

BRYAN TALKED OF FOR LEADER WILSON'S CABINET

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 6.—Choice of his official family—the cabinet faced President-Elect Woodrow Wilson today. It is known that Wilson has made no promise or pledge but leading democrats said several appointments were considered as virtually settled. These are:

William J. Bryan, as secretary of state.

Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, former chief chemist, as secretary of agriculture.

Louis D. Brandeis, the Boston attorney, as attorney general.

William G. McAdoo, vice chairman of the democratic national committee is also slated for a cabinet portfolio, either as post master general or secretary of war. Joseph Daniels, national committeeman from Carolina, and chairman of the democratic publicity bureau, is also regarded as a likely choice for post-master general.

McCoombs Out of It

Chairman William F. McCoombs of the national committee, it is reported, will not be called to the Wilson cabinet, but will be taken care of in some other capacity if he desires. He is in poor health and is expected to avoid any heavy or confining work.

For secretary of the treasury, Representative A. Mitchell Palmer, Wilson leader in Pennsylvania or Representative William C. Redfield of New York are generally regarded as leading in Wilson's consideration.

Redfield, who retires from the house March 4, is also talked of for secretary of commerce and labor. Labor Commissioner Charles P. Neill is also a possibility of that portfolio.

Representative Burleson of Texas, campaign general of Wilson, is generally considered assured of a cabinet job, with chances favoring his taking the navy or interior department desk.

Tom Pence, newspaper correspondent and Wilson publicity man, is talked of for secretary to the president. Mayor Newton Baker of Cleveland is another thought to be considered for a job as "little president."

Senators Talked of Several senators, including O'Gorman of New York, Luke Lea of Tennessee, Gore of Oklahoma, Rayner of Maryland, Gardner of Maine and Culberson of Texas, have been mentioned as cabinet possibilities, but it is generally believed that Wilson will not recruit any cabinet members from the senate because of the small democratic majority there.

Other democratic chieftains said to be cabinet timber are State Chairman Homer S. Cummings of Connecticut, ex-Mayor John W. Guthrie of Pittsburgh, Colonel Robert Ewing, Louisianan, national committee; Representative Henry of Texas, national Committeeman Wade and Jerry B. Sullivan of Iowa; Governor Burke of North Dakota and National Committeeman Fred B. Lynch of Minnesota.

MICHIGAN STRONG FOR BULL MOOSE

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 6.—Late returns, still very incomplete, cut down the lead of Woodbridge N. Ferris, democrat, for governor, and left him with a bare 3000 plurality in one-third of the state precincts. Muselman, republican, was coming up fast. Roosevelt continued to hold upwards of 40,000 plurality in the state over Wilson. Taft is a poor third. Woman suffrage carried.

CENTRAL POINT ITEMS

M. Berlin is having a cement sidewalk put in on the side of his lots corner Fourth and Manzaneta streets. Judge and Mrs. W. J. Garvin left for Roseburg Wednesday morning and will reside there this winter.

