"You Are Avenged"—Gustavo Madero Is Dead" Cables Young Diaz to Old Tyrant.

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 20.—General Felix Diaz is certain to be the next president of Mexico. He is extremely popular with the people who welcome a return of the methods which Porfirio Diaz exercised so successfully over the republic for more than a score of years. Meanwhile General Huerta rules as provisional president. The campaign to make General Diaz president will start soon and he probably will be elected without opposition. The Diaz following is demanding the execution of former President Madero and his fate is uncertain.

The capital was quiet today with business rapidly resuming its normal condition.

Madero's Fate Unknown

No word concerning the fate of former President Madero was obtainable today and crowds gathered in the street and discussed this fact. Many persons here, however, believe that Madero has been secretly executed but so far as can be learned there is no information for the belief.

General Felix Diaz today sent the following cable to Porfirio Diaz who was driven from the presidency by Francisco I. Madero:

"You are avenged. Gustavo Madero is dead."

It is generally believed here that if General Diaz controls the councils of the provisional government that he will insist on Francisco Madero's death. Azcona and Jesus Ureta, former Madero leaders, who fled after Diaz gained control were captured at Apizaco this morning while enroute to Vera Cruz. Wholesale arrests of men favorable to the former president's cause are expected.

Only Maderist Free

The Richmond fire department prevented the flames from spreading to other buildings after a hard battle.

Arraigned in the Richmond police court the two girls assumed a defiant air. Miss Locke demanded her release on bail and when this was denied threatened to start a hunger strike.

Panorama of Death and Destruction—Hundreds of Buildings Carry Gaping Holes and Entire City Bears Make of Desolation and Tragedy.

Ten Days Battle and Collapse of Administration Described by an Eye Witness.

(By Staff Correspondent of United Press.)

MEXICO CITY, Feb. 20.—So swift were the current and startling events since Tuesday's conclusion of the ten day conflict here that it was not until today that the half crazed population found time to look about at the havoc it wrought. It is a panorama of death and destruction that is presented to the eyes of thousands of curious citizens and foreigners who are swarming the streets.

The spectacle here is infinitely sad. Hundreds of beautiful homes carry gaping holes and tottering walls can be seen on all sides. Scores of splendid public buildings and business structures are battered and marred. But in the poorer districts the tragedy manifested is most terrible. Hundreds of houses in this quarter are literally in ruins while upon the doors of a thousand scarred and crumbling dwellings hang bands of crepe.

City Daily Wrecked

This city which Porfirio Diaz decided to make the most beautiful in all America is shattered and wrecked. Its destruction could not be more complete if it had been visited by an earthquake and riven and twisted.

I witnessed the opening act in the fearful war drama in the Zocalo and the Plaza before the national palace. On Sunday morning, February 9, the news was flashed over the city that a new revolution had begun and that Generals Diaz and Reyes had been liberated. I saw both those leaders escorted to the palace by soldiers through a crowd of cheering and excited people, filling the huge plaza, and overflowing blocks in the streets opening upon it.

Guns on Buildings

I noted many machine guns ranged on the palace roof but I did not imagine they were to be used in real warfare. I was slowly crossing the plaza, en route to the cable office to send out the news of the liberation of Diaz and Reyes, when the lines of soldiers I had so casually inspected opened fire with scattering volleys. The machine guns instantly answered, sweeping the crowded Zocalo and sending a storm of bullets into throngs of unsuspecting women, children and men.

With the first volley, the terror—
