AUSTRIANS TRAMPLE ON AMERICAN FLAG

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 26.—Two Austrians are in jail and a dozen more suffering from wounds varying from knife cuts to broken heads following a riot that resulted when one of their number attempted to carry an American flag with an Austrian in a Christmas Day procession.

Within two minutes after the stars and stripes had been introduced into the parade, a score of men were fighting and screaming, and trampling the emblem. Patrol Driver Frank Schreiner, fought his way through the sweating, bleeding foreigners who were fighting over the flag. Two of them fell before his fists and the others fled.

Schreiner handcuffed his prisoners together and haled them a police station, where they gave the names of George Selemich and Mike Mott. They were remanded to jail in default of bail.

Accidental Shot Kills

WARM SPRING, Ore., Dec. 26.—As the result of a strange accidental shooting Miss Vona Lee McLean, employee of the government Indian school here, is dead today. Miss McLean was greeting Jim Brown, an Indian lately to the school from a vacation when in some manner a pistol he was carrying wrapped in a bundle of clothing under his arm, exploded.

The bullet entered Miss McLean's mouth, killing her instantly.

LATEST PICTURE OF MR. FINLEY SHEPARD, WHO IS TO MARRY MISS HELEN GOULD

MR. FINLEY J. SHEPARD

The above is the latest photograph of Mr. Finley J. Shepard, of St. Louis, who is to marry Miss Helen Miller Gould, known the world over for her many philanthropies.

Mr. Shepard comes from American parents, who were of English and Scotch origin. His father, the Rev. Peter L. Shepard, a retired Episcopal clergyman, of Connecticut, died recently in his eighty-eighth year. Mr. Shepard's mother is a patient in the New Haven Hospital, where she has been for five years.

Mr. Shepard is considered one of the ablest railroad men in this country. He has lived most of his life in Chicago, St. Paul and Los Angeles, and has been a resident of St. Louis a little more than a year. It was there he met Miss Gould.

IRONWORKERS' FATE

shadows Ortle McManigal and J. B. McNamara, then known guilty of the Times explosion, in hopes of getting men "higher up," the two dynamiters "pulled off" other jobs and destroyed hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of private property and endangered human life.

Dynamitings Rehearsed

Ortle McManigal testified that the McNamaras were planning to blow up the city of Los Angeles and fire it, "as a lesson" to open shop advocates there.

The stories of the one hundred dynamitings in various sections of the United States, told at the McNamara trial in Los Angeles, were rehearsed in the conspiracy trial. J. B. McNamara's claim on the train that was bearing him from Detroit to Chicago that the American Federation of Labor was behind him was repeated also.

The government presented nearly 500 witnesses, mostly hotel and telegraph employees, evidence covering the movements of the defendants. With this testimony, Ortle McManigal's confession and the close relation shown between Herbert Hoekin and J. B. McNamara and the indicted ironworkers, besides a mass of incriminating correspondence, the government built up its case in support of charges of conspiracy and of unlawful transportation of explosives.

Defense, General Denial

Two witnesses for the defense—William Quigley, a union carpenter of Detroit and Fred W. Zeiss, a union man from Chicago—were arrested for alleged perjury. Quigley impeached an important government witness against Defendants Wachtmeister and Kline. Zeiss was called in an effort to discredit McManigal's confession.

District Attorney Chas. Miller also caused four of the indicted men—Hoekin, Butler, Ray and Smythe—to be taken into custody by raising their bonds beyond their resources.

At the very opening of the trial a bomb was thrown in the defense ranks by the plea of guilty made by Edward Clark of Cincinnati. He gave damaging testimony for the government.

Excoriated Defendants

In the closing arguments the government excoriated every one of the forty ironworkers, particularly Ryan, Tveitmo, Clancy, Cooley, Smith and Anderson. The defendants who testified in their own behalf were called "liars" and "perjurors." District Attorney Charles Miller and his special assistant James W. Noel, could not find words to express their contempt for Hoekin the "double-crosser."

"The defendants were not only guilty," said Noel, "they were caloused to crime."

The defense attacked Ortle McManigal's life, citing his conviction for petit larceny in Chicago. The alleged incriminating letters were given interpretations. The trips taken by the international officers

MRS. LYONS WILL NOT BE ARRAIGNED FOR WEEK

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 26.—Mrs. Vivian Lyons, charged with assault to murder in connection with the shooting of Robert J. Widney, Los Angeles real estate broker, in the divorcee's suite at the Sorrento apartments appeared today before Judge Weller.

Widney's condition still prevents his appearance in court and the matter went over for one week. No complaint has yet been filed.

It was expected that Judge Widney, father of the wounded man, would appear in court and ask that some arrangement be made for placing Mrs. Lyons in the detention hospital, but the elder Widney was summoned out of town unexpectedly.

