British Fleet Sails for Near Eastern Waters-European Conflict Impends.

LONDON, Nov. 9 .- Only the most delicate diplomacy can now avert a general European war, every diplomat in London admitting today that ther Great Britain, France and Russin will be found fighting Germany, Austria and Italy within a week is ed, and it seems almost certain now that this situation will be realized.

Servia's defiant answer to Austria's note of warning that if Servian troops occupy part of Albania which faces the Adriatic sea the Austrian via, has thrown all Europe into the it is admitted here by all diplomats its threat, and then the situation; which all Europe has feared since the Ralkan war started will be at

Austria Is Prepared

Austria already is on a war footing and the announcement that soldiers have started an invasion of Servia is expected here momentarily. This is the move that will throw all Europe into war. The other powers, military experts here say, will at once become involved in the following order: Germany will strike at Russia in aid of Austria; as a Russian ally, Franco will attempt to invade Germany; as a member of the triple alliance, Italy will declare war on France. Then Great Britain, supporting Russia, will attempt to destroy the German and Italian fleets and send troops to (Continued on page 2.)

WILSON WANTS O'GORMAN SEATED

NEW YORK, Nov. 9.-United States Senators James O'Gorman of New York, Isidor Rayner of Maryland and James Reed of Missouri were mentioned here today as three possibilities for President-elect Wilson's cabinet. The only thing that stands in the way of their selection, it is said, is the fear that other than progressive democrats would be elected to fill their seats in the sen-
