APPLES WANTED FOR EXPORT TRADE

The Medford National bank is in receipt of a letter from the Wells Fargo National bank of San Francisco in which a consular report is quoted. It is published for the benefit of local apple growers. The letter follows: "In the Daily Consular and Trade Reports of October 18th, 1912, we notice the following: "No. 9727. Apples. An American consular officer reports that owing to the short apple crop this year in a foreign country a splendid opportunity is offered American growers and shippers. Apples have been and are now being imported from other countries, including the United States. Imports of American apples in 1910 amounted to $80,000 and in 1911 to $51,000. This year, in the opinion of the consular officer, a little effort on the part of exporters should double these amounts, as American apples are considered superior to all others and are in constant demand. A list of commission agents and wholesale dealers to whom exporters should write accompanied the report, and can be obtained upon application to the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce. "We bring this to your attention with the idea that it may interest you; if it does, application for further information should be sent to the Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce and Labor, Washington, D. C., quoting file number as above."

Card of Thanks

We desire to express to members of the K. of P and Elks lodges and other friends our appreciation of kindness and sympathy during the illness and death of our husband and father.

MRS. L. P. BLACK, AND CHILDREN.

SINGLER FOR SHERIFF.

To the Public and Friends: My limited finances compel me to use as short a space as possible in this paper to appeal to you for your continued loyal and enthusiastic support of my candidacy for sheriff at the election November 5th.

It has been my aim to conduct a clean and honorable campaign for this office of sheriff, and if elected, I pledge myself to likewise give the residents, voters and taxpayers of this county, a clean, honorable, efficient and economical administration. I have not obligated myself in any manner which will prevent or hamper me in conducting this office in a strictly business-like way, with impartiality and fairness to all concerned, and this I propose to do.

As to my qualifications, I feel that I have reason to point with some pride to my record in serving you as constable. During my service as constable practically all of the criminal work of this county was done through my office, I might also state that I have frequently made trips where the expenses necessarily incurred considerably exceeded my fees obtained for the work. In an educational way, for the benefit of any who may have been given a different impression, I want to say that although my finances did not permit me to become a graduate of any of the leading universities, however, being thrown upon my own resources by my own work and efforts I succeeded in acquiring better than an ordinary education, which, in the opinion of those who know me, as well as myself, abundantly qualifies me to efficiently and conveniently perform any part of the duties of this office.

Hoping to receive your favorable consideration at the polls, with the assurance of my thorough and hearty appreciation, believe me, Respectfully and faithfully, AUG. D. SINGLER, (Paid Advt.)

TAYLOR STATES THE FACTS

To the Voters of Medford:

Recent issues of the newspapers of the city have contained an eleven-hour attack upon me, signed by one H. A. Canaday, who styles himself "Democratic Nominee for Justice of the Peace for Medford District."

I have held the office of Justice of the Peace for Medford nearly two years, during which time I have given its duties careful attention and have endeavored to dispense substantial justice in all cases coming before me. The charges made by Mr. Canaday, that I have not complied with the law, are without foundation of truth. The public records of the office will verify this statement.

The purpose of Mr. Canaday in publishing such charges becomes evident from a recital of his political history while in Medford, which reads as follows:

At the primaries in April, after a brief residence in Medford, he opposed me for nomination on the republican ticket; I received the nomination by a substantial majority in every precinct of the district. The democratic party had no candidate in the field; but, upon the ballots being counted, it was found that two democrats had written in the name of H. A. Canaday. Upon this happening, his life-long republicanism conveniently vanishing, he filed his "acceptance" of the "nomination" secured by these two votes. He now holds himself out as the democratic nominee for the office and calls upon the voters of all parties to elect him. Misrepresentation of an opponent at the last moment follows as a natural means of gaining votes.

Mr. Voter! Do political acrobatics, persistence in seeking office, and eleven hour misrepresentation of an opponent, constitute sufficient qualifications for a Justice of the Peace?

Yours truly, G. O. TAYLOR, Medford, Oregon, Nov. 4, 1912. (Paid Advt.)

FOR COUNTY CLERK To the Voters of Jackson County: Gentlemen, the time is drawing near when you will be called upon to use your best judgment in selecting from among your citizens, competent persons to fill the various offices of the county. In this I take pleasure in offering myself as the democratic candidate for the office of county clerk.

In asking the people of this county to honor me with this position I come not to you as a stranger, but as a native son, having spent the greater portion of my past life among you whom I am now asking to serve. My life record is open before you for investigation. I have no excuses to make, no favors to extend, except courteous treatment alike to you people from all parts of the county. No promises to make other than if elected, I will give my personal time and attention to the duties of the office, and will put forth my best efforts to see that the office is conducted according to law and the best of my ability.

Respectively yours, W. H. MILLER, (Paid Advt.)

COUNTY RECORDER Fred L. Colvig Republican nominee for county recorder, second term. Extract from report of J. H. Wilson, expert accountant for Jackson county: "Mr. Colvig's books have been excellently kept. In all my experience I have found but one recorder's office with so good a record."
