ADVENTISTS OUT AGAINST MEASURE

The meeting at the local Seventh Day Adventist church resolved itself into what might be termed a mass meeting, when resolutions were passed remonstrating against proposed Sunday legislation now before the United States senate in congress in Washington, D. C.

Whereas, the Johnson Sunday bill, now pending in the senate of the United States, is religious in its character, in that it is designed to foster the religious observance of Sunday, and,

Whereas, the exemption clause attached to one of the sections of this bill indicates most clearly its religious character, by exempting from the application of this section those who belong to a religious society which observes some other day of the week than Sunday as a sabbath, and,

Whereas, religious legislation is contrary both to the spirit and letter of the constitution of the United States, and if carried to its logical conclusion means a union of church with state, and the persecution of dissenters; therefore,

Resolved, that we respectfully, but earnestly remonstrate against the passage of this bill, or any other bill requiring the observance of Sunday as a rest day which may come before the senate.

ASYLUM PRAISED BY VON DER HELLEN

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 28.—That the Oregon State Insane Asylum will receive words of high praise from the investigating committee, which has been named by the legislative assembly, is indicated by a tentative report which Senator Von der Hellen has framed to submit to the balance of the members of the committee.

Senator Von der Hellen went carefully over the institution Sunday and was surprised at the cleanliness, order and neatness which he found predominant.

"Admirable care and comfort is provided for the unfortunates of the state," says the report, which has been formulated.

The report further declares that from what could be gathered the administration of the State Insane Asylum deserves praise for such care and comfort given.

APPEAL MURDER CASES UNDER WAY

A writ of probable cause has been granted the attorneys for Miss Spanos and Frank Seymour, now under sentence of death for the murder of George Dedenskalous, by Judge F.
M. Calkins, which will automatically postpone the date of execution, February 14 for 60 days in order to give the attorneys time in which to perfect their appeal to the supreme court. As the supreme court will probably delay some time in passing on the appeal the two will probably not be executed until late in the summer even if a new trial be denied.

A transcript of each case is now being prepared. The appeal will probably be perfected some time late in February or early in March.

FIRE COMPLETELY DESTROYS ROSEBURG FLOURING MILLS

ROSEBURG, Ore., Jan. 28.—The plant of the Roseburg Flouring mills is today a complete loss as a result of a fire which started from a defective flue. Damage $10,000. The mills were a landmark, having been built in 1853.

HOW TO REOPEN THE NORMAL.

WHEN the southern Oregon normal school was in existence, its approximate cost to the state was $12,000 annually.
The modest stipend required for its maintenance was the subject of long tirades in the Portland Oregonian and its feebler echoes throughout the state, who referred to the appropriation constantly as the "normal school graft."

"Raiding the treasury" was a frequent scare-head used by the reactionary press to influence popular opinion against the normal—which despite the shabby treatment received from the state, turned out more graduates than the single normal at Monmouth does today.
Yet now comes the Oregon Agricultural college asking a total of $850,000, and yet there is not even a feeble chirp from the watchdog of the tall tower.

Nearly a million dollars for the O. A. C., an inflated mushroom of an institution, is enthusiastically approved!
Twelve thousand for the southern Oregon normal school, however, is a raid on the treasury, is a graft, and yeoman service is done by the press to protect the treasury and save the taxpayers.

"Ask and ye shall receive" is the motto hung above the state treasury for the O. A. C. and it must be confessed, there is no false modesty shown either in asking or receiving whatever there is in sight—and only the greedy cry for more disturbs the serenity of the occasion.

The alumni of the Ashland normal are planning to submit the re-establishment of the institution to the people at the next general election. If they will only reopen it as a branch of the O. A. C., say the normal department of the O. A. C., there is no doubt in the world of the success of the move. Then it becomes a worthy and deserving institution. The Oregonian and other mossbacks will champion it, in spite of its being in southern Oregon, if the sacred, mystic initials O. A. C. are only linked with it.

Otherwise there is little likelihood of success.

RAISING THEIR SALARIES.

EFFORTS of county officials to secure raises in salaries by appeals to the legislature meet with small favor from taxpayers, who generally uphold the county court in its attitude that present salaries are sufficient and that officials sought the office fully aware of the remuneration provided.

