TAX COLLECTING STARTS WITH RUSH IN SHERIFF'S OFFICE

The collecting of the 1912 tax started with a rush today in the sheriff's office at Jacksonville although many people plan to pay their taxes next week. A large number of taxpayers paid up today and secured their 3 per cent discount.

A little over $700,000 in taxes is to be collected this year. The sheriff has secured the court room on the second floor of the courthouse, which has been fitted up with convenient counters and tables.

Local banks today reported that a large number of local business men paid their taxes today.

BOYS ARE ROUNDED UP BY AUTHORITIES

The police rounded up seven boys Friday evening for being out after hours without the written consent of their parents. The youngsters were all taken before Probation Officer Kelly who pointed out to them the error of their way.

The police state the boys are responsible for much of the petty larceny which has been going on in the suburbs of the city lately. Their connections with some of these cases will be determined.

DIED.

Charles James

The funeral services of Charles James, killed in an explosion in the Ben Hur mine at Republic were held Friday afternoon at Talent, the Rev. Bailie officiating, interment in Phoenix. The last sad rites were held under the auspices of the Eagles lodge, members of the Medford lodge acting as pallbearers. Mr. James had relatives living in the Rogue River valley. He was well and widely known in the Republic district.

James lost his life February 20, through the explosion of powder caused by the accidental dropping of a lighted candle, and he sacrificed his own life in a heroic effort to save 200 fellow workmen, who were endangered. He picked up a box in which the candle dropped, and hurled it away from the magazine containing explosives, and thus prevented a catastrophe, dying a hero. The Eagle's lodge of Republic sent a delegate to this city for the funeral.

Mary N. Dougherty

Mrs. Mary N. Dougherty passed away at her home at 411 South Newtown, at 11 p. m., February 27, of acute Bright's disease, aged 56 years and six months. She was a native of Wisconsin, and leaves a husband, A. H. Dougherty and five children, O. W. and E. R. of Twin Falls, Idaho, Mrs. Grace McCullom, Mabel and Pearl of Medford. Two brothers from Washington, Edward and William Napper, who are here and four sisters living in the middle West, to survive and mourn their loss.

Mrs. Dougherty, with her family, have resided in Medford since August 4th last. They have many newly-made friends here who extend their sympathy and kindest regards. To know Mrs. Dougherty was to love her, as a devoted wife and a most loving and kindliest mother. The funeral will be held from the M. E. church Sunday at 2 p. m., conducted by its pastor, the Rev. Eldridge. Interment in Odd Fellows cemetery.

IT IS POSSIBLE!

IT IS possible that the discord in the Jackson county legislative delegation arose from misunderstandings, the tenseness of the situation and the chagrin of disappointment. Gentlemen, pray be calm!

Mr. Carkin asserts that Mr. Reames did not know how to "play the game," and had he, the fight on the fish bill would not have been lost, insinuating that he, Carkin, did know how to "play the game.",It is possible—all things are possible.

It is also possible that had Mr. Carkin given Mr. Reames the benefit of his large experience and worked as hard for the Rogue River fish bill as he did for the armory, the result might have been different—but it is also a bare possibility.

The various newspapers printing full accounts of the legislative session, have given considerable space to Mr. Reames, who must have played a more or less important role. Yet we have Mr. Carkin's word for it that Mr. Reames "cut as much ice at Salem as the wart on my big toe." A wart on the toe of a statesman at Salem might be a very serious proposition, if the shoe pinched—so that also is a possibility.

Mr. Carkin asserts that he always voted with Mr. Reames on the fish bill. It is possible. The roll call on the Smith amendments voted upon in the house last Saturday as printed in the Portland and Salem papers showed Westerlund and Reames voting together against the amendments and Carkin voting for them, but it is possible the papers were mistaken.

Mr. Carkin says that he is going to make Mr. Reames "eat his words." It is possible. It will be a most diverting and entertaining sight. It is respectfully suggested that the event be deferred as the opening attraction of the new armory. It is possible thereby to raise some of that needed $20,000, about the only possibility.

All things are possible, even wisdom among our solons. So let us sit at the feet of our wise men, even if they have warts on, and grab the precious chunks as they fall.

Westerlund Claims Loyalty to Reames and the Fish Bill

To the Editor:

I take this opportunity to state that Mr. C. L. Reames is wholly mistaken in his charge that my influence was used against him in his fight in the legislature on the fish bill.

