EAGLE POINT EAGLETS.
By A. C. Howlett.

Our bond election is over for the present and our city council met Tuesday evening and passed an ordinance calling for bids for the same and also semi-officially agreed to have a committee appointed composed of three members of the council and three of the ordinary citizens to plan for the work and take supervision of it. But now comes the trouble that perhaps the promoters of the scheme did not anticipate, and that is the question as to the legality of the election and also the election of the three members of the council, for some of our knowing ones seem to think that there is a flaw in the election, not only for bonds, but also for the councilmen who were elected last December, for the charter says that none but legal voters shall vote, and that we shall be governed by the election laws of Oregon, and they say that a legal voter must be a registered voter, and all of the elections held thus far since we first attempted to incorporate the town, so far as I can see, have been held without any reference to the voters being registered, and at the last two elections, where the women voted, not one of them, so far as known has ever registered as a legal voter, and there is strong talk that the bond buyers will be very careful before they invest ten thousand dollars in bonds in a town the size of this upon an uncertainty. The call for bids is until the 27th day of March, when the bids will be opened.

Mrs. A. J. Florey, wife of our postmaster, went to Gold Hill last Wednesday to attend the funeral of her uncle, Mr. Nye of Rock Point, a brother of the late Chas. Nye, of Florence Rock, her father.

John Newstrom of Lake Creek was in town Wednesday after a lot of household goods.

R. W. Hitchcock, one of our progressive farmers and orchardists, was transacting business in our town Wednesday.

Rev. L. L. Simmons, pastor of the Baptist church here and at Brownsville, is holding a protracted meeting in Brownsville this week.

A. B. Zimmerman, our road supervisor, has commenced work on the roads above town.

Geo. Brown and sons and Heath & Diamond are receiving their sporting goods.

A man by the name of Steward, who has a homestead on Canaan gulch came in about the middle of the week after a lot of fruit trees.

Mr. Stoddard and Mr. Martin, electric light men of Medford, were here on business connected with the electric system last Thursday.

E. I. Ingles and A. J. Schumaker, two traveling salesmen, were taking orders from the firm of George Brown & Sons about the middle of the week.

We had a musical entertainment here Thursday evening, given by Carl Grisson on violin and Mrs. M. Capotolla on piano, there was a very small attendance but some of those who attended speak very well of the performance.

C. C. Kelso, son and wife of Big Butte passed through here with a couple of loads of hay and grain on their way to their home a few days ago.

Mrs. Clay of Medford, accompanied by Mrs. Taylor, who keeps a rooming and boarding house in Medford, were on the cars Thursday on their way to Derby. Mrs. Taylor seemed to think that she might remain up there several days.

Frank Nell was also on the car on his way home.

Our accommodating stage driver and mail contractor, Roy Willis, reports the arrival of a boy baby in the home of P. E. Sanday March 5.

Frank Miller, formerly of Lake Creek but now a resident of California, was smiling on his friends in our town Thursday and Friday. He is, I understand, a relative of Mrs. E. Nichols.

L. K. Haak, one of our progressive farmers, was doing business with the express company Thursday. He and his wife are raising thoroughbred poultry and I heard Mrs. Haak remark that she was crowded with orders.

F. J. Ayres brought in a load of produce of different kinds Thursday for our market. The farmers complain that the fruit is distressingly low, 12 cents per dozen.

Thomas Carlton and Wm. Stanley were among us Thursday, and so was Wilbert Jack also Mr. Matthews of Butte Falls. He was on his way to Trail to visit his daughter.

PHOENIX

Mrs. W. Coleman of Jacksonville spent Saturday with friends in town. Dr. B. Richards and wife of Seattle, Wash., are visiting the latter's sister, Mrs. W. Carless and family and other relatives.

Mr. Yost of Nebraska visited his brother, George Yost of North Phoenix last week.

H. Holmer of Medford was a business caller in town Saturday.

The ladies' aid will meet with Mrs. S. P. Cope Wednesday afternoon.

Miss Mary Standell returned from California last week.

Mrs. Sheets, who has been visiting her son, M. S. Sheets, and family of North Phoenix, left last Thursday accompanied by her daughter Gertrude for Los Angeles, where they will make an extended visit before returning to their home in Bagley, Iowa.

J. Mackin of Boardman, Wis., is the guest this week of G. Fuller and family and G. A. Morse and family. It is Mr. Mackin's first visit to southern Oregon and he expressed himself as being very much pleased with the country and the climate.

Mr. and Mrs. Strawbridge of Medford were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Elmer last Sunday.

The special meetings conducted by Rev. R. Brunk for the past month in the Christian church closed Sunday evening.

The funeral of the late Mr. Fancher was held yesterday afternoon from the Presbyterian church. Rev. Boyd of Medford conducted the services. The funeral was largely attended as Mr. Fancher was well known in this city and vicinity.
