

SOCIETY

The Greater Medford club at the regular meeting of the Greater Medford club which takes place the last Monday of each month, the most important topic discussed was the joining of the Greater Medford club with the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs which was voted on and passed and the president, Mrs. W. G. Davidson was selected by the club as delegate to the convention which will be held in Portland Nov. 13, 14 and 15. A tax of 10 cents per capita will be levied to raise the necessary state dues. Also it was proposed and will be voted on at next meeting, to add to the constitution a by-law regarding delinquent membership, and to the effect that all members whose dues have not been paid by January 1st will no longer be considered members. The club will also undertake the sale of Red Cross stamps during the holidays. Hereafter the club will meet at 2 p. m.

Members of the Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church were delightfully entertained on Wednesday evening at the out-of-town home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Gore. A profusion of very large yellow chrysanthemums from the Pierce greenhouse, laurel and fir branches were arranged in a manner which showed an undoubtedly artistic thought. Games, suggestive of Halloween caused much merriment, and a supper of generous proportions served at midnight completed a most enjoyable evening. About forty guests were present. Miss Mary and Mr. Jay Gore assisted the host and hostess.

In compliment to Mrs. J. F. Root of the West Foot Hills, a delightful affair was given at the Holland Tuesday afternoon. After luncheon which was unique in its appointments bridge was played in the French room. Those enjoying the occasion were: J. F. Root, Mesdames H. M. Moe, W. F. Quayle, L. W. Zimmer, A. Brackenreed, P. J. Neff, M. C. Barber, Willard Campbell, J. McClatchie, R. L. Wilson, F. Goffe, J. L. Tracy, R. Manning and J. C. Herring.

Mrs. J. A. Perry entertained a number of friends at her home yesterday afternoon with a thimble party in compliment to Mrs. C. A. Boyden and Mrs. C. W. Boyden of Illinois. Others enjoying Mrs. Perry's hospitality were: Mesdames H. E. Boyden, G. L. Schermerhorn, Fannie Mulkey, T. E. Pottenger, Scott Davis, H. P. Hargrave, W. H. McGowan, Sarah Weeks, D. T. Mathes, Misses Alta Naylor and Gertrude Weeks.

Among the many affairs occurring Thursday evening was the Halloween party given at the home of Mrs. A. B. Cunningham on Newtown street. Guests numbered forty-five. The customary Halloween symbols formed the decorations. After a number of appropriate games, refreshments of sandwiches, punch and pumpkin pie were served. Those present appeared masked and in costume.

Mrs. George Reynolds was hostess at a dinner party Thursday night given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George Burner who are to leave soon for Los Angeles to make their home. Mrs. Burner was formerly Miss Myrtle Reynolds. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Reynolds, Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Reinking, Miss Etta Bish, Master Floyd Reynolds and Miss Elnora Reynolds.

The first mid-monthly card and thimble party of the Greater Medford club will take place Monday, Nov. 11th. The time and place will be announced later. All members and their friends are invited. A charge of 25 cents will be made.

The concert given by Madame Gadski Monday evening was well attended by all the society folk, as one young matron remarked "Every one was there." Mr. Fish surely is to be thanked for his efforts in connection with the affair.

Mr. George Andrews will be heard at the Presbyterian church tomorrow morning in a baritone solo, "Almighty God," from "The Magic Flute," by Mozart. The anthem will be a composition of W. F. Bulard, "When Christ Upon the Cross."

Mrs. Clarence Ramea returned Tuesday from a visit with friends in San Francisco and Carson City, Nevada.

Miss Hazel Eynart is visiting friends at Portland for a few weeks.

Mrs. Minerva Palmer of this city was united in marriage to Mr. John C. Hunter of Myrtle Creek, Oregon, Tuesday afternoon at the Presbyterian manse, Rev. W. E. Shields officiating. The ceremony took place at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Palmer wore a handsome tailored suit. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Trowbridge, Mrs. Fannie Mulkey and Miss Alta Naylor, cousin and sister of the bride. A five-course supper was given after the wedding at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Schermerhorn, the guests including besides the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Trowbridge, Mr. and Mrs. John Barneburg, Mrs. Kellogg, Mrs. Fannie Mulkey, Miss Alta Naylor, Miss Cox, Merle Kellogg and Florence Trowbridge. Mr. and Mrs. Hunter took the evening train for Myrtle Creek where they will reside.

Miss Maymie Foster, contralto, who has been soloist in the choir of Hawthorne Presbyterian church for the past three years, has a very good voice, which she uses with fine skill. She acquitted herself with credit at the recent Clam Macleay concert. Miss Foster is a former resident of Medford. She also visited here last summer, as the guest of Mrs. George E. King and Miss Hazel Davis. The above article is from last Sunday's Oregonian. Her picture was also shown.

