MR. AND MRS. F. J. SHEPARD ENJOY FIRST PART OF HONEYMOON AT LYNDBURST; MAY LEAVE SOON ON AN EXTENDED TOUR OF COUNTRIES OF THE OLD WORLD

Unlike most newly married couples Mr. and Mrs. Finley J. Shepard are determined upon spending the first part of their honeymoon at Lyndhurst, Irvington-on-the-Hudson, the beautiful home of the bride who was formerly Miss Helen Gould. Although the arrangements for the remainder of their honeymoon still remain a mystery, it is believed Mr. and Mrs. Shepard will visit New York and then leave on an extended trip abroad.

The jewels of the bride have now been locked in a vault in her home and will be well guarded there until they are taken to a safe deposit vault in New York City. Pinkerton detectives are guarding carefully the presents and are patrolling the confines of the estate night and day.

It is understood that the bride will retain her city and country homes as at the present. Next summer, it is considered quite certain, Mr. and Mrs. Shepard will have a box at the opera and will appear much in society.

Many a good word is being spoken for Mr. and Mrs. Shepard along the Bowersy today by the thousands who dined at her expense in the Bowersy Mission.

MR. AND MRS. FINLEY JOHNSON SHEPARD

The Pan Hellenic club met last week at the home of Miss Marshall. They worked on the hangings for the rest room that is soon to be opened in the M. F. & H. company's building. The business men of the town have made possible the maintenance of the room by giving financial aid. It is hoped that every woman in the county will make her headquarters here on shopping days and that the town women and girls will acquire the habit of making the room a rendezvous.

As college women the club are deeply interested in the welfare of the State University. They drew up resolutions to be sent to various committees of the legislature to the effect that Oregon gives less financial aid to higher education than any other of the northern states, that the rapid social changes and industrial progress require trained thought, that the citizens in the last state election voted down the bill to support, harmonize, and unify higher education. In consequence the legislature must make adequate provision for the support of its State University and must provide deliberative machinery for the just solution of the problems of the relations of the institutions of higher education in Oregon.

An unexpectedly large number of Iowans was present at the third meeting of the society Wednesday evening at St. Mark's hall. During the business meeting Mrs. Mears, president, and Miss Helen Yockey, secretary, presided. Various plans were reviewed and discussed by officers and members. It was definitely decided to give a banquet during each winter season and a picnic each summer, with one exception, this year's banquet to be given in March or April.

The time of duration between regular meetings was left to the decision of the executive committee. The social hours following included the program given below, supper and dancing. The committee on entertainment desire to thank those who so kindly assisted in furnishing an interesting program, also Mr. and Mrs. Bearies for their splendid music during the dancing.

Piano Solo—Miss Inez Coffin.
Vocal Solo—Dr. W. W. Howard.
Piano Solo—Miss Ivy Boeck.
Vocal Solo—Miss Gladys Hinman.
Piano Solo—Mr. Gerard Tallander.

Vocal Solo—Miss Iva Coffin.
Readings—Mrs. George T. Wilson.
League games introduced by Dr. Howard.

The young ladies organization of the Presbyterian Sunday school have arranged for a delightful musical to be given this evening by Mrs. Hans Flo and Miss Wagner of the faculty of the conservatory department of Albany College, the denominational university of Oregon. Mrs. Flo is reputed to be a former pupil of William Shakespeare the very famous London vocal instructor, while Miss Wagner is said to be a graduate of the conservatory of Antwerp, Germany.

Among the eagerly awaited affairs of the present month will be the party of the Reveler's club, probably to be given in honor of the patron saint of Cupid's jurisdiction. The Elk's ball, which occurs the evening of the twenty-fourth is also anticipated. Those fortunate enough to be present at any of the past affairs given by the local B. P. O. E. need no assurance as to the enjoyment of the coming dance and others "from Missouri" will certainly "be shown."

Mrs. A. M. Carey and Mrs. John M. Root were hostesses at the home of the latter on King's Highway Tuesday evening at the regular monthly dinner of the Tuesday Luncheon club. Members and their husbands composed the dinner guests. Cards were enjoyed during the latter part of the evening.

