NORTH CAROLINA LEARNS FROM ROGUE RIVER VALLEY

That the methods of the Rogue river valley relative to fruit raising is attracting attention in other states is evidenced by an order received from Waynesville, N. C., a few days ago by the Medford Furniture & Hardware Company of this city. The company had run a small display advertisement in the Mail Tribune of the Faulkner pruner, as adapted to the class of work carried on in the valley, and received an order for a pair of the Faulkners and a pruning saw to be sent by parcel post. Apparently the east is sitting up and taking notice. The pruners and saw were sent immediately.

Moral: It pays to advertise in the Mail Tribune.

Policemen Cincadeo and Hinton stopped what would have been a very serious runaway at an early hour Friday when a bread delivery wagon horse started up front street. The pair made a nifty capture. No damage resulted.

Cottolene

will help you immensely by cutting down your butter bills. Use butter on your table, but not in your kitchen. With butter at present prices, you simply could not afford to use it in cooking, even if it would produce better results. But when Cottolene will shorten and fry as good as or even better than butter—and the price is about one-third—why not try it, and practice economy without feeling that you are “skimping” yourself or your table?

Remember also that two-thirds of a pound of Cottolene will go as far as a full pound of either butter or lard. Cottolene is Nature's Shortening—a vegetable product—healthful, digestible, and in every way satisfactory. Try this recipe:

PLAIN LAYER CAKE
 Cream 1/2 cup Cottolene with 1 cup sugar, mix in alternately 1/2 cup milk and 2 cups pastry flour, in which 2 teaspoons baking powder and 1/2 teaspoon salt have been thoroughly sifted. Beat well, flavor, and add three stiffly beaten eggs. Bake in two layers.

This batter is a good foundation recipe and may be used with spices, chocolate, fruit or nuts, with any desired filling.

At Your Grocer's

FOR SALE

In order to take up immediately a business proposition in San Francisco I have decided to offer my Orchard at a GREAT SACRIFICE.

IF THERE EVER WAS A BARGAIN IN THIS VALLEY, HERE IT IS—

8 acres Bear Creek bottom soil, 2 miles north of Medford post office, planted to Newtown Pippins eleven years old, and interplanted with Bartlett and D'Anjou Pears 4 and 5 years old. A strictly commercial proposition. Melons, Potatoes, Corn, etc., CAN BE grown to perfection between the rows.

Would suggest to parties having a little idle capital that this proposition will pay much better than LOANING money. A SURE PICK-UP OF $1500 to $2000 Can be made inside of six months.

My price is $5,000, $3,000 cash, balance on time. Real value of place $8000.

INVESTIGATE TODAY.