Those from Grants Pass attending the concert of Madame Gadski in this city Monday evening were Misses Genevieve Patillo, Alma Walke, Fannie Abrams, La Costa Mangum, Mrs. Frank Mashburn and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Coron. Miss Mangum is perhaps the best known in Medford, having visited here and also appeared at a number of musicals. She is a talented and very earnest student of the vocalist's art.

Following are some of those from out of town who spent Monday evening in Medford attending the concert of Madame Gadski. Mrs. Josephine Russell, Mrs. H. Luy, Misses Frances Nunn, Angella Britt, Estella Levy, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Hanna, Dr. J. W. Robinson of Jacksonville, Misses Alice Blackford, Cora Smith and Marguerite Holmes of Central Point, Mrs. W. H. Brown and Mrs. Gus Nichols of Eagle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Shapleigh of St. Louis are visiting in this city as the guests of their son, Mr. F. W. Shapleigh of the local hardware firm. The elder Mr. Shapleigh is a member of the Norvell-Shapleigh Hardware company of St. Louis.

Mr. Claude Metz and Miss Henrietta Normile were united in marriage at the parsonage of the South Methodist church Sunday afternoon, Rev. Goulder officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Metz will make their home in this city residing on Beatty street.

A reunion was held Monday at the home of Mrs. Mary Higenbotham, where five generations were represented. Those present besides the hostess were Mr. T. B. Higenbotham, Mrs. Mary Carraw, Mrs. Myrtle Kelso, and Warren Kelso.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kreiger of Los Angeles, formerly of Duluth, Minn., left this city Tuesday evening for Portland. While here, Mr. and Mrs. Kreiger were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Porter J. Neff.

Friends and acquaintances are welcoming Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Watt and daughter, Miss Helen Watt, who returned Monday evening from a five months' visit in the middle western states.

The Ladies Aid society of the Christian church will hold their next meeting at the home of Mrs. S. S. Smith on West Main street. The date is November 13th.

The Tuesday Bridge club met at the home of Mrs. J. W. Johnson this week. First prize was won by Mrs. W. H. McGowan, who received a brass fern dish.

Mr. and Mrs. Schuler, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Garnett and Mrs. King Bartlett were guests of Mrs. Ben Collins at Jacksonville Thursday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Boyden are enjoying a visit from Mr. Boyden's mother and sister, Mrs. C. A. Boyden and Mrs. C. W. Boyden of Sheffield, Ill.

Mrs. Lillian Ray had as guests, Mr. and Mrs. Spratt Wells of Ashland, Monday of this week.

The opening dance of the winter season given Thursday evening by the Greater Medford club was greatly enjoyed by all present. Every arrangement showing careful thought and the desire to please those in attendance. The hall was really beautiful with the festoons of ivy, Jack O' lanterns, bright red apple witches, cats and bats, the guests being white robed and masked strangers from the illustrious country of Ghostland. Games sitting the occasion made the evening pass with astonishing rapidity. Margaret Zimmer and Newell Barber received the prizes for guessing the correct identity of the largest number of "ghosts." Pumpkin colored ice cream and lady-fingers and popcorn were served. Those present were Margot, Elizabeth and Carlton Zimmer, Donald and James Campbell, Morrill Walker, Newell and Mercedes Barber, Vera and Loring Jermata, Clifford McBride, Ned French, Mildred Weeks, Annette Kinyaside, Jeannette Patterson, March Mulkey, Jack Sullivan, Hazel and Hugh Worthington, Dorothy and Marie Myers.

A very large number of charming costumes were in evidence. Mr. Haselrigg's orchestra gave entire satisfaction. Punch and cider were served during the evening.

Among the young hostesses of the week was Miss Leona Grigsby who invited a number of friends to take part in Halloween festivities. Games and contests were enjoyed and appetizing refreshments served. Decorations were the conventional Halloween adornments. Mr. Fletcher Fish gave a number of vocal solos.

Those present included Nellie Campbell, Esther Warner, Jean Budge, Hazel Antle, Ruth Warner, Lea Walther, Vera Lane, Angie Hall, Wilma Harrison, Nora Beck, Lloyd Williamson, Carter Brandon, Francis Bennett, Charles Ray, Luther Duell, Floyd Hart, Stewart Torney, Lyle Walther.

Mrs. William Quayle entertained in a most hospitable manner Thursday evening at her home on Dakota avenue. Guests wore fancy costumes in juvenile styles. Dancing was enjoyed and a delicious supper menu served.

Mrs. Quayle's guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. H. MacClatchie, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Tracy, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Brackenreed, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Tisdale, Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Moe, Mrs. Florence Goffe, Mrs. J. F. Root, Mr. Deane and Mr. Ben Sheldon.

