The Man From Montclair

By Winsor McCay

HONEST YOUTH IS GIVEN POSITION BE ISSUED TONIGHT

That honesty is the best policy was demonstrated to the complete satisfaction of Joseph E. Boyer, aged 15 for the general city election to be today, for as a result of his honesty. he is in possession of a job-and he has been looking for one many days past without success, Young Boyer Thursday found a purse owned by Mrs. William O'Harn requested the socialist party, which as a councilman for over four years, on the street. It contained about $7 in com and a check for $8. The boy institute suit at once and not wait sound, conservative financial basis, immediately carried it to the police and furned it over to them.

Questioned by Chief Hittson the lad stated that he had been looking for a job for some time without success. Now it so happened that the chief knew of a job and fifteen minhis honesty to secure it for him. "Why didn't you keep the money," the boy was asked. "Keep it." echoed the lad. it didn't belong to me."

C. E. Gates During the last ten days a number of citizens have called upon me, requesting me to become a candidate for mayor of the city of Medford. After due consideration and consultation with citizens in all lines of business, I have decided to announce FOR RENT-Eight room, modern; myself as a candidate for said office. therefore present to the voters of Medford, for their consideration, my platform, which is as follows: An honest, open and above-board. clean cut business administration. A fair and square dear at all times

Equal rights to all. Special privleges to none.

A genuine peoples public market. Regarding the liquor question. Personally I do not drink, never have. but as long as the government, state and city license saloons, and under strict regulation they obey the law, they are entitled to protection. Should they persist in disobeying the law, their license should be revoked. A careful accounting of all finan-
