

LINN 37 YEARS BEHIND JACKSON

A. P. Talent of Medford, was the first of the Rogue river valley pioneers to cut up a large farm into small tracts. Thirty-seven years ago he filed with the recorder the first subdivision plat with the recorder of Linn county, cutting into small tracts a farm he recently purchased there.

This indicates that Linn county is 37 years behind Jackson county. Farms are still worked in the same old fashion and same old crop that they were 50 years ago and it is still deemed impossible by many to make a living on less than 100 acres.

Mr. Talent, however, was convinced that 10 acres thoroughly cultivated would make a family as good a living as 100 acres half farmed and that there is a demand for such tracts in Linn county is shown by advices received by J. D. Reeson of the sale of 14 out of the 28 tracts in the past few weeks.

WESTERLUND SEEKS HOUSE SPEAKERSHIP

Representative J. A. Westerlund announces his candidacy for speakership of the house of representatives.

"There are comparatively few of those who served in previous legislatures re-elected," states Mr. Westerlund, "and I cannot see why I have not as good claims to the position as any of them. This section deserves recognition and I am the only available candidate. I expect all of the Southern Oregon delegates to support me."

Mr. Westerlund served as chairman of the committee on horticulture at the last session and introduced and passed five bills affecting this region. In addition he looked after legislation introduced by his colleague, the late Capt. M. F. Eggleston.

JOHNSON LOSES BRAVADO IN PRISON

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—Jack Johnson, negro pugilist, accused in a federal indictment of violation of the Mann anti-white slavery law has lost all his bravado today, after his confinement in the bull pen with negro murderers and other criminals.

Attorney Bachbrach, representing Johnson, is expected to reach Washington this afternoon, where he will enter an appeal in the United States supreme court from the ruling of Federal Judge Carpenter here in refusing to issue a writ of habeas corpus in Johnson's case.

Bachbrach plans to attack the constitutionality of the Mann law on the ground that the several states and not the federal government should regulate vice.

MODERATE DEALINGS IN STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Prices at the opening of today's stock market here today indicated an irregular undertone. Except for a one point drop in beet sugar and a one point rise in Reading, prices were unimportant. Dealers were moderate in their activities. Although receiving scant encouragement from abroad, the stock market acquitted itself fairly well today.

The more active issues recorded an advance of a point or more.

Later in the day trading fell away completely as a result of the expectation of supreme court decisions.

The market closed weak.

Bonds were easy.

RECAPTURE OF RODOSTA IS CLAIMED BY TURKS

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 11.—Turkish officials here claimed today that the Turks had re-captured Rodosta, a port on the Sea of Marmora, from the Bulgarians. It is claimed that Turkish warships bombarded the port, landed 3,000 troops and took the place, driving the Bulgarians out in disorder.

Rodosta is a most important position, as it is there that most of the Anatolian and other Asian Turkish troops are usually landed for operations in European Turkey.

THREE HUNDRED SERBIAN PATRIOTS PHOTOGRAPHED AS THEY WERE ABOUT TO LEAVE TO FIGHT THEIR COUNTRY'S FOE

GROUP OF SERBIANS WITH NATIONAL FLAGS AND AMERICAN BANNER PRESENTED BY PROMINENT SERBIAN WOMEN OF SAN FRANCISCO.

Three hundred Serbians, patriots to the core and under the leadership of Bozo M. Gopevko, a retired journalist of San Francisco, are on their way to Montenegro on board the steamship Aika, of the Austro-American line, which is the first vessel to leave this country and touch at Antivari, a Montenegro port on the Adriatic Sea.

The Serbian patriots arrived in New York in a special train from San Francisco. Farmers, miners and business men, the three hundred Serbians have left their occupations in California and will journey to the Balkans to take part in the war. Among the recruits is Milo Martinovich, nephew of King Nicholas of Montenegro, who helped organize the party and who is also returning to take up the sword in behalf of his country.