Today has been "Red Pencil Day" in the business section of the city, ladies of the Presbyterian church being responsible for its observance. Booths were conducted at the public market and at the B. and C. cash store. Those taking active part were: Mesdames H. G. Wortman, E. N. Warner, J. P. Mundy, C. R. Ray, W. F. Shields, Theodore Marsh, W. H. Barnum, of Jacksonville, John A. Torney and O. P. Ellis.

Wednesday evening at her home on South Orange street Miss Berden Beacom entertained about twenty-five friends. The affair was in honor of All Hallows' eve, the guests coming masked and in fancy costumes.

The rooms were decorated with corn stalks and Jack O' lanterns. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Misses Florence and Helen Reddy gave a merry party on Halloween that was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Their guests were Ella and Bernice Brown, Margaret Fabrick, Anna Broad, Aileen Perl, Myrtle Rolph, Marion Mitchell, James Vance, Rowland Hubbard, Earl Hubbard, Herbert and Robert Strang.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dellin entertained with a six o'clock dinner Sunday evening in compliment to Mr. J. Tucker of San Francisco. Guests present were Mr. Tucker, Miss Charlotte Banks, Miss Agnes Broad, Mrs. Corazzi, Owey Reddy, and Mr. Martin Reddy.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith Bradley of Waterloo, Iowa, are expected to arrive in Medford next Tuesday. They will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Bailey, former friends, while here.

The monthly program meeting and thank offering of the Presbyterian Missionary society will take place at the home of Mrs. E. N. Warner next Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Everet Eads and little daughter, also her sister, Miss Della Boyd, left Wednesday morning for a visit with relatives at Cottage Grove, Ore.

Mrs. M. L. Alford and Mrs. H. H. Sargent have been enjoying a visit from their brother, Captain O. C. Applegate of Klamath Falls.

Mrs. John Ponting returned Wednesday morning from Portland. Mrs. Ponting was a delegate to the national W. C. T. U. convention.

Mrs. Cora M. Kidd returned to Medford Tuesday after an extended visit with relatives and friends in the extreme east.

Mrs. Lincoln McCormack and Mrs. Stewart Patterson returned Monday from a short time spent in San Francisco.

Mrs. Carl Heilbronner left Monday for Brownboro where she will visit her sister, Mrs. Heffer.

Mrs. T. B. Kinsman has returned from a short visit with friends at Ashland.

The very young set seems to have been the most in evidence in this week's sociabilities. Charlotte, Margaret and Werner Hoy were among those who invited their friends to join in Halloween "doings" Thursday evening. The Hoy home which is on Rose avenue, was magically transformed with black paper witches, cats and bats, the guests being white robed and masked strangers from the illustrious country of Ghostland. Games sitting the occasion made the evening pass with astonishing rapidity. Margaret Zimmer and Newell Barber received the prizes for guessing the correct identity of the largest number of "ghosts." Pumpkin colored ice cream and lady-fingers and popcorn were served. Those present were Margot, Elizabeth and Carlton Zimmer, Donald and James Campbell, Morrill Walker, Newell and Mercedes Barber, Vera and Loring Jermata, Clifford McBride, Ned French, Mildred Weeks, Annette Kinyaside, Jeannette Patterson, March Mulkey, Jack Sullivan, Hazel and Hugh Worthington, Dorothy and Marie Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bellinger entertained with a six o'clock dinner Thursday evening. Covers were laid for six. The tables were attractive with Jack o' lanterns and shining red apples, and were well supplied with all the good things that October brings for Halloween. Those present were Mrs. Caroline Bellinger, Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Bellinger, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bellinger and Master Ralph Bellinger.

A pupils' recital will be given this evening at the Medford Conservatory hall. Those interested are cordially invited to be present. The recital will begin promptly at 7:30. This is the first of the winter series of recitals, one to be given the first Saturday of each month.

A Halloween masquerade party was given by little Miss Myrtle Scott at her home on South Peach street Thursday evening. The entire arrangements were suggestive of the occasion, decorations being very attractive. Twenty-four guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Leever of Central Point were among the out-of-town attendants at the Greater Medford club ball Thursday evening.

The Ladies Relief Corps will hold a social this evening at the G. A. R. hall for the soldiers and the ladies of the Relief Corps.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Campbell leave Sunday for a short visit in San Francisco.

The Thursday Afternoon Bridge club met this week at the home of Miss Hazel Davis.