Miss Blanch MacClatchie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. MacClatchie of Max Yu has entered the West Lake school for girls at Los Angeles. Mrs. MacClatchie and Miss Eva are guests of the Hotel Holland for a short time.

Word has been received from Mr. and Mrs. Will Stewart who are spending some delightful weeks at Chicago prior to the journey to New Orleans, homeward bound.

The ladies of the Episcopal Guild are actively preparing for the breakfast given next Tuesday morning at St. Mark's hall.

The Greater Medford club held its regular monthly meeting Monday afternoon in the library building. Mrs. Ribes gave a most interesting discourse on the subject of education, in which she deplored the lack of financial support which the state of Oregon accords its higher institutions of learning.

Oregon, declared Mrs. Rebec, compares unfavorably with Washington and California and most of the northern states in this regard and the people in the east are vitally interested in this question of educational facilities, as they are in the price and productivity of land in Oregon. Mrs. Rebec also spoke of the need of state support of vocational and night schools.

The following resolution was unanimously adopted: The ladies of the Greater Medford club representing 191 votes respectively petition our legislature to make necessary provision for the support of our higher institutions of learning. The secretary was instructed to mail a copy of this resolution to our representatives in Salem.

Mrs. E. E. Gore read an excellent paper in which she explained State Superintendent Alderman's plan to encourage right habits of health and industry among pupils of rural schools, by instituting a system of "school credits for home work." This plan was heartily endorsed by all parents and teachers present.

The ladies listened with much pleasure to "A Perfect Day" sung by Miss Phoebe Hance.

Mrs. John M. Root, as chairman of the membership committee, reported twenty-three new names for membership.

Much interest is being evinced in the work of the club, inasmuch as the various departments offer something of interest to almost every woman.

Mrs. Mundy was appointed chairman of the social committee to succeed Mrs. McCallum.

The work of the "Home Economics" department was explained by Mrs. J. C. Schmidt. The meetings of this department will be held on the second and fourth Wednesdays in the library building, being at 2:30 and closing promptly at 4 o'clock. The first meeting occurs Feb. 12. Mrs. Schmidt as chairman, extends a cordial invitation to all ladies interested to attend these meetings.

The outline for the first five meetings is as follows:
1. The modern house, exterior. Its development, location, grounds, character of dwelling.
The house beautiful, interior. Number and size of rooms, sleeping rooms and porches, plumbing, lighting, heating, furnishings and decorations, elimination in furnishing, treatment of wood finishes. Discussion, which shall it be, a house or a home?
2. The kitchen, equipment. Conveniences, coolers, dishwashing, back porch.
Cooking, chafing dish, fireless cooker, gas, electricity. Discussion, Elimination of wood range.
3. The laundry. Laundry work. Appliances, removal of stains and restoring color. Discussion. The public versus the home laundry.
4. Household hygiene. Ventilation and sanitation. Care of bath room, disinfecting, pests. Disease germs and how to avoid them.
5. Household management. Systems of household accounting, income and family expenses, savings. System in housework. Order, forethought, routine.

Miss Olga Steeb, the pianist, and her husband, Mr. Charles Keefer, were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Gerard Tallander at their home on South Oregon street last Sunday evening.

The ladies of the Altar society of the Catholic church will entertain with a card and dancing party at the parish hall in the rear of the church building, Tuesday evening, February 1th.

Mr. W. G. Saumel, secretary of the Farmers' Grain company of Webster, N. D., and Mrs. Samuel were guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Nye of this city, Wednesday.

The next meeting of the Washington Circle of the Parent-Teachers' association will be held February fourteenth, with Mrs. H. J. Holmes as leader.

The members of the North Dakota club will enjoy a banquet at the Hotel Medford grill in the near future.

Mrs. O. C. Crawford visited friends at Jacksonville Wednesday.

Mrs. Florence Halliday-Haight, a singer of rare talent and excellent voice, will be heard in a recital on February 17th at the Presbyterian church. This lady, with her husband, a noted pianist and teacher of New York, has recently become a resident of this city. Both these musicians, although they have been in Medford only a short time, have established large classes here in vocal and instrumental music and have the studio at 116 Laurel street.

