

SOCIETY

Reames Chapter O. E. S. held their installation of officers at the lodge hall Wednesday evening of this week. The entire number of officers were installed with the exception of Mrs. Foster who is out of town for the present. The ritual work of the evening was followed by an informal social hour when dancing and cards were enjoyed. A number of ensemble selections were given by Mrs. Daddysman, Miss Butler, Mr. Bratney and Mr. Goodale of the Medford Concert orchestra. Refreshments of fruit salad, sandwiches, ice cream and cake were served. Following was the committee: Mrs. Glenn Fabric, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Gore, Dr. and Mrs. Rickert, Miss Ella Gaunyaw, Mr. and Mrs. Burdidge, Mrs. John Perl, Mr. and Mrs. Catlin, Mrs. Mamie Riddle, Mrs. Mary B. Orr, Miss Lurene Rowan and Mrs. Slewing.

The members of the Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. H. G. Wortman on Oakdale avenue South Tuesday afternoon. About fifteen ladies were present. The devotional exercises were led by Mrs. E. N. Warner, the business session by the president Mrs. Tee. The outline of missionary program was then given under the leadership of Mrs. Glasgow, the subject for the afternoon being "The Awakening of India." Several instructive and well prepared papers were read followed by a general discussion. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Wortman served light refreshments.

A very interesting lecture will be given at the Carnegie library next Friday afternoon under the auspices of the Washington-Roosevelt Circle of the Parent-Teachers association by Mrs. Le Barre of Portland who has charge of the Shakespearean department of the women's clubs of that city. Mrs. LeBarre is touring the state of Oregon en route to California. Her subject for Friday afternoon will be announced later, her talk will, however, be of help and interest to mothers especially. The ladies of the Greater Medford club, Wednesday Study club and in fact, all interested are cordially invited to be present.

Mrs. Jap Andrews entertained with four tables of Auction Bridge for her niece, Miss Ruth Andrews, who is her guest for a short time, at the Andrews home on South Orange street Thursday afternoon. Biography of Author—Outline of Play, Mrs. Vawter. Is it possible to justify the aged Marco's influence over Monna Vanna? Mrs. Mundy. Was Vanna merely the plaything of irresistible forces, or if not, what was her alternative? Mrs. Tuttle. Is virtue more noble than the principle upon which Vanna acted? Mrs. Root. Discussion, Club.

Miss Florence Hazelrigg entertained the members of the Amosa class of the First Baptist church of this city at her home on North Peach street Tuesday evening. About thirty were present including the teacher, Mrs. Alken. A number of original contests and games were enjoyed, also a few musical selections. Dainty refreshments were served. During the evening plans of the class for the coming year were discussed by Miss Catherine Meare, president.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Graham invited a few friends to meet Miss Harriet Allen, formerly of Illinois, now of Roseburg, Ore. "Five hundred" was the game until midnight, then refreshments were substituted. Those invited were Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Rader, Mrs. Tunnell, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Davidson, Prof. and Mrs. Bowman, Mr. Tunnell, Miss Lucille Rader and Miss Mary Davidson.

Mrs. M. E. Smith invited a number of friends to her home on West Tenth street Tuesday evening for a few rubbers of Royal Auction Bridge. After the last game oyster patties, sandwiches, pickles, olives, coffee and mints were served. Those enjoying Mrs. Smith's hospitality were Miss Laura Treichler, Mrs. J. L. Root, Mr. George Treichler, Messrs. and Mesdames C. M. English, E. G. Hiddell, Jack Stewart, H. N. Moe.

The three losing couples of the Friday Evening Bridge club paid off all scores to the victorious ones last evening with a seven o'clock turkey dinner given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Newberry on South Mistletoe street by Mr. and Mrs. Newberry, Mr. and Mrs. Antle, Mr. and Mrs. McGowan. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. John Barneburg, Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Hargrave.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hoffman have returned from Portland.

Miss Launsbury assisted by Miss Kelley and Mrs. Satchwell entertained the "Catin Cloelchman club" Friday evening at her home on Portland avenue. A large number of the "Cloelchman" enjoyed Miss Launsbury's hospitality. The beautiful home was warm and bright with large wood fires in open grates. Decorations of red carnations, white narcissus and ferns. One could scarcely imagine the snow and ice of winter that prevailed outside. After a short business session at which they greeted six new members, the club adjourned to devote the evening to games and social good cheer.

While partaking of dainty refreshments the fate of the candidate for city mayor was disposed of as far as a straw vote of those present was concerned.

The five candidates lined up for the race. No electioneering was allowed near the grand stand. After two or three false starts, the gong sounded and the great race was on. Mitchell showed great speed from start to finish, winning by a good length; with Gates as second and crowding Mitchell in the first quarter. Effert started well but lost out in the last half. Reter showed good speed, but being the only colt, and in the infancy of his training came in third. Watt went to pieces, and was clearly distanced in the beginning of the race.

Twelve o'clock found the "Cloelchman" saying good night, and voting the evening a most delightful one, long to be remembered by those that were fortunate enough to be present.
