EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.

By A. C. Howlett.
For lack of space I had to omit that on last Saturday Harvey Tuttle, secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of Central Point; A. W. Moore, director of the Central Point band; J. O. Isaacson, president of the Central Point bank; and Rev. P. N. Aldridge, pastor of the Methodist church of Central Point, came out and stopped at the Sunnyside hotel for dinner. Their object in coming was to look over the town and ascertain the advisability of having the amateur troupe of Central Point come out and render the play entitled, "A Hundred Years Ago." They said that it had been rendered in Central Point and met with such universal approbation that some of the friends thought it too good to have it drop right there, but when I saw them last they had not decided whether they would come or not.
Miss Jennie Singleton and her brother's sister-in-law, Miss Hanby, were in town last Saturday doing business. Miss Jennie Singleton is a part owner of the farm known as the Singleton farm on the P. & E. R. R. just west of Eagle Point.
Charles White, a brother of George White, foreman of the Cooley orchard, just above town, came in from Illinois last Saturday and when his brother George came in from work at night he was surprised to find his brother there.
Sam Harsh, our lively stable man, reports that the roads must be getting better between here and Trail for one of his teams, four horses, took two tons of hay from here to that place last week.
The protracted meeting that has been going on for the past two weeks in the Baptist church, under the management of Rev. L. L. Simmons and Rev. Wilbert R. Howell, Baptist convention pastor, came to a close Monday night. The meeting has been fairly attended and as a rule the preaching was very good and in most cases very pointed. Mr. H. is a very pleasant speaker and evidently is in dead earnest. There has been no special move made and looking at it from simply a business standpoint was what would be called almost a failure, but looking at it from a Christian standpoint we might say that much good has been done; there were three who united with the church on profession and two of them were baptised Sunday afternoon. The closing services were on Monday night, when Rev. Howell, by previous arrangement, read an address delivered by Rev. William Edward Biederwolf, a Presbyterian minister, in one of the Chautauqua meetings in Illinois, on the subject, "The Christian and Amusements." It was divided into three general divisions, viz., Is Card Playing Harmful? Is Theatrical Demoralizing? and, Is Dancing Sinful? It took him just one hour and ten minutes to read the lecture and the audience, which filled a large portion of the house, seemed to be greatly interested in it, for there was unusual quiet in the house. At the close he called for all of the Christians who would pledge themselves with him to from this time one abstain from these kinds of amusements to take the front seats and almost every professor of religion came forward and took the pledge.

Mr. Howell leaves some warm friends here who will be glad to have him return.
Bird Johnson of Trail came in on the P. & E. Tuesday evening.
Rev. B. R. Howell, the minister who has been assisting Rev. Simmons during the past two weeks, left Tuesday afternoon for Talent where he expects to labor for a few days.
H. M. Coss, the bustling real estate man, was in town Tuesday on business and took the train that afternoon for Medford.
C. E. Bailey, who is living on the old Biebersteadt place now owned by Ex-commissioner J. Frank Brown and S. B. Holmes, was trading Tuesday with George Brown & Sons.
Ex-commissioner James Owens was also shaking hands with his many friends in Eagle Point Tuesday.
Miss Leta Peeler of Battie Falls came out on the cars from her home Tuesday, spent the night at the Sunnyside and Wednesday morning took the Eagle Point-Perist stage for Creek where she is engaged in teaching school. She commenced her school last fall but there came so much snow that it was thought best to close the school for a while but she expects to resume work next Monday, March 3.
There are some of our industrious citizens who have already commenced to make garden. A lady friend of mine told me Tuesday that she had seed in the ground for two weeks and that they had not come up yet, and I suggested that perhaps the ground was frozen too hard, and she had never thought of that.
Timmie Dugan came in Tuesday with a load of what is shipped to Wm. Perry at Edsalls station. He is selling it at $1 per bushel f. o. b.
Henry Thornton, who has been making his home at Perist for some time, came out Tuesday on the Eagle Point-Perist stage, spent the night here and Wednesday morning took the train for Ashland, where his parents live, to visit relatives.
Joe Riley and wife, who live on Antelope, were in town Tuesday having work done at the blacksmith shop and trading with our merchants.
The excitement over the bond question is growing intense, both parties claiming the best of the race, and some of the promoters are getting enthusiastic. But by the time this is in print and distributed among the readers the matter will be settled one way or the other and peace will reign again.

Miss Mildred Elliott, E. C. Faber, Ernest Webb and E. C. LaPointe spent Wednesday afternoon in Medford.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Prewitt, Wednesday morning, February 26, a daughter. Mother and child are doing well.
Mrs. B. P. Peart and W. D. Lewis spent Thursday in Grants Pass.
County Commissioner W. C. Leever and Councilman A. W. Moon made a business trip to Jacksonville hursday afternoon.
Miss Maybelle Peart, Miss Mildred Elliott, Dr. Lydia, S. Dow, Mrs. F. J. Saylor and Guy Tex spent Thursday in Medford.
The ministers of our place have decided to hold a series of union meetings beginning Sunday evening and continuing for three weeks until Easter. It is hoped that these meetings will be well attended to encourage these two workers.
Mrs. Hatch of Rogue River was here the middle of the week on business.
Master Walter Hawk has accepted a position in the bicycle repair shop at Ashland.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned will apply to the city council at its meeting to be held March 4th, 1913, for a license to sell malt, spirituous and vinous liquors in quantities less than a gallon at its place of business on lot 11, block 20, city of Medford for a period of six months.
W. M. KENNEDY.
Dated February 14, 1913.
