WHITEWASH COAT FOR SYLVESTER

WASHINGTON, March 18.—"Official clemency" is expected to be extended to Major Sylvester, Washington's chief of police, following charges brought by the United States senate that he not only failed to prevent, but in some cases encouraged the riotous mobbing of the suffrage parade here March 3.

"The senate Sylvester probe committee," consisting of Senators Pomeroy, Jones and Dillingham, is busy today mixing the Sylvester whitewash, and will spread it on through a report exonerating the major, in the near future.

It is stated that the chief argument in Sylvester's favor was that the ladies should have remained at home on the day in question.

WILSON FAVORS BUDGET SYSTEM TO RUN NATION

Letter Made Public Endorsing Plan First Suggested by Bourne—Office Seekers Fill Cabinet Members With Woe—Get No Time for Work.

Plans to Get Relief From "Pests" Discussed at Cabinet Meeting—Concerted Wail from Secretaries.

WASHINGTON, March 18.—That the budget plan of making appropriations for running Uncle Sam's affairs will be adopted by the Wilson administration is indicated today in a letter given out for publication at the White House. It was written January 20 last by President Wilson to Senator Benjamin Tillman of South Carolina. The letter said:

"I have always insisted on the absolute necessity of a carefully considered and a wisely planned budget. One of the objects I have most in mind when I get to Washington will be conferences with legislative colleagues there with a view of bringing some budget system into existence."

"From early morning until late in the evening perambulating office-seekers storm my door."

This concerted wail arose from members of President Wilson's official cabinet at the meeting today and plans to get relief from the "pests" were discussed.

Secretary McAdoo admitted that most of his time so far had been spent hearing requests for jobs. "This thing is getting on my nerves," he said. "I would like to do a little work once in a while, but the job hunters won't let me."

President Wilson is determined to appoint applicants to only such jobs now as he must. The result will be that when congress convenes, if the lawmakers dispose of the administration's program, that the president will be able to do business with the individual members.

Bryan Gets Enthusiastic Welcome—Speaks as an Individual Not as a Government Official.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 18.—The state legislature is still deadlocked today in its efforts to name two United States senators, one for the long and the other for the short term.

The feature of today's billoting was the falling off in the votes for J. Hamilton Lewis. He received but eighty-five votes, nine votes under the total received in the last ballot. A number of democrats who had previously supported Lewis deserted him today.

The progressive element is willing to elect Lewis, a Chicago attorney and a former congressman from Washington, for the long term, if Boerchestein, a progressive is elected for the short term.

Progressive leaders conferred with Secretary of State Bryan and Governor Danne here today and it was reported that a trade between the legislative factions was discussed at the meeting.

Then Bryan advised the legislators to stand by party pledges in the election of two United States senators. He also praised Governor Danne's administration, declaring that sometimes he had never hoped to see the day of triumph for progressive principles.

BOXING GAME UNTOUCHED BY REFORM LAWS

SACRAMENTO, Cal., March 18.—Apparently the fight fans of California need not entertain serious fears that the game will be killed by two bills now before the senate.

Chairman Nelson of the public morals committee of the assembly, and Bohnett, another prominent member of the same body, refused proffers to introduce the anti-fight bill later submitted by Brown of San Mateo. Canepa of San Francisco and other members of the committee are also openly opposed to the abolishment of arena fights, and predictions were freely made about the capitol today that the Brown measure would find almost no support when it comes up for hearing tomorrow afternoon.

Senator Brown has introduced a bill in the upper house permitting four-round boxing matches, which is less drastic than the assembly bill. A hearing on the former will be held before the senate committee next Monday.

The police commission of the San Francisco board of supervisors in an open letter to Assemblyman Canepa declared that they "believe the sport is now conducted in a manner which is neither inimical to good morals nor degrading in any respect."

Clark said that the valuation work would comprehend the securing of reliable, authentic and exhaustive information whereupon to base a determination of the original cost and productive value of these properties which exist under public franchises and perform public functions. "He declares that no one knows the value of a single carrier, adding:

"The courts have held that carriers are entitled to a fair return on the value of their property. It is manifestly fair that the return is undeterminable until such value is known."

I. W. W. TAILORS AT SEATTLE ON STRIKE

SEATTLE, Wash., March 18.—Acting on an appeal made by the I. W. W. tailors for support in carrying on their strike against the manufacturers of the city, the journeymen tailors' union, local 71, this morning placed in the hands of the I. W. W. resolutions offering their moral support in the strike, but refusing financially to support them.

This is one of a very few cases in which any member of the American Federation of Labor has shown sympathy with the I. W. W. Usually the syndicalistic beliefs of the Workers are bitterly fought by organized labor. The action, however, does not affect any organization except the tailors themselves.
