MANY MESSAGES OF SYMPATHY FOR POET OF SIERRAS

OAKLAND, Cal., Feb. 18.—Telegrams of sympathy from all over the world poured in here today on the widow of Jacquin Miller, the famous "Poet of the Sierras," who died late yesterday at his home on the hills overlooking this city. The widow and his only child, Miss Juanita, are prostrated over the poet's death.

Miller knew that he was near death. Just before the end he tried to move from his couch but the effort proved fruitless. Turning to his aged wife he whispered:

"I love you, Abbie. I love you, Abbie. Good bye."

The next words which were his last were scarcely audible.

"I can't live," he said. I am dying. Oh, take me away, ye angels. Take me away. I hear ye."

Visited by Lily Langtry

Miller's death was directly due to diabetes and arterial sclerosis. He had failed rapidly since his illness of 1911 and when he was visited two weeks ago by Lily Langtry, before whom he had strewn lilies and roses in London when the actress was on the crest of her popularity, he tried hard to raise from his couch to greet her but was unequal to the task. The effort taxed his strength and aggravated his condition. The aged poet, however, turned until he faced Mrs. Langtry and with a smile, said:

"Ah, you are so beautiful. But beauty and health always remain with the good." The famous English beauty, realizing how near the poet was to death, turned her head and wept.

The gentleness of Miller was one of his marked characteristics. No insect, even in the lowest form, had ever suffered death under his heel. Colonel John P. Irish, a lifelong friend, told of an occasion when the poet was almost killed under the hoofs of his famous charger "Black Warrior." Colonel Irish held the beast until Miller arose. Dusting his clothes, the poet patted the animal affectionately and said:

"My dear dear old Warrior. You must have eaten something that has not agreed with you."

Miller left an estate valued at $100,000. He was born in the Wabash district of Indiana, November 10, 1841. In 1850, he crossed the plains with his parents into Oregon, the family settling in the Willamette valley.

Married A Squaw

A few years later he joined a gold rush to California, was adopted by a tribe of Northern California Indians and married the daughter of the chief. But when his wife was killed by settlers in an expedition against the raiding Indians, Miller returned to civilization, later marrying again.

Miller went to London in 1870 and published his first book of poems. They were an instantaneous hit and he was ilonized by his English admirers. In 1877 he located in Oakland, purchasing several hundred acres of wooded ground, which he has since made his home.

The poet's wish that his body be cremated will be carried out. The cremation will take place tomorrow at ten o'clock at his home. The ceremony of scattering the ashes will be reserved for a latter occasion.

OROZCO BELIEVED TO HAVE BEEN KILLED

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 18.—Mrs. Pascual Orozco, wife of the Mexican revolutionary leader who has participated in two anti-government uprisings, still is uncertain whether her husband is dead or alive. Waiting in Los Angeles for news from him, Mrs. Orozco has heard nothing since arrival recently of reports that he had been killed in Chihuahua. She is much worried by the reports, but believes that her husband may be safe with some rebel band in the interior of Chihuahua.

FIGHT PROMISED OVER ENGINEER

Confirmation of the appointment of a successor to Olen Arnspiger, city engineer, at the council session tonight seems doubtful, as a number of the aldermen cling firmly to the belief that the city's interests would be slighted by a change in that department. Since the announcement was made that Mayor Filert would probably present the name of H. G. Stockman for the place there has been a considerable flurry in political circles as at least one other man has had the impression that the place had been promised him, if a change was to be made. It is certain that the appointment will not be confirmed by the whole council and that at least two votes will be cast against it.

BOOSTERS LEAVE TO WORK FOR EXPOSITION

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Feb. 18.—To urge the passage of the Panama Pacific exposition appropriation bills now in the legislatures of Washington and Oregon, Frederick J. Koster, chairman of the exposition legion and J. J. Fagan, a prominent local banker, left for Seattle today.

At the head of a delegation made up from practically all the civic bodies in the state of Washington the local men will go from Seattle, to Olympia, to urge the passage of the $500,000 appropriation bill in the legislature there. The San Franciscans will then proceed to Salem, Ore., to help Oregon's appropriation bill on its way.

SCHOONER ADVENT ON COOS BAY BAR

MARSHFIELD, Ore., Feb. 18.—The sailing schooner Advent of the Simpson Lumber company fleet is in trouble on the Coos Bay bar. While attempting to cross in over the bar today she was blown toward the south and dropped anchor off the south spit.

