

AUSTRIA SIGNS PEACE TREATY WITH SERVIA

Definite Agreement Between the Nations Perfected by Bulgarian Premier—Servia Given Adriatic Seaport and Control of Railroad.

Chance of General European War Growing Less—St. Petersburg Dispatches Pessimistic.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—Authoritative statement was made here today that President Danoff of the Bulgarian parliament, who has been acting as mediator between Austria and Servia, has closed a definite agreement with Austria whereby Servia will get an Adriatic seaport and the control of the railroad from Mitrovitza to Salonika. This agreement is believed to practically kill any chance of an Austro-Servian war in which all Europe might be involved.

LONDON, Nov. 15.—Contradictory reports regarding the situation in Constantinople continued to pour in here today, with diplomats admittedly puzzled over conditions.

Attack Continues
The latest despatches from the front declared that the Bulgarian attack on Constantinople forts continued, with the Moslem line of defense pierced at several points. If this is true it indicates that Czar Ferdinand is determined to occupy Constantinople before granting the Turkish plea for a cessation of hostilities, pending the signing of peace terms.

Messages received late today from St. Petersburg are most pessimistic, Russian officials professing to see no peaceful solution so far as the division of Turkish territory is concerned. British diplomats, however, take a different view of the situation, refusing to believe that either Russia or Austria will dare make a move liable to precipitate all Europe in the greatest war in history.

Permanent Peace Sought
Czar Ferdinand, according to other reports, is determined not to grant an armistice unless he is assured that permanent peace will follow. He will insist, it is declared, upon the powers standing aside and allowing the allies to divide the spoils of war, as the several Balkan monarchs may decide. As a guarantee of good faith it is said, the Bulgarian ruler has determined that Turkey evacuate the Tehatalja forts, Adrianople, Monastir and Scutari and temporarily admit the Bulgarian forces to enter Constantinople.

The Porte admits anxiety to keep the Balkan soldiers from the capital, believing the powers will admit the Turkish defeat if the allies' forces ever see the capital.

THANKSGIVING FIGHT A RECORD BREAKER

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—Satisfied, despite his earlier skepticism, that the Wolgast-Ritchie match Thanksgiving day will draw the biggest crowd since the Nelson-Britt battle seven years ago, James W. Coffroth, the promoter, today is making arrangements to enlarge his arena at Daly City from a seating capacity of from 9,000 to 12,000.

Coffroth has already consulted contractors on the matter, and work on the additional seats is expected to begin at once.

That turkey day fight fans may be over in good season, Coffroth has decided to put on the contest at an early afternoon hour. While the exact hour is not yet known, it is very probable that Ritchie and the champion will clash in the main event not later than 2 p. m.

Only one difficulty yet remains in the preliminary of the battle—the referee. It has been intimated here that Wolgast or his manager, Tom Jones, might insist that Jack Welsh, the person who refereed the Wolgast-Rivers match in Los Angeles July 4, officiate here. The proposal has raised a howl of indignation, and today there is every reason to believe that Coffroth will insist that the third man in the ring be above suspicion.

NEW WORLD EMPIRE TEXT OF SERMON

Last night's subject at the evangelistic meetings was introduced by considering the following question which was handed in the evening before: "Is not the fifth universal empire represented by the stone, which smote and destroyed the image of Daniel 2nd chapter, the preaching of the gospel?"

Some of the evidence produced to show that the setting up of the last world empire can not be the preaching of the gospel are: (1) The gospel was preached to Abraham, Gal. 3:8; and Abraham lived 1500 years before any of the universal empires represented by the image came into existence. (2) The gospel was preached to the Israelites during the exodus from Egypt, Heb. 4:12. The exodus took place nearly 500 years before the rise of the Babylonian empire. (3) The gospel was preached by Isaiah about a century before the reign of Nebuchadnezzar. (4) The stone smote the image upon its feet which represented the divided condition of the Roman empire, and Rome was not broken into fragments till about the fourth century of the Christian era.

The setting up of the kingdom of God means the downfall of all earthly kingdoms. Dan. 2:44.

It is true God has had the kingdom of grace set up in this world ever since the fall of man. Its purpose is to prepare subjects for his glorious kingdom.

There is a rich reward for those who love his appearing, 2 Tim. 4:8. The subject tonight is, "When Shall These Things Be?"

NEGRO LYNCHED BY FLORIDA MOB

TAMPA, Fla., Nov. 15.—Spirited by officials to Ocala, in an effort to save him from a mob, Preach Neils, a negro accused of a double murder at McIntosh, Florida, is dead at that place today, his body riddled with bullets.

A mob of 200 men surrounded the jail unexpectedly and after overpowering the jailer took the negro two miles north of Ocala and killed him.

Neils was charged with killing J. B. Berges, an old man, who attempted to save Miss Mary Stevenson, eight-year-old from the negro's assault. The girl's throat was cut by the fiend.

MUCH MONEY IN WATCHING BY-PRODUCTS

Messrs. Perkins and Gray in the Orchard Home addition have demonstrated how local farmers by watching by-products about the ranch can pick up considerable money. They have this season sold $125 worth of filtered apple juice by using the full apples on their place which were considered practically valueless. The process was simple and the demand far greater than the supply.

COOK TO REFEREE WOLGAST BATTLE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 15.—Hiram Cook, probably the most famous of all old time referees, may be the third man in the ring Thanksgiving day when Ad Wolgast and Willie Ritchie clash for the lightweight championship. Cook, who was called upon to officiate in all the stirring fistie events of a generation ago, refereeing the Jim Corbett-Peter Jackson famous draw, the George La Blane-Jack Dempsey battle and the George Dixon-Ike Weir contest, today is keen of eye and active as ever. He has kept pace with the boxing game, and his name will be proposed by Ritchie when the time comes to name a referee.

Wolgast and his manager, Tom Jones, are expected to hold out for Jack Welsh, who has refereed all of the champion's battles here. But Welsh, Ritchie says, is undesirable, pointing out that the malodorous decision of Welsh in the Wolgast-Rivers fight at Los Angeles July 4 showed his unfitness as a ring official. A red-hot fight over the selection of a referee can only be averted, Ritchie says, by the retaining of Cook.

Former Speaker Cannon spent $3299 and Frank O'Hair, his opponent spent nothing.

MAYOR IN JAIL FOR QUOTING ABE LINCOLN

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., Nov. 15.—Charged with violating the city ordinance in addressing a crowd of strikers three weeks ago, Mayor

George Lunn of Schenectady, socialist, was sentenced in the recorder's court here today to fifty days in jail and fined $50.

Lunn flatly refused to pay the fine, and will begin serving his sentence this afternoon.

"This a question of principle with me," said Mayor Lunn. "I will not spend a dollar for quoting Abraham Lincoln—that's what the charge amounts to."

The court refused to permit the convicted mayor to make a statement in court. He probably will appeal the case.