Most prominent among the Serbians were Chedomir Pavlich, formerly editor of the Serbian Herald in San Francisco; Rado Grubavac, Bozo Lazarevich and Spiro Radovich, journalists. These men have closed up their affairs in California to join the returning patriots and will be glad to accept a place in the ranks to help drive the Turk out of

NEIGHBORHOOD ROW IN POLICE COURT

An old fashioned neighborhood row claimed the attention of Acting Mayor Watt in the mayor's court Monday morning, a score of witnesses being summoned to tell what they knew of a free-for-all mill on Riverside Sunday afternoon which resulted in a call for the police.

The fracas proper started between two boys—Bert Collins and James Rollins, Collins stating that Rollins had used blackguarding language before his mother. In the melee which followed Rollins' mother says she was knocked down, Rollins' sister says she was choked while Mrs. Collins fainted as the result of the excitement.

Judge Watt gave the two boys five days each. Sentence was suspended during good behavior.

SCIENCE FINDS SOLUTION

EXPERIMENTS RESULT IN PRODUCTION OF IDEAL BREAKFAST FOOD

Adults Who Have Protested Against "Baby Food" for Years Find New Product Both Palatable and Beneficial

The average man holds up his hands in must protest when any kind of breakfast food is suggested; the average housewife considers it "good for the children," but realizes that she must provide something different for the "grown-ups" of the family—something more appetizing, something less suggestive of "baby food."

Why? Because the average breakfast food is more or less insipid, tasteless, pasty or sticky. Those who have made a study of food values and the requirements of the human body in this line, have long realized in the need of the elements contained in the ideal breakfast cereal, but that ideal was never realized until the "Golden Rod" products were placed on the market.

In the manufacture of these wholesome, delicious, nutritious preparations, each stage of the process is the result of scientific investigation and experiment—there is no haphazard guess work, or following the lines of the earlier methods which resulted in the production of the average breakfast food.

Each "Golden Rod" product has a distinctive quality. "Golden Rod" Oats and Oat Flakes contain less hulls and discolored particles than any known make; in the process of crushing, the ends of the grain are left intact, which prevents that pasty consistency which is characteristic of other makes. This gives just enough of a "chewy" quality to make them more palatable and more digestible.

The "Golden Rod Pancake Flour" makes a light, wholesome cake, far superior to the average cake which finds its way to the breakfast table, and "Golden Rod" Wheat Nuts and Wheat Flakes are making a decided hit among those who have no taste for oat products. These latter are really an innovation in breakfast cereals—so nutritious, so palatable, so satisfying.

In each package of "Golden Rod" products will be found an alphabetical letter. Save them until you can spell "Golden Rod" and get unconditionally a fine 42-piece dinner set.

If Business Is Dull

ADVERTISE

And Make It Better

Advertising is the foundation stone of the modern successful store. It has created the Wannamakers, the Marshall Fields and all the other retail merchant princes of our era.

You will notice that the big city merchant keeps at it every day in the year—that is the reason of his success.

He has something to sell—some store news worth imparting to the public, some bargain to offer or some one thing to interest and attract purchasers.

He makes his name a topic of household conversation. His store news is read as eagerly as any other news. His store is thronged with buyers all seasons.

He does it by advertising—not once a week or twice a week but every day.

The Mail Tribune reaches practically every home in Medford and surrounding territory. If you are in business and want customers, use its columns and increase your business. If you are a consumer, read its advertising columns and find out where to trade.

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood." The skin must be cured through the skin. The germs must be washed out, and so salves have long ago been found worthless. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema.

Dr. Holmes, the well known skin specialist writes: "I am convinced that D.D.D. Prescription is as much a specific for eczema as quinine for malaria. I have been prescribing the D.D.D. remedy for years." It will take away the itch the instant you apply it.

In fact, we are so sure of what D.D.D. will do for you that we will be glad to let you have a 5¢ bottle on our guarantee that it will cost you nothing unless you find that it does the work.