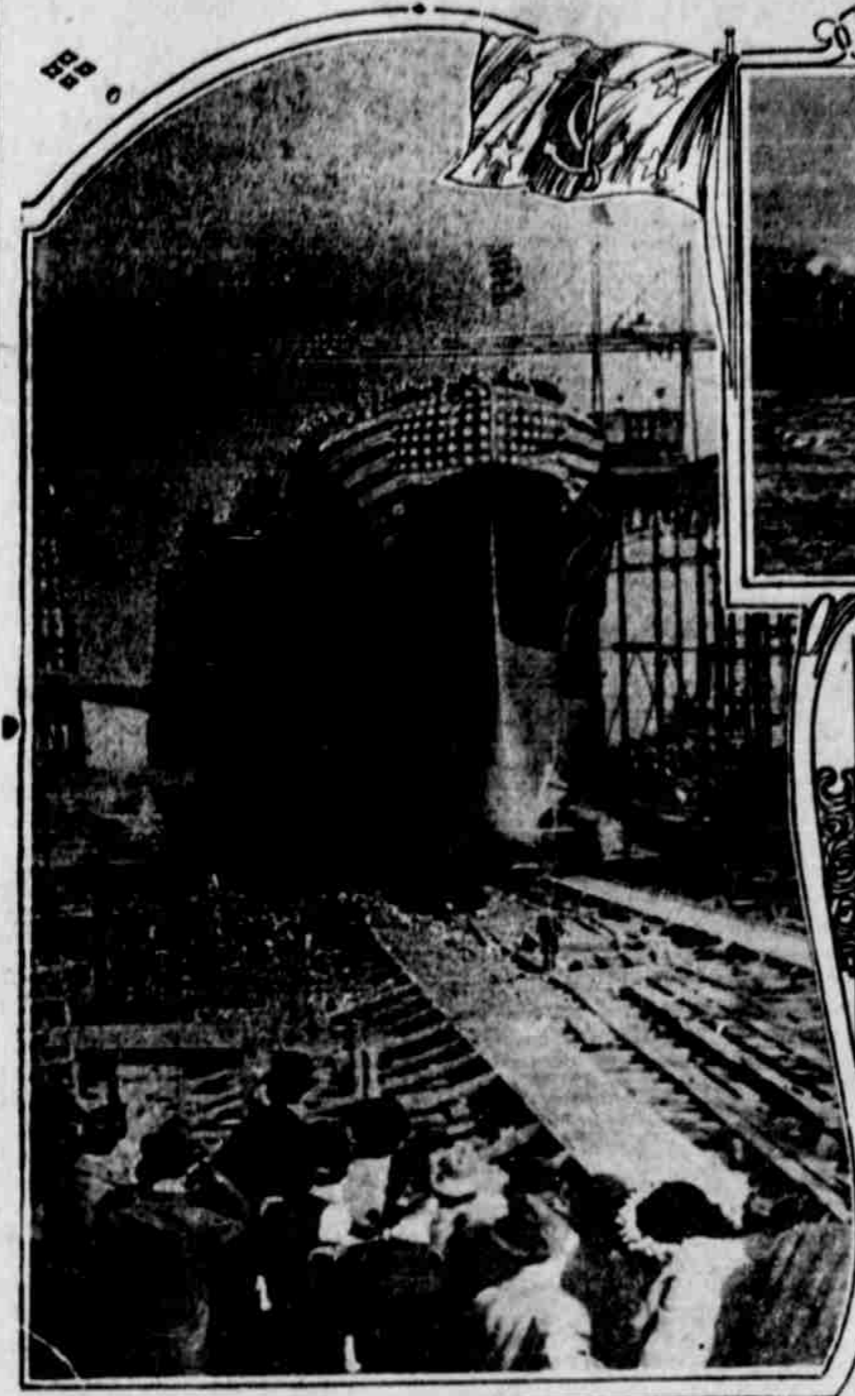

J. C. Pendleton of Table Rock was a Tuesday visitor here.

Mrs. White of Rogue River visited E. L. Farra and family the middle of the week.

City council met in regular session Monday evening with Acting Mayor Myers, Record J. W. Jacobs and all councilmen except A. W. Moon were present. All bills were allowed and the question of reducing the license on billiard and pool tables discussed. Council then adjourned to meet next Monday evening November 11, 1912.

Mrs. W. J. Freeman, Mrs. Norwood, Miss Norwood, Miss Hoke, Gus Mororis, C. Dunten, Ed Kahler, W. E. Brayton, F. H. Hull, Len Freeman, R. L. Wilson and M. Root were among the people from this vicinity in Medford Tuesday afternoon.

LAUNCHING OF THE SUPER-DREADNOUGHT NEW YORK, LARGEST SEA FIGHTER IN THE WORLD

THE NEW-YORK JUST AS SHE TOOK THE WATER.

TUGS TOWING THE NEW YORK BACK AFTER LAUNCHING.

Cheers of 50,000 spectators, music of many hands, a resounding chorus of whistles from war ships, tugs and river craft, and the fluttering of acres of bunting, made the launching of the super-dreadnought New York, at the New York Navy Yard one of the most brilliant and impressive spectacles that ever attended the first plunge of a modern sea fighter.

Worthy of the imposing title of Queen of the Navy, the vast bulk of the huge 27,000 ton battle ship slipped gracefully and easily down the ways and swept across the waters of Wallabout Basin. A dozen big tugs dragged at great haulers to hold her back, and the New York came to rest, a floating fortress.

The New York is one of the two battle ships authorized in the act of Congress of June 24, 1910, to be constructed, one in the New York Navy Yard and one, the Texas, at the navy yard of the Newport News Shipbuilding and Dry Dock Company.

The New York's keel was laid in September of last year. She is the ninth dreadnought to be laid down in the United States, there being now twelve in all, built or building, and a thirteenth the keel of which has not been laid.

When fully armed and equipped the New York will extend 535 feet on the water line and will carry a first battery of ten 14-inch rifles of 45 calibre and four submerged two-inch torpedo tubes. Her secondary battery will consist of twenty-one five-inch rapid fire guns, four three-pounder saluting guns, two three-inch field pieces and two machine guns of 30 calibre.

The machinery will consist of triple expansion engines of 28,100 designated horse power, with fourteen boilers. The vitals of the ship are protected by armor.

She has been designated as a flagship, and when in commission will have a complement of sixty-five officers and more than one thousand men.

ASKS DISPLAY OF ROGUE APPLES

To the Editor: In going over the correspondence and records of the national apple show, we do not find Medford in the list this year, or, in fact, any part of the Rogue river valley. Do not understand how you could possibly overlook a lot of this kind in view of all the circumstances. It seems to me that the Rogue river valley is permitting the Portland horticultural show to entirely blind them to their own interests, owing to the fact that Robert Strahorn, who is identified with the Harriman interests, is president of the apple show this year, and the further fact that he has stated that the railroads recognize the necessity of action in order to relieve the present congestion, and that it was the desire of the railroads to offer every possible assistance, even to the extent of rate reduction if it were found they were charging too much. Of all the apple shows or exhibitions that have ever been held, the one this year is to be of greater importance than all combined, owing to the subjects to be treated and the final results which are promised as a result of these meetings.

