

BURGLAR BEATS UP WOMAN AND GETS ONLY ONIONS

Mrs. Julia Levenberry, proprietress of the Royal rooming house on East Main street, was severely beaten by a burglar she caught in the act of robbing the rooms at the Royal Thursday night. The man escaped carrying with him a sack of green onions. Only a meager description of the man was given.

Mrs. Levenberry states that she was up town Thursday evening shopping, purchasing among other things a small sack of onions. She returned to the Royal and on entering surprised a man leaving one of the rooms. In reply to a query as to his business there the man grabbed her with the demand:

"Give me your money."
Mrs. Levenberry began to scream, the man attacking her. She was beaten about the head and body. Suddenly the man grabbed the sack of onions from the pocket of her coat and ran.

The police were summoned and are now looking for a man with an onion breath.

MERCHANTS ASK FOR WOMAN'S WAGE INQUIRY

SAN FRANCISCO, March 14.—Resolutions inviting inquiry into women's wage conditions in California are adopted here today by the California Retail Dry Goods association, which includes all of the principal dry goods merchants in central California, the San Francisco Retail Dry Goods association and many state firms independent of these organizations. The resolutions ask for an inquiry along the lines laid down by Governor Johnson in his statement in the Chicago Tribune March 12.

The resolutions declare the merchants will abide by any minimum wage law that a state investigating committee shall frame, and the merchants will do all in their power to pass such a law.

ROAD TO OPEN LARGE DISTRICT TO BE CONSTRUCTED

The proposed trail and final wagon road from Happy Camp down the Klamath river to Somo's Bar and thence up the Salmon river to Sawyers Bar is assured says the Siskiyou News. The forest service has offered $2,000 toward building the trail to be expanded before July 1, on condition that the county will give an equal sum, the estimated balance of $2,500 to be donated by interested citizens. The trail will be but the beginning of a good wagon road which will be completed later. The county supervisors have responded to the forest service's offer by agreeing to have the route viewed by the county surveyor and two viewers and advertised according to law and declared a public highway, after which the county's $2,000 will be available. The additional $2,500, which it is estimated will be necessary, will be raised by subscription. If there should be any money left out of the total fund of $6,500 it will be used to convert as much of the new trail into a wagon road as possible from Happy Camp down the river.

If the trail can be converted into a wagon road by 1915 it will complete the circuitous route for tourists and the investing public from San Francisco along the coast to Eureka, through Humboldt county up the Klamath river to Yreka and Hornbrook and also up the Scott river or Salmon river into Scott valley, and thence into Shasta valley and back to San Francisco. It will lead through some of the most beautiful mountain and valley country to be found in Siskiyou county or the world. It will show up the county resources, including farms, mines, power possibilities and railroad projects, and do a vast amount of good from every standpoint.

This road will connect with the new wagon road to be constructed by the local forest service through the Cook and Green pass, near the Blue ledge mine. It will open a large district.

GREEK HANGED SAN QUENTIN FOR DOUBLE MURDER

SAN QUENTIN, Cal., March 14.—P. Prantikos, a Greek, was hanged in the prison here at ten o'clock today for the murder of Policemen Castor and Finely, in front of the Ferry building in San Francisco November 26, 1911.

Castor and Finely were both killed near the Ferry building. Prantikos had been pointed out to Castor as a murderer wanted in Greece for slaying an uncle. Castor was about to depart for Europe.

Prantikos went to his death without a tremor. He walked firmly to the scaffold without assistance. The trap was sprung at exactly ten o'clock and the body was cut down fourteen minutes later. Prantikos' neck was broken by the fall, death being instantaneous.

Prantikos slept soundly throughout the night and ate a hearty breakfast. He was attended from dawn by a Greek priest and told the prison attendants he was prepared to die. The condemned man refused to make any other statement.

CAN STILL HANG FOR CRIME OF TREASON

OLYMPIA, Wash., March 14.—Capital punishment in the state of Washington has not been entirely abolished. While the recent enactment by the legislature makes it mandatory for a trial judge to imprison a convicted first degree murderer to life imprisonment no action was taken by the senate on the bill which would have abolished the death penalty for the crime of treason. This bill dies in the senate rules the committee.

HADLEY OF YALE RESTS IN CALIFORNIA RESORT

NORDOFF, Cal., March 14.—Dr. Arthur T. Hadley, president of Yale University is here today in search of health. Dr. Hadley recently suffered a nervous breakdown, and his physicians ordered a complete rest. He expects to remain here a month.

SNYDER LEASES GORE RANCH AT $10,000 A YEAR

J. W. Snyder, dairyman, has leased the William H. Gore ranch of 400 acres just west of the city at an annual rental of $10,000 a year. Mr. Snyder will keep between 600 and 800 cows on the place and operate a high class dairy.

Mr. Snyder has been most successful with dairying in the valley. He has operated on a large scale and now plans to operate on a far larger one. The operation of such a dairy in the valley will add considerably to the movement on foot to turn the balance of trade in the valley's favor.

BROWN PUTS ONE OVER ON THE BUNCH

Ed Brown put one over on the Medford fight fans today when by a little telephoning he got them borrowing each others pencils to write out checks to cover a mysterious $2000 of Kayo Brown money. Even now the bunch is waiting for the New Yorker with the bank roll to show up at the Quiz, sporting headquarters, and cover the coin. It happened thusly:

Brown, who is always either putting a good one over, or falling for one, had a friend, voice unknown, call up the Quiz shortly before noon today. Art Burgess answered the phone and the conversation ran something like this:

"Hello. Is this the Quiz?"
"Yes, sir."
"Well, this is so-and-so of New York at the Medford hotel. I understand your place is headquarters for fight fans."

"Yes, sir."
"Well, I and a friend of mine are here from New York and we know Kayo Brown very well. We'd like to get up about $2000 at prevailing odds."

Art warmed up and invited him down.
"Well, I will meet you at 3 o'clock. I have a little business to attend to."

"All right; we'll have the money." Then the local fans got busy. Checks were written and all the faithful Anderson backers given a chance. They came in droves and all of them left some coin.
And while Brown and his few friends in on the joke are laughing this afternoon the bunch at the Quiz, armed with a handful of checks, are watching and waiting for the stranger. They'll understand his absence when they read this.

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, March 13.—Fifty thousand dollars is appropriated today for the Panama Pacific exposition by the Utah legislature which adjourned this morning. The appropriation bill was one of the last measures acted upon.

Make Pots and Pans Spick and Span with GOLD DUST

Pots and pans collect more dirt and grease than any other cooking utensil. The one best way of cleaning them is to use Gold Dust. Gold Dust not only takes off the outer dirt coating, but digs deep after germs and hidden particles, and makes them as spotlessly clean and sanitary as when new.

If you want your pots and pans so bright you can see your face in them—your pots and kettles spotless and germ-proof, use Gold Dust in cleaning. It will do the work, too, in half the time of the ordinary cleanser—and save most of your labor. Gold Dust does the bulk of the work alone—you merely assist it.

Use Gold Dust for washing clothes and dishes, scrubbing floors, cleaning woodwork, oilcloth, silverware and tinware, polishing brassware, cleaning bathroom pipes, refrigerators, etc., softening hard water and making the finest soft soap.

You simply cannot keep house properly without Gold Dust.