I stood fairly and squarely with him in his fight on the fish bill, from start to finish. I never, by and act or omission, or in any statement or conversation, either in public or in private, did anything whatever to hinder or embarrass him in his fight. On the contrary, on every occasion, from the first to the last, I gave him loyal and undivided support. Even while the very last roll-call was in progress, I was busily engaged on the floor of the house, urging my friends to stand by him. I can easily secure the statements of members whom I solicited to vote with him during the very final roll-call. This statement is made without any reservation whatever.

Mr. Reames requested, at the opening of the session that he be allowed to take charge of the fight on the fish bill. To this request I acceded, and consequently did not take a prominent part in the fight, as he did; but I did, nevertheless, act throughout with absolute loyalty and singleness of purpose. Mr. Reames put up a magnificent fight on the fish bill. He did everything any man could do, and it is to be regretted that, in his chagrin and disappointment over his defeat, he should have permitted himself to be guilty of doing me a great injustice.

I regret to find, on my return here, that the matter was hurried to print in our city papers without asking for our version of an affair which must surely have been deemed an important one.

I regret to find, also, that our friends and neighbors, including the Rogue River Fish Protective association, were led into a hasty and ill-considered public condemnation of two of their representatives, without giving them "their day in court," and solely on the unsupported word of a disappointed man, whose statements herein referred to, except as to the casting of votes, I denounce as without foundation in fact. They represent nothing more or less than the ebullition of Mr. Reames blind rage over his public defeat in a fair and open fight, in which I supported him without reservation.

J. A. WESTERLUND.

Men Welcome Mother's Friend

A Duty that Every Man Owes to Those who Perpetuate the Race.

It is just as important that men should know of progressive methods in advance of motherhood. The suffering, pain and distress incident to child-bearing can be easily avoided by having at hand a bottle of Mother's Friend.

This is a wonderful, penetrating, external application that relieves all tension upon the muscles and enables them to expand without the painful strain upon the ligaments. Thus there is avoided all those nervous spells; the tendency to nausea or morning sickness is counteracted, and a bright, sunny, happy disposition is preserved that reflects wonderfully upon the character and temperament of the little one soon to open its eyes in bewilderment at the joy of his arrival. You can obtain a bottle of "Mother's Friend" at any drug store at $1.00, and it will be the best dollar's worth you ever obtained. It preserves the mother's health, enables her to make a quick and complete recovery, and thus with renewed strength she will eagerly devote herself to the care and attention which mean so much to the welfare of the child. Write to the Bradfield Regulator Co., 129 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their valuable and instructive book of guidance for expectant mothers. Get a bottle of Mother's Friend to-day.

A Wonderful Tonic That Aids Digestion

Thousands are unable to digest certain kinds of food. In most cases it is not the fault of the food, nor the stomach. It is probable that the stomach has been abused. Many resort to predigested foods and various kinds of medicines to get relief from dyspepsia, indigestion and heartburn, but without permanent benefit.

If your stomach was in perfect condition, you would not need medicine to digest the foods you eat. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is a stomach regulator. It gets the stomach in such a condition that it will digest food without other assistance. It overcomes the acidity and stimulates the coating of the stomach and intestines so that they will properly absorb and assimilate the nutriment from the food eaten. Sufferers from dyspepsia and indigestion will find permanent relief in a short time after beginning the use of the tonic. For children, the addition of a little sugar will make it most palatable.

Many forms of supposed indigestion are the result of intestinal parasites, for which Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is unsurpassed. Insist upon Jayne's; accept no other. Millions have praised it for more than 80 years. Sold by druggists everywhere. Dr. D. Jayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa.

UPSET STOMACH AND INDIGESTION.

Gently but Thoroughly Cleanse and Regulate Your Stomach, Liver and Bowels While You Sleep.

That awful sourness, belching of acid and foul gasses; that pain in the pit of the stomach, the heartburn, nervousness, neausea, bloating after eating, feling of fullness, dizziness and sick headache, means a disordered stomach, which cannot be regulated until you remove the cause. It isn't your stomach's fault. Your stomach is as good as any.

Try Cascarets; they immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gasses; take the excess bile from the liver and carry off the constipated waste matter and poison from the intestines and bowels. Then your stomach trouble is ended. A Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning—a 10-cent box from any drug store will keep your stomach sweet; liver and bowels regular for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too.
