

COMPLETE PLANS FOR WEDDING OF MISS HELEN GOULD

TARRYTOWN, N. Y., Jan. 20.—All plans were completed today for the marriage here next Wednesday of Miss Helen Gould and Finley J. Shepard. The preparations were superintended by the bride-to-be, and there will be no pomp nor display.

The ceremony will be performed by Rev. Daniel Russell, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Irvington-on-the-Hudson. The only attendants to the bride will be her two nieces, Misses Helen and Dorothy Gould. Since their father, Frank Gould, was divorced, the two girls have lived with Miss Gould.

Miss Gould has insisted that there be no elaborate display of flowers and the only expensive feature of the wedding will be the music, consisting of an orchestra of 40 pieces. The opening march will be from Lohengrin, and Midsummer Night Dream.

George J. Gould, the railroad magnate, will lead his sister to the altar, and Louis Shepard, brother of the bridegroom, will act as best man. The wedding party will consist of members of the family and a few intimate friends.

The Duke de Talleyrand and the Duchess, who was Anna Gould, and their young son, Howard, Prince de Sagan, are here to attend the wedding.

The Duchess brought rich bridal gifts for her only sister. Close friends of the Duchess today commented on her improved appearance. When she visited here as the wife of Count Boni de Castellane she appeared broken and low spirited. Today she was smiling and happy.

As the steamer Mauretania came up New York bay the Duchess pointed out to her wide-eyed son New York's tall buildings.

"We're not going to stay very long," the Duchess said. "About two weeks, I think."

The Duke avoided the reporters.

PLAN TO LABEL ALL EGGS MARKETED

OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 20.—An effort to solve the time-honored problem of "When is an egg fresh?" was made today by Senator Fairchild of King county, when he introduced a bill designating the labels under which eggs may be sold in this state.

Fairchild's idea is to label all eggs not over a week old as "strictly fresh." If you can't sell them by that time change them over to the next box bearing the tag "Local Range."

People in the egg business who buy up large lots in the summer time and put them on ice must label them "cold storage." All eggs from back east to bear the title of "Eastern."

MUTINOUS MILITIA SEEKS REINSTATEMENT

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 20.—A bill seeking to re-instate the officers of the second battalion, third regiment of the Oregon National Guard, who were discharged for alleged disobedience of orders at Gate, Wash., during the maneuvers last summer, is promised for introduction in the legislature within a few days.

It is reported that two other bills will likely be offered in the way of counter-attack by the Mutineers, which will strike directly at the higher officers, who were responsible for the discharge of the accused officers.

Daily Hint from Paris.

Miss Gould, in a black and white dress, is shown in the photograph. The dress is made of black satin. The upper part is heavily piled over the frame. Blue tulle is used about the crown and shaded roses are placed on the trim on either side.—Matson Ala.

INDIAN TROPHY SHOW IS BEST

HISTORICAL COLLECTION, MADE BY WOMAN AMONG EIGHTEEN TRIBES, AT COLISEUM, CHICAGO

The land show at the Coliseum, Chicago had the greatest individual collection of beaded-buckskin wearing apparel in the world. This included historical war dress worn by Old St-Yeb, Little Plume, distinguished warriors of the Blackfoot Tribe in Glacier National Park.

The exhibit, which formed a picturesque part of the Glacier National park booth, is the property of Mrs. Margaret Carberry of Blackfoot, Mont.

Mrs. Carberry devoted twelve years of her life in the United States Indian service as a school teacher. She has been twenty-two years gathering the 2,344 articles of Indian wearing apparel, every piece of which has been worn by an Indian.

Trading Woman, as she is known among the Indians, made her collection among eighteen tribes in New Mexico, Arizona, Nebraska, Wyoming and Montana. She has the gait and ordinary attire which were worn by the tribes of the Sioux, Piegan, Chipewya, Modoc, Comanche, Shoshone, Arapaho, Moki and Cheyenne nations.

One of the most prized things in her collection is the complete "full dress suit" of the late Little Plume, a noted warrior, which was worn for the last time by Little Plume in the Roosevelt Inaugural parade in Washington. Little Plume was proudest in this attire on that occasion when President Roosevelt saluted him as the Indian chief, passed the reviewing stand before the Great White Chief of the nation.