The county recorder is the latest to apply for a raise.
Two years ago he secured a raise in salary from $1400 a year to $2000 and an increase for deputy hire from $600 to $900, making a total raise of $900 per year. Instead of conducting the office within the prescribed $2900 limit, however, he cost the county $650 additional for deputies, making the total cost $3550. He now wants another material raise.

The county treasurer also wants to be increased in his pay. In 1907 he was given a raise to $1200 a year. Now he seeks a substantial increase.

The sheriff is given $2500 with $1500 for deputy, in addition to which the county court has permitted employment of extra deputies—and the sheriff asks $1000 a year extra for expenses.

And so it goes. If the county officials did not like the salaries provided, they should not have sought the positions. Having eagerly sought them with a full understanding of the situation, they should be satisfied with the remuneration provided by law and cease trying to raid the treasury through the legislature.

THE VALLEY'S GREATEST NEED.

THE Rogue River valley can never attain its full development, horticulturally and agriculturally, until it is under irrigation, which will enormously increase its productivity and enable each small tract to support a family.

The valley, alone of the great fruit belts, is not only easily irrigated, but free from alkali which is a real menace in some of the northwest and California fruit belts.

The construction of a great irrigating system is necessary to maintain the value of land as well as its productivity. A million dollars or more turned lose in wages here, as would be the case if such a system was constructed, would not only greatly improve conditions but make this the most prosperous region in Oregon.

In order to secure the construction of this irrigation system, it is necessary to sign up a large acreage of land under it. A reasonable contract is asked of the landowner, payments are easy and the water can be made to pay for itself.

The sooner a concerted effort is begun to secure the required acreage for irrigation, the better for the valley.
A short, sharp, vigorous campaign should assure the construction of the system and its resultant benefits.

Petitions to Governor West for a pardon for T. A. LeMaster, who plead guilty recently to a bigamy charge and was fined $400, are now being prepared and will be circulated in the near future. It is hoped in this manner to secure the release of LeMaster who is unable to pay the fine and is serving out the time in the county jail.

LeMaster is well thought of by a large number of business men with whom he had business relations, and the charge against him is said to be a technical crime and not a moral one, as he believed himself to be a free man when he married a second time in this city, after being separated from his first wife seven years.

CASE AGAINST "DETECTIVE" IS ON AT GRANTS PASS

GRANTS PASS, Jan. 28.—The case against E. Gardner, the Portland detective charged with having contributed to the delinquency of a minor in having bet a drink of soda water with Willard Crawford aged 17 years, was called in Judge Jewell's court at 10:30 Monday morning.
Prosecuting Attorney Kelly is appearing for the state, while the defense is in the hands of Attorney Oliver S. Brown and Robert G. Smith.
At the morning session the defense attorneys demurred to the complaint, holding that the betting of a glass of soda water was too trivial to constitute an offense, and that the act could not contribute to the delinquency of a seventeen-year-old boy. The demurrer was promptly overruled by Judge Jewell. The defense then asked for a change of venue, alleging that the court was prejudiced and could not give the defendant a fair trial, producing the letter which Judge Jewell had published in the Courier following the convictions in the police court for gambling, as indicating his condition of mind. The request for change of venue was denied, the judge stating that he felt that he could give Gardner a fair and impartial trial, and that he could rise above personal feelings in the matter.

A jury was demanded, and six men will be chosen from the regular circuit court panel.

BOX SOCIAL PROVES A PLEASING EVENT

The box social given recently by Medford Camp No. 99, Woodmen of the World in conjunction with Chrysanthemum Circle No. 84, Women of Woodcraft was a complete success in every sense of the word. About 150 people were present, including members of both orders and invited guests, among them being W. L. Spicker, manager of the Sacramento district, and J. R. Wick, clerk of Ashland Camp W. O. W.

The early part of the evening was devoted to games and other lines of amusements in which everyone thoroughly enjoyed themselves. About 10:30, J. W. Ling, newly appointed district manager proceeded to auction off the beautiful collection of boxes which had been prepared by the ladies of the Circle. The boxes were in great demand and were sold very quickly, and more than $50.00 was realized from the sale of them. After the boxes were all disposed of the jolly crowd retired to the banquet hall where they did ample justice to the splendid lunch which each and every box contained.

