PALZER FAVORITE NEW YEAR'S BOUT

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 30.—San Francisco, a prizefighter on pugilistic preference tickets made itself felt today when an influx of money from the bay city caused the odds on Wednesday's battle between Al Palzer and Luther McCarty to shift to ten or eight, with Palzer the favorite.

The vanguard of the San Francisco delegation that will attend the championship battle arrived on the morning train and at once made its presence felt in sporting headquarters. The money apparently held out against the Los Angeles coin, which generally is being placed on McCarty, and shortly after noon the price was being written 10 to 8. It is not believed that the odds will drop further.

RITCHIE BOXING IN SAN DIEGO THEATRES

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Dec. 30.—Willie Ritchie, lightweight champion, and his manager, Billy Nolan, arrived here from Los Angeles today to fill a week's engagement which Willie has to box at a local theater.

Nolan announced that he had just received an offer for Ritchie to meet Pacey McFarland, Joe Rivers or Ad Wolgast in a twenty round battle July 4. The offer, he said, included a purse of $17,500, with a guarantee of fifty per cent of the gate receipts for Ritchie. Nolan did not care to say where the offer came from.

"McFarland is our choice by all means," said Nolan. "He spoke as if Wolgast would not get the first chance at Ritchie by a good deal."

Ritchie, who is in fine shape, will go east from this city and will fill a number of theatrical engagements in eastern cities.

EDDY'S CASE HANGS ON SIZE OF PEEPHOLES

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 30.—Renewing his claim that he will prove that former City Prosecutor Guy Eddy, charged with contributing to the delinquency of Mrs. Alice Phelps, is the victim of a "frame-up," Chief Defense Counsel Earl Rogers delivered his opening address to the Eddie jury today. He then called two witnesses. Acting City Prosecutor Ray Numme testified that he had looked through the peepholes in the door of Eddy's office a few hours after the raid that resulted in Eddie's arrest, and that he could not see clearly that part of the office in which four former witnesses testified they saw Mrs. Phelps sitting in Eddie's lap.

TECHNICAL DEFENSE FOR PRISONERS APPEAL

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 30.—Attorney Chester Krum, of counsel for the defense, who has charge of the work of drawing up the ironworkers' appeal, refused to discuss the plans. It was expected, however, the defense would contend that "there is no such a thing as a conspiracy to transport explosives on passenger trains." The defense will assert that the only crime that can be charged against the union men is that they violated the law. The defense attorneys, it is understood, expect the higher court to refuse to sustain the linking together of individual acts into a conspiracy.

NEW EXCHANGE TO BE ORGANIZED BY FRUITGROWERS

A call has been issued to the growers of the valley to meet at the city hall Medford, next Saturday, January 4, for the purpose of organizing a farmers co-operative fruit association. The committee in charge consists of J. A. Perry, George Andrews and S. A. Nye. Speaking of the proposed organization, Mr. Peery, who managed the old fruit exchange said: "We propose to form a fruit exchange along co-operative lines. Members of the present fruit and produce association who are mostly big growers, can join if they want to, but the new association will not conflict with the old. There is room for both, and there is no reason why they should not work together to some extent, especially in maintaining standards in pack and fruit.

"The new association will be intended primarily for the small grower, to help him make a profit on his produce. We will also probably take up the co-operative cannery proposition. Many of the growers shipped through commission houses and lost money. We want to get as many of the farmers and producers in as possible and I have agreed to give my time for six months to help organize and establish the new exchange."

President R. C. Washburn of the Rogue River Fruit and Produce association, when informed of the organization of a rival exchange, said: "I am glad to hear it. Our association has done the best that it could for the grower, but it is impossible to satisfy all. Hood River has three associations, and still there is dissatisfaction. Of course we have made mistakes—we were new at the business, but we have corrected them as fast as possible, and are averaging as good or better for our members as other fruit growers are getting anywhere. There is room for two associations and they can co-operate in many things."

EGYPTIAN PRINCE IS ALBANIAN CLAIMANT
