EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

By A. C. Howlett

There is a notice posted on the town hall calling for an election to be held next Friday, February 27, to vote on the question as to whether we will bond the town for ten thousand dollars and by that means raise money by taxation to improve the streets or certain ones, or not. There is a strong pull in favor of it by a certain class but the most of the taxpayers seem to think that the move is a premature one and that we better crawl before we try to run fast enough to keep up with Medford. Under the charter the council can create an indebtedness of $5000 and we had the best report December 31—an indebtedness of $2400 and the debt has not diminished any since then. It will be a hotly contested election this time and I understand that there is quite a number of the lady voters who did not vote at the last election who will come out next Friday and vote.

C. E. Howell of Portland, traveling solicitor for the American Adjusting Association, was canvassing our town last week and secured quite a large number of notes and accounts for collection. So the people who have been running accounts with our merchants better begin to dig up as I understand that they have members of the association in every part of the country and keep a list of the names and present residence of almost every man or woman in the United States.

Henry French, who has a fine orchard and garden tract on Rogue river near the French-Dodge bridge, was in town Friday smiling on his many friends here and they are numbered by the score.

James Ringer, our boss painter and paperhanger, has been at work repainting the interior of the Sunnyside hotel.

Nick Young, one of our popular and prosperous young bachelor farmers, was in town last week and related his experience with his watch. Last summer while he was harvesting he lost his watch and while he was plowing a few days ago he saw something in the furrow that was remarkably bright in appearance and on picking it up discovered his watch buried in five inches of soil. The plow had broken the crystal, but otherwise it was unharmed. He said that he took it to the house that night, wound it up and it started right off to run.

ALONG ROGUE RIVER

Mrs. Mary Cornish took the train Saturday for Central Point to visit friends.

Mrs. Rube Daw spent two days in Medford last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Daily are visiting relatives in Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Hannah and children went to Central Point the first of the week.

Little Vivian, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daw, is on the sick list.

Mrs. Charles Sherman of upper Trail is spending a few days with Miss Mia Hannah.

Mrs. P. H. Daily of Medford came out to attend the funeral of Mrs. Joe Hannah.

Elmer Simmons of Long Branch made a business trip to Eagle Point Friday.

Joe Hannah was in Eagle Point the last of the week.

Ham Watkins is all smiles nowadays because he does not have to turn his own slap jacks any more. We congratulate him upon his success of getting a cook to cheer his lonely hours.

Some of the farmers have begun their spring plowing and hope these sunny days will last.

Sedotha Stanley was born in Iowa fifty-six years ago. She came to Oregon with her parents, the late Dr. and Mrs. Stanley when quite young. She was married to Joseph Hannah in 1879 and spent her entire married life near the banks of Rogue river.

She united with the Methodist church when quite young and lived a Christian life.

She was the mother of five children; four of whom survive her. She was sick but a week but there was no hopes of recovery from the first and died Feb. 11, 1913. She was laid to rest in the Antioch cemetery, Rev. Richards of Gold Hill officiating. There were several handsome floral offerings.

She was a kind friend, loving mother and a faithful neighbor. She was loved by all who knew her. She leaves her husband, two sons, Jasper and Joseph, two daughters, Mrs. Tim Daily and Miss Mirna besides a host of friends to mourn her loss.

Mr. Warner of Trail took some fine pork hams and shoulders to the valley the first of the week.

The children of W. Jack and A. Smith have the whooping cough.

Dr. Kirchgessner made a business trip to Medford last Wednesday.

Half an inch of snow fell here two mornings this week.

Farmers are planting their early gardens.

Fred Pettigrew has sold his home-stand for $1000 to a man who has lately come to the valley.

Lloyd French and Steve Smith are the champion skunk hunters. They dug out ten in one den a short time ago.

Several young men are staying in the old Morrison house and are chopping wood for Frank Brown of Eagle Point. They expect to cut a thousand tier of wood.

Miss Martha Gage is spending a few days with Miss Mirna Hannah during the absence of Mrs. Daily who is visiting in Medford.
