BILL TO SIMPLIFY COURT PROCEDURE

SALFORD, Feb. 16.—Representative John H. Carlin of Jackson county has introduced a bill providing for simplified practice and procedure in the courts of Oregon. It provides that the supreme court of the state shall make its own rules of practice and procedure both for itself and for the circuit courts under it, modeled on the rules of the supreme court of the United States—promulgated November 4, 1912. This will greatly simplify court procedure, as the court will be able to change a rule from time to time to expediate its business, while under the present system of making rules to govern the procedure in courts, the sections of the code have remained stationary for the last twenty-five or thirty years while everything else round about has been developing and advancing.

MORGAN CABLES HEALTH IS GOOD

NEW YORK, Feb. 17.—Direct denial from J. P. Morgan, of reports that he was critically ill at Cairo, Egypt, was received here today by H. P. Davison, a junior member of the banking firm of which Morgan is the head. "We cabled Cairo," Davison said this afternoon, "when we heard the report, and have not received Mr. Morgan's answer. He said he had entirely recovered from an attack of indigestion, and had changed his plans to return to Italy. "Mr. Morgan will remain in Cairo at least until the steamer Adriatic arrives. This should set at rest all reports of his critical illness."

ALONG ROGUE RIVER

Died at the family home Feb. 11, 1913, Mrs. Joseph Hannah, aged 58 years. Mrs. Hannah was sick only a week but no hopes for recovery had been held from the first. She was a native of Missouri and came here to the valley when quite young with her parents, the late Dr. and Mrs. Stanley of Gold Hill. She was married to Joseph Hannah in 1879 and five children came to brighten their home, four of whom survive. She was a loving mother, a kind friend and a faithful neighbor. She was loved by all who knew her. She was laid to rest Thursday in the Antioch cemetery, Rev. Richards officiating. There were many friends gathered to take the last look of their dear friend. She leaves an aged husband, two sons, Jasper and Joe, two daughters, Mrs. Tim Daily and Miss Mirna Hannah besides many friends to mourn her loss. Among those from a distance to attend the funeral of Mrs. Hannah were Mrs. P. H. Daily and Mr. Daily of Medford and Riley Morrison and two daughters, Mrs. Tom Wyatt and Mrs. Frank Fitzgerald of Sams valley.

EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

Miss Ina Rader was over from her father's farm last Friday visiting her sister, Mrs. Roy Ashpole. George W. White, foreman on the Cooley orchard, was in town Friday doing business with our new hardware merchant, Roy Ashpole, and while here renewed his subscription to the Daily Mail Tribune. Mr. Heath, of the firm of Heath & Diamond, went to his farm one mile above Brownsboro Friday, and while there rented it to Dean Turrell and he expects to turn his attention to the dairy business. H. M. Coss and H. J. Westpal spent Friday night at the Sunnyside. Mr. Coss was moving his effects from the Mountain View farm for safe keeping. He seems to think that he has about as good a mountain ranch as there is in these parts. Wesley Manning, at one time sheriff of Jackson county, from '74 to '78 but now a resident of Klamath county, came in last week to visit his aunt, Mrs. Aet Thomas and while here took dinner Sunday with our Eagle Point correspondent. His aunt
