J. H. Nelson, who has been living on the place owned by one of our merchants, Mr. Heath, came out covery. Wednesday and took the ear for Medford. He had his family, consisting of his wife and four small children, ranging from five years to four weeks in age. They started from home at à o'clock a. m. and reached here just five minutes too late to catch the 8:45 car. The children were almost frozen, at least three of them were, when they reached the Sannyside.
