FLORIDA TO COPY INSPECTION LAWS

W. A. Sumner, manager of the Palmer Investment company, owner of the Modoc orchard, writes as follows to Prof. O'Garra regarding fruit inspection in Florida: Your letter contains exactly the information I wanted and will be of great aid to us in our efforts to have a similar law passed by the legislature of Florida with a view to permitting different counties to establish for their own benefit an office and inspection similar to that which you all at Medford. Some months ago the writer was elected president of the Sarasota board of trade and almost immediately commenced an agitation in favor of the passage of a Florida state law to be modeled after the Oregon law, but at that time I did not remember that I had a copy of the law in this office which I had received through your favor. Now I believe we are entirely equipped to prosecute our efforts and I hope we shall be successful. Already Florida has a very successfully managed fruit exchange commanded by very able men and rapidly forging to the front for all that is good in the way of successfully disposing of our crops so that we shall feel more and more the necessity of raising fruit of high quality which we hope to do through the medium of the law above referred to and its adjuncts in the way of local inspectors and distributors of information.

PLAN TO SHORTEN PACIFIC HIGHWAY

MYRTLE CREEK, Ore., Jan. 22.—Citizens of this place maintain that when the time comes to establish the route of the Pacific highway through Oregon, from Myrtle Creek south to Medford, it should go by a different way than the one now marked out for it. By the present route, it is about 90 miles from here to Medford, with three mountain divides to pass over, and the grades steep and dangerous. By leaving the present Pacific highway at Myrtle Creek, cross over the divide to the south Umpqua river at Days Creek by a new road recently completed, follow up this stream to Tiller and then pass over the divide into the Rogue river valley by ways of Elk and Trail creeks, the route to Medford can be shortened 40 miles. This road is now open and from Myrtle Creek to Tiller is as good as the mountainous portion of the Pacific highway between here and Grants Pass. From Tiller over the divide to Trail the road is in poor condition, but the same work required, mile for mile, will make a better road this way than can be made between Myrtle Creek and Grants Pass, and the grades will not be near so heavy. When the time comes to begin building a modern highway across Oregon at a cost of from $10,000 to $20,000 a mile, this proposed shortening of the route by 40 miles is a matter of no small importance. Future travel to Crater Lake from points north will be heavy. Should the Pacific highway be built by way of the proposed Myrtle Creek Trail cutoff the route from Portland to Crater Lake would be over 100 miles shorter than by the present route.

ASHLAND TO VOTE TROLLEY FRANCHISE

The Minney company electric railway franchise was up before the Ashland Commercial club Monday evening and received a general discussion. The various objections were canvassed and at the close of the meeting the views of the audience on the several ideas offered in the way of franchises were obtained by a handraising vote. It was given out that the Minney company would not consider anything less than a 50 year franchise but would entertain negotiations on other matters. There were only three votes in opposition to the 50 year clause. A committee consisting of E. D. Briggs, C. W. Root, C. B. Lamkin, O. H. Johnson, B. T. Staples, H. L. Whitely, F. H. Walker, and C. B. Wolf was appointed to go over the franchise and suggest amendments to be taken up with the Minney people. The committee met Tuesday evening. There are no serious differences of opinion. Under the provisions of the Ashland charter a 50-year franchise must be submitted to a vote of the people and the Minney franchise will be proposed as an initiative measure. The council will most likely have the legal draft before it at the meeting to be held in a few days and will order an election at an early date. There seems to be no opposition, and the people are happy over the prospects of an interurban railroad this year.

NEW ELECTRICAL ORDINANCE PASSED

The city council Tuesday evening passed an ordinance introduced by H. L. Vorse of the Underwriters Equitable bureau, which will place more stringent rules on the wiring of buildings in the city. It gives the inspector police powers and provides for the enforcement of the National Electrical Code in all buildings. IRA DODGE JOINS NEW MANUFACTORY

A deal was consummated yesterday whereby Ira Dodge becomes secretary of the Korinek Veterinary Remedy company, the new concern which is coming here to locate their factory to manufacture stock and poultry foods and veterinary remedies. Mr. Dodge's connection with this enterprise, in which he will from this on take an active working part, goes very far towards guaranteeing the success of the undertaking, as he is a good hustler and conservative young business man.

MUCH OREGON COIN BET ON ANDERSON

Approximately $15,000 of Oregon money, exclusive of the contribution of the Vancouver fans, will be wagered on Bud Anderson, the northwestern 133-pound boxing champion, when he tackles Sammy Trott, the Columbus lightweight, in the Vernon arena next Saturday afternoon. Court Hall, a prominent Medford sport, left for Los Angeles Friday night, carrying $5000 of Medford money to bet on Bud. He says that this will be increased to $7500 if Trott money is in sight. "The only thing I am worrying about is that we won't get a run for our money," wrote Hall from Medford just before his departure for the south. I am afraid that Anderson will be a 10-5 favorite, with little or no Trott coin in sight. Half a dozen Medford people and several Vancouver and Portland admirers of Anderson plan to witness the crucial mill of the northwesterner. Hall wanted Jack King and Ad Wolgast to appear in Anderson's corner, but Wolgast does not expect to leave Portland for a week or two and King has so much confidence in Bud that he does not figure the fight big enough for such a long trip. "Bud is sure to win, with the fight likely to end within twelve rounds, so what's the use of going down," argues Jack. "When he goes after the bigger chaps, says Rivera, Mandot or Ritchie, I will surely be there."—Oregonian.

VON DER HELLEN FAMED FOR GOOD CIGARS

Senator von der Hellen, smokes the best cigars that have so far appeared in the legislature. They are of an especially made brand which are manufactured in Manila and are purchased by the senator in wholesale quantities. The senator never tells the price that he pays for these cigars, as his constituents might think him extravagant. It is considered the treat of the session to be a recipient of one of these "smokes."—Oregonian.