This is the first time Mrs. Carberry's exhibit ever was displayed. The Smithsonian institution has endeavored to get possession of the collection, but Trading Woman would not sell a single moosasin. She does not even attempt to fix a financial value on it.

In fact, she is so solicitous about the safety of the collection that she insured it for $15,000 against fire and Louis W. Hill, chairman of the Great Northern railway, who induced her to bring it to Chicago, agreed to hire two night watchmen to guard it before she would even consent to ship the stuff to the Chicago show.

The seven Blackfoot Indians who were guests at the land show took turns staying in the booth to keep an eye upon the passing throngs during show hours.

There is one string of 150 elk teeth in the collection.

IDAHO OFFICERS EN ROUTE HERE TO TAKE ESTES BACK

E. L. Estes, claiming to be a press-man, arrested here last week for obtaining money on false pretenses, will be taken to Caldwell, Idaho within a few days to answer to a similar charge. Young Estes is also wanted at Weiser and Boise, in every case the charge being that he cashed checks on banks where he had no funds.

Estes passed several bad checks in Medford and when caught induced friends to make good for him. It was thought for a time that his case could not be prosecuted but when word arrived that he was wanted in so many other places, it was decided to hold him. Should he be tried here it would be necessary to send for Idaho witnesses so the county will be saved an expense by sending him back.

The checks he passed in Medford were all on the City National bank at Boise. A Caldwell officer is on the way to Medford and will take him back.

WOODMEN PLAN TO HOLD BOX SOCIAL

Medford Camp No. 90, Woodmen of the World held a splendid meeting Saturday night, January 18th. The attendance was large and some very important business was transacted, including some initiatory work. The contest for new members having been continued until March 1st, it was decided to hold a class initiation and banquet the first regular meeting in March. Arrangements were also made whereby the Woodmen and the Women of Woodcraft will hold a box social jointly, Saturday night, January 25th. The ladies to furnish the boxes and the gentlemen are to bid them in. An unusually good time is expected.

When people read about the cures made by a medicine endorsed from far away, is it surprising that they wonder if the statements are true? But when they read of cases right here at home, positive proof is within their reach, for close investigation is an easy matter. Read Medford endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills.

F. W. Gray, 507 Palm St., Medford, Ore., says: "A few years ago my kidneys began to bother me and the trouble was aggravated by my occupation, which required me to be on my feet the greater part of the day. When I began work in the morning I felt all right, but after I had been on my feet for a couple of hours, my back began to pain me and at night I would scarcely be able to straighten. In some way I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and began using them. They cured me in a short time and in return, I am pleased to recommend them."

ment, that the United States navy is "composed largely of desperate men, who are no good socially or morally," was made here today by Beekman Winthrop, acting secretary of the navy.

"Statistics completely contradict Sharpe," said Winthrop. "His assertion is absurd, and is that of an uninformed man. Our recruiting system is very successful, and great care is taken that only men of good reputation shall become a part of the establishment."

COLDS DO NOT CAUSE CATARRH

BAD BLOOD DOES

A cold will usually aggravate the symptoms of Catarrh, just as it may increase the pains of Rheumatism. But the cold has no more to do with the real cause of the one than with the other. Bad blood is the underlying cause for Catarrh; the circulation is infected with impurities which are deposited into the mucous membranes causing inflammation and irritation, followed by excessive secretion of the nose and throat, roaring sounds in the ears, neuralgia, inflamed eyes, etc. Being a deep-seated blood trouble, Catarrh must be treated constitutionally, for it is beyond the reach of local treatment. The blood must be purified—the cause removed before a cure can be effected. S. S. S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all impure catarrhal matter and at the same time building up the system by its fine tonic effects. In other words S. S. S. cures the trouble by supplying the mucous membranes with healthy, life-giving blood instead of saturating them with catarrhal impurities. Special book on Catarrh and all medical advice free to all who write and request same. S. S. S. is for sale at drug stores.