Mrs. Haight is an English woman and is the niece of Sir Andrew Halliday, a well known English composer. She came to America at the age of 15, prior to which she had already sung in oratorio. Armed with introductions from Sir Arthur Sullivan, Alberto Randegger, and others, her success as a singer was instantaneous.

She procured a prominent position as soloist in the choir of 250 in St. George's Episcopal church in New York and later sang in St. Ignace's Episcopal church, where the highest classical masses are sung. She also sang in concert festival, and with the best symphony orchestras. In 1903 Mrs. Haight received flattering offers from Maurice Grau, the impresario of the Metropolitan opera house in New York, to sing in Niebling in which was singing Mme. Schumann-Heink; also from Savage Opera company as leading contralto. Preferring concert and oratorio recital work, she refused all theatrical engagements.

Mrs. Halliday-Haight has had the advantages of the best teachers in Europe and America, among them being Alberto Randegger of England, Mme. Marchesi of Paris, George Sweet and Oscar Sanger of New York.

Rev. George Worthington, bishop of Nebraska, in speaking of her work has this to say: "She is known to me as a gifted woman of rare musical accomplishments. She has been most successful as a teacher and as a soloist in church choirs. From my acquaintance with her I would highly commend her to those who are looking for a singer of talent and musical accomplishments."

Among the many flattering press notices Mrs. Halliday-Haight has received the following suffices to show their uniform high praise: "Mme. Florence Halliday sang 'O, Love Thy Self' (Samson and Delilah) Saint-Saens, and won her way into the affections of the audience by her clever rendition of the piece. Her voice has a wide range and remarkable strength. The solo aroused great enthusiasm. In the 'Gavotte' (Mignon) Thomas, she had a better opportunity to display her talents. In this selection her execution was faultless, which was due to the fact that she put more feeling into the song. The audience caught the spirit and applauded enthusiastically."

The Moose lodge gave a dance Thursday evening in their hall, which was well attended and very enjoyable.

The Wednesday Study club, the object of which for the season of 1912-13 is the study of the drama, will hold another interesting meeting during the coming week. Following is the program for the afternoon of February 5:

Sudermann.
Magda.
Biography of Author; Outline of Play. Mrs. George King.
A Comparative Study; Magda and Marie. Mrs. Charles M. English.
Is Human Vanity and Love of Conventions Stronger Than Paternal Love? Mrs. W. F. Shields.
Should Magda Have Married Von Keller? Mrs. L. E. Wakeman.
Discussion. Club.

There is a talented musician in the Schubert company, whose work for many years past has been the real foundation of this noted organization's success. Quietly, unassuming, artistically, she has served her art earnestly from a great love of it. Other aspirants for fame, with but a small portion of her great ability, have made themselves into renown by circus methods obnoxious to all real artists, while Lovie Zeind Purcell has been serving the divine muse gracefully and royally. It is her phenomenally deep voice that gives the Schubert Ladies' Quartette such an unrivaled tonal foundation, and has won them the undisputed title of "Peerless." Hear her February 20 at the Natorium.

Another of the unique dances being given by the Reveler's club during this winter, will be held at the small hall of the Natorium upon the evening of Tuesday, February 4. As lent begins upon the following Wednesday, this will be the only dance of the club during the next two months and undoubtedly the entire membership will be present.

Following the custom of holding unusual dances, the club is now giving a summer party at which all members are to appear in strictly summer array. The committee in charge of next Tuesday's dance is composed of Wheldon Biddle, Treve Lumsden, Lee Root, Earl Tamy and Ad. Schuster and from such a gathering of talent a most frivolous dance is expected.

Medford Camp No. 90, W. O. W., united with the ladies auxiliary order Chrysanthemum Circle No. 84, Saturday evening with a social which gave decided pleasure to all in attendance. A number of games and other amusements was followed by a box supper, the boxes being auctioned by Mrs. J. W. Liag, district manager. About one hundred and fifty were present, including W. L. Spicer, manager of the Sacramento district, and J. R. Wick, clerk of Ashland camp, W. O. W.