Master Ralph Bailey was introduced to social circles Thursday afternoon when his fifth birthday anniversary was celebrated by a very pleasant observance of Halloween. Mrs. Winfield H. Bailey was hostess, being assisted by Mrs. Gravatte and Miss Vera Bradley of Waterloo, Iowa. Curtains were drawn and the rooms lighted from electrolites with yellow shades. Mr. Jack O'Lantern watched over the guests from his post on the fireplace mantel. A number of amusing features took place during the afternoon. The little people were greatly interested in finding their written fortunes with innocent-looking English walnuts. A luncheon was served at four-thirty, the table centerpiece being the birthday cake with its lighted candles. Souvenirs were stick candy tied with yellow ribbon. The menu consisted of sandwiches, salad, ice cream, cake and candy. Those invited were Naomi Wilson, Doris Flagz, Louise Hanson, Catherine Hanson, Isabel Burbridge, Alva Burbridge, Louise Murphy, Florence Miller, Gertrude Hargrave, Jeannette Richardson, Louis Richardson, Kenneth Miller, Billy Miller, George Morgan, Conrad Wilker, Lingel Scantlin, Robert Hart, Francis Murphy and Joseph Murphy.

The Wednesday Study club will hold a very interesting meeting the afternoon of November 6th at the city library. Mrs. M. L. Alford will have charge of the afternoon's program, the subject being the life and works of Oscar Wilde. Mrs. Alford will read his biography and an outline of his much-discussed play "Baby Waldemere's Fan."

The Pinochle club enjoyed a stag party at the home of Mr. D. C. McAlpine on West Jackson street. Decorations and supper were in keeping with the occasion. Mrs. McAlpine assisted the host in serving of refreshments.

The monthly social of the Ladies Auxilliary of the Baptist church will be held at the home of Mrs. Kent 318 East Main street next Tuesday, November 5, 2:30 p. m. All the ladies are invited to be present. A good program is being prepared.

Mrs. Bergesch (nee Caroline Smith) spent the fore part of the week in Medford with her mother, Mrs. M. A. Smith. Mr. Sidney Smith is expected from the east next Wednesday.

The Friday evening Bridge club met last night at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Hargrave on North Orange street.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Richardson spent Sunday at Rock Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Anderson returned Friday from San Francisco.

ORRINE CURES WHISKEY AND BEER HABIT

ORRINE is the standard remedy and is everywhere recognized as the most successful and reliable home treatment for the "Drink Habit." It is highly praised by thousands of women, because it has restored their loved ones to lives of sobriety and usefulness, and the weekly wages which at one time were spent for "Drink" are now used to purchase the necessaries and many comforts for home. Any wife or mother who wants to save her husband or son from "Drink" will be glad to know that she can purchase ORRINE at our store, and if no benefit is obtained after a trial the money will be refunded. Can be given secretly.

ORRINE is prepared in two forms: No. 1, secret treatment, a powder, absolutely tasteless and odorless, given secretly in food or drink; ORRINE No. 2, in pill form, is for those who desire to take voluntary treatment.

Costs only $1.00 per box. Ask for free booklet telling all about ORRINE.

LEON B. HASKINS

Breakfast

In a Good, Warm Room

PERFECTION
SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

A "warm" breakfast—the kind that sends you out ready braced for a good day's work—should be eaten in a warm room.

You lose half the good of the meal if you are shivering in discomfort while you eat it.

A Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater makes breakfast a cosy meal for the whole family.

No smoke or smell with a Perfection. Easily cleaned. Easily moved from room to room. An ornament anywhere; a luxury in the bedroom; a necessity in the sewing-room or the bathroom.

Dealers everywhere; or write for descriptive circular.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY
(California)
San Francisco

401 Market Street

FRUIT MEN

Hold Your Apples and Get Better Prices

We can store 17 cars more of fruit. Rates as follows: 200 boxes or less 25c per box for the season. All in excess of 200 boxes 20c for the season.

Season to April 1st.

Medford Ice & Storage Co.

Hotel Holland

"Which Is Different"

We wish to announce to our patrons in particular and to the public in general that our kitchen is now equipped with a modern ten-foot brick set French range.

Our dining room will now be open permanently and we shall use our best endeavors to maintain, if not excel, the reputation for an unexcelled menu, dainty and efficient service and moderate prices which the Holland has earned in the past eight months.

THE HOTEL HOLLAND DINING ROOM

"WHICH IS DIFFERENT."

This Means Close Out Entire Stock

I HAVE DECIDED TO HANDLE THE WILEY B. ALLEN LINE OF PIANOS IN THIS CITY AND WILL ENDEAVOR TO CLOSE OUT MY PRESENT STOCK OF PIANOS, THE LARGEST IN THE CITY OF MEDFORD, WITHIN THIRTY DAYS.

Prices Will Be Slaughtered

No offer refused provided it is within reason.

This stock of pianos were brought direct from the factory in earload lots and I am in a position to give the people of Medford the best bargains possible in pianos.

Do not expect to hear the good qualities of my pianos from people interested in selling other makes. But come and see for yourself.

PALMER'S PIANO PLACE

N. CENTRAL AVE., TWO DOORS FROM P. O.