BRUSH FIRE BREAKS OUT SOUTH OF SAN DIEGO

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Dec. 26.—Fanned by a gale seldom equaled in this part of the country, a brush fire which started early today already has burned over 2000 acres near the Little Landers colony, at San Ysidro, south of here. So far the flames have not crossed the Mexican line. The wind has died down, and unless it comes up again, it is believed the government trail will prevent the fire from crossing into Lower California. The fire and smoke can be seen from the heights in City Park here. No ranch buildings have been destroyed, as far as known, but the fire lines are being patrolled by government rangers.

CHRISTMAS FARE AT COUNTY JAIL

A little of the joyousness of Christmas day invaded the grim corridors of the county jail Wednesday. Sheriff Jones ordering that every privilege possible be extended to the inmates. Rules for the day were suspended and a good time allowed all. The principal feature of the day was an elaborate Christmas dinner which was as bountiful and as well prepared as the ones enjoyed in private homes. Turkey, cranberry sauce and plum pudding were all served as well as the proper relishes.

Mike Spanos and Frank Seymour, condemned murderers, were as happy and as cheerful as any of the inmates, and entered heartily into the spirit of the affair.

These two men will be taken to Salem shortly. The commitment papers have not yet been signed by Judge Calkins.

BUILT UP BUSINESS BY MARRIAGE ADS

BERLIN, Dec. 26.—A cafe and restaurant owner in Nurnberg, finding that he was facing bankruptcy because of loss of business, hit upon a novel scheme. He inserted two advertisements, one that a young man with a large income wished to find a wife and another that a young woman with an income of $12,000 would like to find a husband.

Scores of replies came and the cafe owner answered each as if the party in question and each time suggested a meeting in his cafe. Business picked up rapidly and became so flourishing that he became too bold, the police got wind of the affair and he was arrested.

GERMANY TO FIGHT AMERICAN COMBINES

BERLIN, Dec. 26.—An anti-trust commission has been organized at Frankfurt to stir up sentiment in Germany against American trusts which, it is said, are endeavoring to get a grip upon the fatherland.

The tobacco trust is the first to receive the attention of the new organization. Tobacco and cigar dealers in all parts of the empire are being organized and pledged not to sell the trust made goods.

HOTEL WAITERS PLAN STRIKE NEW YEAR'S EVE

PITTSBURG, Pa., Dec. 26.—Planning to put a crimp in New Year's joy in every hotel from New York to Chicago, a widespread strike of waiters is planned for New Year's eve, according to Manager Karas of the fashionable hotel Schenley here.

Karas said his employees had been urged to join the Hotel Workers' association, as the new union is named. He declares it is planned that at 9 o'clock on New Year's Eve the waiters in every big hotel in the east will fold up their napkins and quit to enforce a demand for better working conditions.

Medford Has to Bow to the Inevitable—Scores of Citizens Prove It

After reading the public statement of this representative citizen of Medford given below, you must come to this conclusion: A remedy which proved so beneficial years ago with the kidneys, can naturally be expected to perform the same work in similar cases. Read this:

Mrs. J. H. Baussum, Central Ave., Medford, Ore., says: "I was so had with kidney trouble that I could not do my housework. My back was weak and painful and in the morning when I got up, I was lame and sore. The kidney secretions were unnatural and my health steadily ran down until I was hardly able to get about. While in that condition, I read about Doan's Kidney Pills and got a box. I felt better from the time I commenced using them and it was not long before I was cured. I am in a position to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to anyone afflicted with kidney complaint." (Statement given September 14, 1907.)

Re-Endorsement

When Mrs. Baussum was interviewed several years later, she said: "My former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills still holds good. Since this remedy cured me I have had no further attacks of kidney complaint and I have enjoyed good health."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

YOUNG MOTHERS

No young woman, in the joy of coming motherhood, should neglect to prepare her system for the physical ordeal she is to undergo. The health of both herself and the coming child depends largely upon the care she bestows upon herself during the waiting months. Mother's Friend prepares the expectant mother's system for the coming event, and its use makes her comfortable during all the term. The baby, too, is more apt to be perfect and strong where the mother has thus prepared herself for nature's supreme function. No better advice could be given a young expectant mother than that she use Mother's Friend; it is a medicine that has proven its value in thousands of cases. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers.

This Will Stop Your Cough in a Hurry

Save $2 by Making This Cough Syrup at Home.

This recipe makes a pint of better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. A few doses usually conquer the most obstinate cough—stops even whooping cough quickly. Simple as it is, no better remedy can be had at any price.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. It has a pleasant taste and lasts a family a long time. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

You can feel this take hold of a cough in a way that means business. Has a good tonic effect, braces up the appetite, and is slightly laxative, too, which is helpful. A handy remedy for hoarseness, croup, bronchitis, asthma and all throat and lung troubles.

The effect of pine on the membrane is well known. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norwegian white pine extract, and is rich in guaiacol and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

This Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe has attained great popularity throughout the United States and Canada. It has often been imitated, though never successfully. A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.