Thursday evening Mrs. Porter J. Neff gave a dancing party for Mrs. J. F. Root at The Holland, guests numbering about thirty.

The first home-coming" of the rival circles of the Ladies' Aid society of the Christian church occurred Friday afternoon in the beautiful new church structure on Oakdale avenue, south. Mesdames Seely, Garnett and Bowman received at the door. The following program was given, preliminary to the business meeting:

Vocal solo—Nana Seely.
Vocal solo—Mrs. Quisenberry.
Recitation—Mrs. A. W. Walker.
Recitation—Mrs. Seely.
Vocal quartet—"The Last Rose of Summer." Mesdames Quisenberry, Burgess, Bowman and Weid.
Reading—Mrs. W. T. Beveridge.
Reading—Mrs. Kirby.
Vocal solo—"Love's Sorrow," Miss Gladys Human.

Accompanist, Miss Berna Roberts. During the review of the year's work Mrs. Garnett presided. Each member, having donated one dollar to the church fund, told her experience in procuring the same. A number were given in rhyme, others with anecdote, and all were decidedly original and caused hearty amusement. The ladies were then regaled with an appetizing luncheon served in cafeteria fashion, from a table adorned with pink carnations.

The musical department of the Greater Medford club will hold its first meeting in the Greater Medford club rooms in the Public Library, upon Monday next, February 3, at 3 p. m. The following program will be presented:

How to listen to music.

All music lovers are cordially invited to attend. —Committee.

Mrs. Richard L. Wilson, who has been a guest at the Medford hotel during the past week, was hostess at a charming luncheon given at the Grille Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Wilson's guests included ten members of the Sunset club. The serving of the last course was followed by an instructive paper on socialism read by Mrs. Alan Brackinreed and a general discussion of the subject by those present.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Gillaspie of Highland park, entertained Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. J. Slater. Games and music was enjoyed until a late hour, when refreshments were served by Mrs. Gillaspie assisted by Misses Ethel Van Dorfy and Alice Clinkenbeard.

Through the hospitality of the faculty, a very delightful evening was given to members of the Medford Choral society, and invited guests Tuesday at the rooms of the Medford conservatory. An impromptu program including well selected and varied musical and literary numbers was followed by a general reception. Sandwiches, cakes and coffee were served during the evening. To the true lover of music it is always a delight to meet a kindred spirit and with unity of thought and purpose what is there to oppose the accomplishing of any desire. That our city contains an unusual amount of talent is an established fact. That this talent may be used for good in innumerable ways is gradually being recognized.

Those receiving Tuesday evening were Mesdames Tallander, Ed Andrews, G. T. Wilson, Wold, Semon and Coffin. Among those rendering the program were Miss Mabel Mears, soprano; Dr. Marion, violinist, Mrs. G. T. Wilson, reader. The guests present were: Mesdames Bell, Wold, Marion, Semon, Banker, Searle, Blake, Ed Andrews, Frank Andrews, Coffin, Lockwood, Wilson; Misses Lucile Rader, Ivy Boeck, Mabel Mears, Catherine Mears, Iva Coffin, Inez Coffin, Esther Harrison, Helen Kelly, Hazel Norling, Fern Stine, Ivy Isenberger, Anna Purucker, Jeunesse Butler; Messrs. Lawton, Purucker, Wicks, M. A. Rader, Herman Harrison, Carl Hansen, J. G. Painter, Fletcher Fish, A. H. Hildebrand, A. S. Mack, Carl Glasgow, Mrs. W. Marion, R. J. Lockwood and W. W. Howard.

The following is the program to be rendered by pupils of the Medford conservatory tonight at 8 o'clock in the College building, 31 North Grape street:

Mrs. Charles Delin invited a number of friends to her home Wednesday afternoon of this week for a few hours of Five Hundred. Graceful bouquets of red carnations and ferns were decorative touches in the rooms. Miss Agnes Broad assisted the hostess in entertaining. At the close of the last game, a beautifully hand-embroidered guest towel was given Mrs. Patton, winner of highest score. Mrs. Fabrick, second, received a handsome souvenir spoon. Mrs. Elwood the consolation, an Indian doll, fees, cake and coffee were then served. Those present were Mesdames Guy Conner, Edward Pottenger, L. G. Porter, Jesse Houck, Edward Trowbridge, O. J. Patton, Jonas Wold, Charles Young, Alex F. Duff, W. F. Quisenberry, E. D. Elwood, H. W. Books, Glenn Fabrick, H. C. Hall, Will Andrews, George O'Brien, I. L. Hamilton, J. L. Helms, Kinsman and Lungler.

