

MANY ATTENDING EVANGELIST MEET

"Can Prophecy Be Understood?" was the subject of the second evening of the evangelistic meetings held at the hall on Main street.

The house was again filled with interested listeners.

The following are some of the thoughts presented:

In the Bible God has written the history of the world in advance.

The world has its great historians such as Gibbon, Hildpath, Rollin, but the God of heaven is the greatest of all historians for he wrote in His book the history of nations long before they came into existence.

We are told in 2 Peter 1:19 that prophecy is more sure than physical sense, and that we do well that we heed its voice till the day dawn and the day star arise in our hearts. "Prophecy," said the speaker, "leads the believer to the day star which is Christ."

Paul in his defense before King Agrippa asked the definite question "King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest" Agrippa replied, "Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian." Anyone believing the prophecies of God's word will be, not almost but altogether a Christian. The prophecies are a revelation of Jesus Christ. Rev. 1:1. Jesus declares that he who reads the prophecy of Daniel may understand it. Mat. 24:15. In the second chapter of Daniel is recorded the history of the great world empires in a few brief verses. The history is presented by a symbol—a great image, whose head in gold; breast and arms, silver; thighs, brass; legs, iron; and feet part of iron and part of clay. It was shown that the head of gold represented the empire of Babylon and the other part of the image respectively Persia, Greece and Rome. The stone which was cut out of the mountain symbolizes the kingdom of God which should be set up in the days of the kingdoms which now exist as the broken fragments of the old Roman empire.

In closing the speaker pictured two cities. The first was Babylon, the capital of the first world empire. This city was surrounded by a wall of sun-dried brick, three hundred and fifty feet high, terraced within, and on these terraces were planted the famous hanging gardens. In this city God's people were captives. The second city is the new Jerusalem, the capital of the kingdom of heaven. This city is 375 miles square; its wall is jasper; its gates pearl and its streets gold. Down its principal street flows the river of life. There God's people returning from captivity find rest and home.

Subjects tonight, "God's Cartoon of the Nations; a Prophetic Picture." WASHINGTON, Nov. 12.—With the return to the White House of Mrs. Taft the final social season during the present administration began today. Despite the election results, it promises to be a brilliant one. First reports indicated that the president's wife would entertain only formally this winter, but the latest reports are that the Christmas ball for the young people and other functions will be held as heretofore.

VOTE FOR FRIEND COST HIS LIFE

Anxiety to cast his ballot November 5 for his friend and neighbor Frank L. Tou Velle for county judge cost the life of L. E. Loomis of Ross Lane who died at an Ashland hospital Monday following an operation for appendicitis. Physicians state that an earlier operation would have saved his life.

Mr. Loomis had known Col. Tou Velle for some time and took a great interest in his candidacy for county judge. He was stricken with appendicitis several days before election but refused to go to a hospital for operation until he had cast his ballot November 5. He then went to Ashland, entered the hospital and submitted to an operation but the malady had made such progress that he failed to rally.

Mr. Loomis was widely known and respected throughout the valley. He was a citizen of the highest type and greatly esteemed by all who knew him.

Mr. Loomis was born in Vermont 56 years ago. He moved to this valley about three years ago. He is survived by Mrs. Loomis and three grown sons. Two of these are in college at Greenville, Illinois, and one is in Medford. The funeral will be held probably Wednesday afternoon.

ELECTION BOOMS LUMBER BUSINESS

SEATTLE, Nov. 12.—That the commercial revival of the past few months will suffer nothing by the election of Woodrow Wilson, is the significant feature indicated in the purchase of 100,000,000 feet of northwest lumber by three leading car building companies within the past few days. As the cars could not be built in time for handling this year's crops, the purchase makes for the belief that these big companies expect continued activity in business conditions throughout the country. The lumber order was distributed as follows:

American Car Foundry company 40,000,000; Canadian Car Foundry company 20,000,000; Pullman car company 40,000,000.

Gray's Harbor lumbermen got the bulk of the business.

MRS. DUNIWAY WILL WRITE PROCLAMATION

SALEM, Ore., Nov. 12.—Upon Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway, the pioneer suffrage leader in the state, is to be conferred the distinction of drafting, in her own handwriting the proclamation declaring the woman suffrage amendment to be in effect. For Governor West has announced that when the time comes to issue the proclamation, he will go to Portland, and have Mrs. Duniway write it, when he will sign it and file it in her own handwriting in the state's archives.

The law provides that within 30 days after the election, the secretary of state shall canvass the vote on the measure, and that the governor shall issue a proclamation declaring them to be in effect. While the courts have ruled that initiative and referendum measures go into effect as soon as a majority vote is cast in their favor, and a proclamation is not necessary, the governor intends to hurry the proclamation on woman suffrage, so as to leave no question as to their right to participate in a number of city elections to be held in the state this fall.

To the editor: I take pleasure in thanking you for your support in the campaign just closed, while it is no pleasure to be a defeated candidate, still it is a lot of satisfaction to know that I made a good race. I also feel thankful to the people of Medford for their liberal support and I want them to know and feel that I appreciate it. Very respectfully yours,
