H. K. HANNA For Prosecuting Attorney

Son of the late circuit judge who for 25 years occupied the circuit court beach of this district is again strongly endorsed by the Jacksonville Post.

Following is an unpaid and unsolicited editorial appearing in the Jacksonville Post of November 2, 1912:

"H. K. Hanna does not pose as the friend of criminals nor as "a man who can successfully defend crooks," but he does stand for the enforcement of all criminal laws, fairly and impartially and without unnecessary expense to the taxpayer. His ability and knowledge of the law, court procedure, etc., is unquestioned-in fact he is considered one of the best informed lawyers in the district and the people of Jackson and Josephine counties will be exceedingly fortunate if they secure his services as public prosecutor for the next four years.

Born and raised in Jacksonville, his character and attainments a credit and honor alike to himself and his birthplace, H. K. Hanna is deserving of the votes of every elector in both precincts of the city. Vote 63 X.

Elect Hanna for prosecuting attorney and there will be no criminals escape trial and punishment on account of defective indictments or dilatory tactics in the prosecuting attorne,'s office." Mr. Bagshaw, editor of the Jacksonville Post, is a practicing lawyer of this district and is in a position to judge Hanna's (Paid Advt.) qualifications.