Friday Mrs. J. Franklin Root gave a beautifully appointed luncheon at The Holland a farewell gathering, as she left on the evening train for St. Paul, Minn.

The place cards were hand sketched drawings of the different characteristics of each guest who discovered her own. The guests were: Mrs. F. Tisdale, Mrs. J. W. MacClatchie, Mrs. P. J. Neff, Mrs. M. E. Smith, Mrs. Geo. B. Conade, Mrs. H. N. Moe, Mrs. M. C. Zimmer, Mrs. M. C. Barber, Mrs. J. F. Root, Mrs. Wm. F. Quayle.

About forty young people attended an informal dance given at the guild hall Friday night by Messrs. Coburn, Brophy and Childs and Misses Mallen and Murphy to the Medford Business College students and their friends. Punch for refreshment and a dainty lunch was served at midnight. Dancing was indulged in until 1:30 a. m. A very enjoyable time was reported.

The dancing party given Friday evening at the small hall of the Natorium by Messrs. Tengwald, Bourne, Kerr and Bromley was a decided success socially and otherwise. A number of novel dances were introduced.

Members of the Golden Circle of the Christian church, and their husbands were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Garnett Wednesday evening. About fifty were in attendance, and a genuine social time ensued.

Mrs. John Franklin Root left last evening for her former home at Minneapolis to reside permanently.

Mrs. Burt Harmon was hostess at a bridge luncheon Wednesday at the Hotel Medford. Those present were Mesdames R. G. Bardwell, W. F. Biddle, E. Hafer, W. C. Campbell, M. J. Emerick and Miss Ruth Andrews. Ida Lee Kentner and Fern Hutchison, Miss Ida Lee Kentner won the prize for highest score.

Mrs. Panting, superintendent of the mothers department of the W. C. T. U., had charge of the meeting Thursday afternoon. A good program had been prepared, arrangements were made to have Mrs. Unruh state president, visit Medford during this month.

Next Sunday, Feb. 2, the men's class of the First Baptist church will hold a rally. The Y. M. C. A. of Central Point will have charge of the lesson of the day. Good music. Mr. Harry H. Tuttle will teach the lesson of the day.

A skating party was given by a committee of women of the Christian church at the Natorium skating rink Friday evening. A large number was present, the pastime continuing until midnight.

The Sunset club met at the home of Mrs. L. W. Zimmer on West Main street recently. Mrs. J. E. Stratton, who resides near Central Point, will be hostess for the following meeting.

Mrs. Charles L. Schieffelin returned Thursday from a month's visit at Los Angeles.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION

Severe Case of a Philadelphia Woman—Her Symptoms.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I had a severe case of nervous prostration, with palpitation of the heart, constipation, headaches, dizziness, noise in my ears, timid, nervous, restless feelings and sleeplessness.

"I read in the paper where a young woman had been cured of the same troubles by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound so I threw away the medicines the doctor left me and began taking the Compound. Before I had taken half a bottle I was able to sit up and in a short time I was able to do all my work. Your medicine has proved itself able to do all you say it will and I have recommended it in every household I have visited."—Mrs. MARY JOHNSTON, 210 Siegel Street, Philadelphia, Pa.

Another Bad Case. Ephrata, Pa.—"About a year ago I was down with nervous prostration. I was pale and weak and would have hysterical spells, sick headaches and a bad pain under my shoulder-blade. I was under the care of different doctors but did not improve. I was so weak I could hardly stand long enough to do my dishes. "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made me well and happy and I have begun to gain in weight and my face looks healthy now."—Mrs. J. W. HORNBERGER, R. No. 3, Ephrata, Pa.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