Mrs. Coughran's orchestra furnished excellent music for the occasion and was one of the enjoyable features of the evening.

JEFFRIES SAYS BUD ANDERSON IS CHAMPION STOCK

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28.—In a trifle less than eighteen minutes of netural ring work, "Bud" Anderson, practically unknown outside the borderline of his home town, has won a following of the most critical fightgoers in Los Angeles.
It is safe to say that there isn't one man who watched Anderson wear down and knock out Sammy Trott at Yemou Saturday afternoon but is proud to see this two-handed battler in action again.

The defeat of Trott in itself did not mean much for Anderson. It was the clean-cut manner in which "Bud" opened that tagged him as being one of the most promising lightweights in sight.

A hard, fast and clean puncher, "Bud" stands up to his work and looks for nothing but straight shots.
Rest of all, Anderson can tip a man over with either hand and he does not have to swing from his heel to get results.

Anderson has been promised a March match with Joe Mandot. He probably will claim this privilege. In this connection Jim Jeffries said yesterday:

"Good boy, this Anderson, but right now either Rivers or Mandot would take all the fight out of him inside of ten rounds.

"He doesn't know enough yet to hold his own against these fellows.
It would be the most foolish thing in the world to hand him over as a sacrifice to one of these experienced and seasoned fighters. Careful management is all that is required to make a champion out of him. If he is handled right he will develop into a great lightweight."

PATTON IS SAVING MANY FROM MUD

Street Commissioner Patton is making a bit with a large number of people in the city by keeping a crew of men at work in the outlying sections of the city repairing sidewalks and crossings which have been in a bad state during the winter. He has left the paved streets and is making it possible to come down town without wading in the mud.

Mr. Patton states that inasmuch as the council some time ago ordered the cement walks at intersections closed to the street, he would proceed to enforce this at once.

$5000 BET UPON BUD FOR MATCH WITH JOE RIVERS

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28.—Encouraged by his boy's defeat of Sammy Trott, Dick Donald, manager of Bud Anderson, is out today with an offer to bet $5000 that Anderson can beat Joe Rivers. Donald insists that Anderson is ready to meet any opponent selected for him, but that the Los Angeles Mexican is afraid of him.

Rivers is willing to meet the new lightweight, according to his manager Joe Levy, but he will interpose one condition—the side bet must be $10,000. Levy declared that he will post that amount the moment Donald says the word.

Praise This Remedy For Consumption

If the voluntarily written words of grateful people living in all parts of the country, praising Ekmann's Alterative, a remedy for the treatment of coughs, colds, throat and lung troubles, are to be believed, this medicine is certainly doing a vast amount of good for such sufferers. We state some but facts, and give you the names and words of praise of those who declare it has relieved them in many cases, coupled with the writers' statements that it restored them to health. This is a simple taken from many.

St. Mary's Academy, O'Neill, Nebraska.
"Dear Mother—Almost seven years ago I was attacked with the dread disease Tuberculosis. I coughed incessantly, could not sleep at night, my weight dropped and I could do no work. I had three hemorrhages, raised blood most of the time and suffered of all sweats, fever and chills. A specialist of Columbus, Ohio, pronounced my case hopeless.

"Nearly five years ago I heard of your Alternative and procured some at once, with the result that I soon found myself restored to health. For the past four years I have been able to continue my teaching, and though I have always had heavy school work, I am also able to perform such manual labor. I consider your medicine a great blessing, and most excellent remedy for Consumption.
Mother Superior permits this testimonial.

How to Make Better Cough Syrup than You Can Buy

A full pint of cough syrup—as much as you could buy for $2.00—can easily be made at home. You will find nothing that takes hold of an obstinate cough more quickly, usually ending it inside of 24 hours. Excellent, too, for croup, whooping cough, sore throat, asthma, hoarseness and other throat troubles.

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put ½ ounce of Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

This is just laxative enough to help cure a cough. Also stimulates the appetite, which is usually upset by a cough.
The taste is pleasant.

The effect of pine and sugar syrup on the inflamed membrane is well known.
Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in quinaloin and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations will not work in this formula.

The Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe is now used by thousands of housewives throughout the United States and Canada. The plan has been included, but the old successful formula has never been equaled.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex, or will
Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.
