DANCE IS PLANNED FOR FRIDAY EVENING

Invitations are out for the dance to be given by a number of Medford's devotees of Terpsichore at the Natatorium conservatory hall next Friday evening. The affair is in the nature of a get-together gathering for the many college people and their friends who are here for the holidays.

Forrest's popular orchestra will discourse strains of catchy music in its usual excellent style and a feature of the evening arrangements have been put under way to secure a local couple who will dance as a novelty exhibition. San Francisco's late craze, the "Texas Tommy Swing."

The evening's fun will be at its height immediately after the band concert of that night.

They took a sick man's innocent statements and distorted them out of all legal meaning."

Kern contended that the telephone number given by a witness as that of Olaf Tveitmo and which it was alleged Jim McNamara had called, was not Tveitmo's number at all. He said the "Christmas present" letter was a perfectly ordinary letter between fellow unionists, to which the government, in a far-fetched effort to incriminate Tveitmo, had given an unlawful interpretation.

Defends Frank Ryan

Near the close of his argument Kern eloquently defended Frank M. Ryan, president of the Ironworkers organization. He characterized Ryan as a man of high principle who had risen from the ranks and who wore the badge of toil on his hands. Kern described Ryan as a man sitting in the privacy of his office, uttering no incriminating word, though he did not know a dictograph was under his desk.

Kern bitterly attacked the veracity of Edward Clark asserting that he was not better than that "archfield, Ortie McManigal."

In closing his argument Senator Kern pleaded with the jurors to remember that this is the holiday season, and the effect their verdict would have on the families of the defendants.

MOTHER RECEIVES BABE FOR XMAS

NEW YORK, Dec. 24.—The happiest mother in New York today is Mrs. John Williams, an eighteen months old baby whom she gave up a year ago today having been returned to her as a Christmas present by two Vassar girls.

A year ago Mrs. Williams placed her child in the Infants' Hospital of the Charities Aid society because she could no longer support him at home. She paid his board for one month and was unable thereafter to make further payments.

Two months ago the baby was sent to a childless couple here. Two weeks ago Mrs. Williams remarried and wanted her baby. Two Vassar girls learned of the situation and after a week's search located the child and returned it to the mother.

Judge Calkins promised a decision in the near future—before the end of this week.

XMAS EGGNOGS JUMP EGG PRICES

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 24.—Christmas eggnogs have caused a jump of five cents a dozen in the price of fresh eggs in the retail market here today. At least that is the explanation given by W. J. Langstaff, president of the San Francisco Produce Exchange.

"People want eggnogs for Christmas," said Langstaff, "and the demand for eggs is enormous. As a result the price jumped."

27 cents, but sold in the retail market at 40 cents and even 50 cents a dozen. Then the housewives league went to work and in a determined crusade hammered down the price to 35 cents. But eggnogs and Christmas time were not reckoned with. All sorts of excuses are attributed for the rise. The retailers blame the wholesalers, the latter blame the public for extravagance and the hens for laziness.

If your lost article isn't worth advertising for it isn't worth worrying about.