On account of there being no tug here, one was summoned from Gardiner and is expected to arrive soon. The schooner is dragging anchor but it is believed she will be able to keep afloat until the tug arrives. There is a dangerous reef on the south side of the bar or entrance and if the vessel should be carried on these rocks she would be wrecked.

The crew is in no danger as the vessel could quickly be reached by the lifesaving crew. The Advent is 400 tons net. She is 32 days out of Santa Rosalie, Mexico.

WILSON'S BILLS PASS NEW JERSEY HOUSE

TRENTON, N. J., Feb. 18.—The seven corporation bills fathered by President-elect Wilson passed the house this afternoon. They have already passed the senate. Wilson will sign the bills tomorrow.

AKRON, Ohio, Feb. 18.—The rubber industry is paralyzed here today by a walkout of 15,000 employes. No violence has been reported so far. The company is reported to be planning to import strikebreakers.

Auction Sale of Acreage

The undersigned has decided to make another auction sale of 2½ to 5 acre tracts in the Pierce Subdivision between the 15th day of April and the 15th of March.

Since my sale last March much improvement has been done in this locality, positive evidence that this is the preferable location for building suburban homes.

Two nice homes and a number of smaller ones have been built this past summer and fall. Building is now going on in this neighborhood; a new free rural delivery now passes through the Pierce Subdivision. An electric power and light line has recently been constructed. With good roads, free soil and city water, a home here is a little ranch in the city.

For particulars and terms write me.

Fried Potatoes "Cottolene" style
Did you ever eat French Fried Potatoes made with Cottolene? If not, you've never eaten French Fried Potatoes at their best.
Cottolene makes them rich and crisp and appetizing, but never greasy.
If you have been frying and shortening your food with butter, try Cottolene. It is every bit as good, at less than one-third the price.
If you are using lard for shortening and frying, we would simply suggest that Cottolene is recognized and recommended by leading physicians, domestic science authorities, and culinary experts generally, as being more wholesome, digestible and producing a better food.
Cottolene is a vegetable product—pure in source and making—and is bound to be better and safer than lard.

Try This Home-Made Cough Remedy
Costs Little, But Does the Work Quickly, or Money Refunded.
Mix one pint of granulated sugar with ½ pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2½ ounces of Pinex (fifty cents' worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.
You will find that this simple remedy takes hold of a cough more quickly than anything else you ever used. Usually ends a deep seated cough inside of 24 hours. Splendid, too, for whooping cough, croup, chest pains, bronchitis and other throat troubles. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough.
This recipe makes more and better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasantly.
Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in guaiacol and all the natural pine elements which are so healing to the membranes. Other preparations will not work in this formula.
This plan of making cough syrup with Pinex and sugar syrup (or strained honey) has proven so popular throughout the United States and Canada that it is often imitated. But the old, successful formula has never been equaled.
A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Believes This Will "Cure Lung Troubles"
Consumption is a flattering disease—that is one of its chief dangers. Those who have it are rarely willing to acknowledge the fact. If this trouble is present it is no time for trifling. If a so-called "cold" has long persisted; if a cough is present that keeps you anxious, or any of the symptoms are present, such as fever of slight grade, weakness and loss of appetite, and perhaps some raising of mucus—to the sensible thing—take Eckman's Alterative—as Mr. Butterworth did.
Bowling Green, Ky., R. No. 4.
"Gentlemen: I wish to say, for your Alterative that I believe it to be a wonderful medicine of unequaled value for all Bronchial and Lung Troubles. The Spring of 1908, I had a severe cough for six months. I tried all the medicine that my doctors recommended to me, but no relief came for the better. I had night sweats, and would cough and spit until I got so weak I could hardly do anything. But, at last James Dearing, of Glasgow Junction, insisted that I try your medicine. In one week's time there was quite an improvement in my condition, and after I had taken several bottles, I felt as well as ever in my life.
"I desire the world to know that I firmly believe that your Eckman's Alterative will cure any case of lung trouble if taken before the last stage. I will gladly write personally to any party wanting information in regard to your wonderful medicine." (Signed) A. C. BUTTERWORTH.
Eckman's Alterative is effective in Bronchitis, Asthma, Hay Fever, Throat and Lung Troubles, and in upbuilding the system. Does not contain poisons, opiates or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for more evidence. For sale by all leading druggists.