Would it not be possible for you to work around among the boys and at least have some box entries made from that district. They could be shipped up here by express and I will personally see to it that they are entered right and given the right location.

Yours truly,
NEELY & YOUNG,
By Harry J. Neely.

WILSON AND MARSHALL EXCHANGE GREETINGS

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 6.—The following exchange of telegrams between President-elect Woodrow Wilson and Vice-President-Elect Thos. R. Marshall was made public here last night: "I salute you, my chieftain in all love and loyalty.—Thos. R. Marshall."

Wilson replied: "Warmest thanks for your generous telegram. Your part in the campaign was the source of great strength and stimulation. Now for the deep pleasure of close association in the great work of national service.—Woodrow Wilson."

ROGUE RIVER RANCH IS SOLD TUESDAY

A ranch three miles north of Rogue River, consisting of forty acres, was sold last week to Frank Newton of Portland. Mr. Newton is laying the foundation for a modern bungalow. Improvements will soon begin on the property and it will be made in readiness for the winter.

The sale was made by C. A. McArthur of this city.

WILSON'S LEAD FRISCO 10,000

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—With 105,232 votes cast in San Francisco complete returns show that Wilson carried the city over Roosevelt by more than 10,000 votes. The vote on president was: Wilson 49,021; Roosevelt 38,624; Debs 12,415; Cha-fin 1,141.

For congress—Julius Kahn, republican incumbent, in the fourth district defeated Bert Schlesinger, democrat, 25,542 to 14,895. Norman Pendleton, socialist, received 5,191 votes. In the fifth district, John I. Nolan, secretary of the San Francisco labor council and member of the executive board of the International Molders' union, running as a progressive republican, defeated S. V. Costello, democrat, 27,908 to 18,566; Ernest L. Reguin, socialist, polled 6,822.

The four incumbent superior judges—Graham, Goffey, Mogan and Lawlor—are re-elected.

McGOVERN ELECTED WISCONSIN GOVERNOR

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Nov. 6.—The Milwaukee Journal (republican) announced at noon that McGovern had won for Governor over Karel by 10,000 plurality.

COLORADO DEFEATS INITIATIVE BILLS

DENVER, Colo., Nov. 6.—The fate of all the reform constitutional amendments and initiative measures submitted to the voters at yesterday's election is very much in doubt. The officials of the Direct Legislation League, which initiated them, admitted today they believed most of the measures had been defeated, including the "headless ballot," recall and recall of judicial decisions, Oregon pamphlet law for publication of inflated and referred legislation; women's eight-hour law, public utilities court and the proposal to open the schools for a free use by the people.

Juvenile Judge Ben Lindsey who was specially interested in the mothers' compensation measure, said today he feared the proposition had been defeated along with the other proposals.

The judge said that the corporations of the state had made a concerted attack on all these reform measures, and that mothers' compensation had gone down with the rest.

Coach Stagg of the University of Chicago squad whitewashes a pigskin, which is called the "ghost ball," for his team to use during late evening practice.

HEAVY RECEIPTS DRAG MARKET

PORTLAND, Nov. 6.—Receipts for the week have been as follows: Cattle, 1682; Calves, 14; hogs, 1632; sheep, 4867.

The heavy receipts of cattle have had a tendency to make the market slow and draggy. Only choice steers can bring as good an offer as $6.65, and the market can be called from 10 to 15 cents off. Not much feeder stuff in evidence, but what there is for the market finds ready sale. Prime heifers are bringing $5.85 to $6. and extra good cows $5.50 to $5.75. Calves weighing 150 to 200 pounds have brought $8.50 to $8.75 and 200 and 300 pounds, $7.50 to $8.50.

Receipts of sheep have not been extra heavy but still enough to supply demand. Prices continue about steady. Lambs have formed the bulk of the receipts and sold at $5.50.

Hogs have made the biggest drop of the season. Monday's swine supply sold at $5.50, while the extreme top Friday was $8.00, mostly contracted stuff, which if sold on the open market could not have brought more than $7.75. Of course the present liquidation is responsible for the sensational decline.

Crisp Appetizing Saratoga Chips

Made With Cottolene

Saratoga Chips made with Cottolene are never greasy, as are those made with lard. The reason for this is that Cottolene heats to about 100 degrees higher than either butter or lard, without burning, quickly forming a crisp coating which excludes the fat. Your Chips, therefore, are crisp, dry and appetizing.

Cottolene costs about the price of lard, and will go one-third farther than either butter or lard.

TRY THIS RECIPE:
Peel the potatoes and slice thin into cold water. Drain well, and dry in a towel. Fry a few at a time in hot Cottolene. Salt as you take them out and lay them on a coarse brown paper for a short time.
