITE SLAVERS

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Oct. 31.—Immigration inspectors have wired the federal authorities in San Francisco, requesting that they search the steamer Avalon, due today, for three alleged white slavers. An anonymous letter to inspectors declares that the three men, supposedly Frenchmen, although going under American names, have five white girls and are en route to Africa. The girls, the letter states, were employed under promise of theatrical engagements when they arrived in Africa.

"FAVORS ARE NEVER CONCEIVED IN THE GENERAL INTEREST" WOODROW WILSON

GREAT OVATION GIVEN WILSON

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—Last night Woodrow Wilson, speaking to an audience that filled every corner of Madison Square Garden, received the greatest ovation of his campaign for president. Entering the hall at 9 o'clock after speaking to an enthusiastic audience in the Bronx, the democratic candidate stood for an hour and three minutes at the railing of the speaker's platform waiting for the demonstration to end.

"No man could fail to be moved by this demonstration such as we witnessed tonight," he said, with every evidence of deep feeling, as he finally made himself heard. "Yet I am more thrilled because I realize it is a demonstration for a cause and not for a man."

Starting with the first shouts from the doorway when the governor arrived from the Bronx meeting, the Madison Square outburst defied his utmost efforts to quell it. The governor's motion for quiet brought only renewed cheers. Twice when the cheering slightly subsided it was renewed with vigor by young women who forced their way to the front of the speaker's stand and inspired the crowd to fresh efforts.

Governor Wilson spoke extemporaneously. His theme was a plea for a united government, which he said was necessary to accomplish any reforms. "The one thing," he said, "that will set reform forward is a united government, and a united government does not consist of a president. The united government consists of the house of representatives, president and senate."

Wilson followed the same line in his speech in the Bronx, in addition to ridiculing the cry of his opponents that the prosperity of the country would be adversely affected by his election.

The Gold Dust Twins' Philosophy

WHEN young Miss Housewife first aspired, to build the home her mate desired, she dreamed of castles in the air, with never toil nor woe nor care. She half imagined, in a way, that keeping house was only "play."

The Art of Dirt Chasing

This housewife had her little cry, gave up—and scarcely knowing why. Then, from the sombre clouds of doubt, two rays of golden hope crept out. The Gold Dust Twins threw wide the door and entered, eager for a chore. They polished all the silverware, they scrubbed the bathroom and the stair. Each mirror soon was shining bright, the kettles shone with gleaming light, and all around, from pit to dome, they garnished up that little home.

Ah! Ye who feel that, once begun, a housewife's work is NEVER done, have cheer! The Gold Dust Twins make play of any task that comes their way. A mop—a cloth—a busy brush, and honestly it makes us blush, to think we ever played the drone by working in the house alone.
