

HALL'S VERSION OF ANDERSON BROWN FIGHT

(By Court Hall.)

One of the best fights ever seen in the Vernon arena was fought last Saturday afternoon between Bud Anderson and Kayo Brown. For fierceness and hard hitting it was hard to beat; not one dull moment, sensationals at all times, Brown continually boxing and each taking turns at rushing. While Bud put up a wonderful fight, and used good judgment on some occasions, his judgment was at fault at the critical stages. Bud's biggest mistake was when he knocked Brown down the second time in the eleventh round. Bud landed a right on the jaw and a left in the stomach that sent Brown reeling backwards fully fifteen feet. Brown suddenly whirling around a couple of times collapsed, rolled over and was barely able to get up at the count of nine, and was in a helpless condition. Here is where Bud made a vital mistake by stepping back towards his own corner, about eighteen feet away. He moved a little closer as the count progressed, and had he been within two feet of Brown when he got up could have finished the fight with one more blow. The gong rang and Brown was saved the ignominy of defeat, and Bud the laurels of victory.

Story by Rounds.

The first and second rounds were very even. In the third Bud had a decided advantage, staggering Brown on several occasions. The fourth was even. The fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth had a Brown odor, Bud seemingly not trying to fight back much and saving his strength; the eighth and ninth were even, Bud taking the lead in the tenth, staggering Brown several times. The eleventh has already been described. Bud went after Brown savagely in the twelfth and had Brown reeling up against the ropes. Bud missed a good many blows on this occasion, but enough landed that made the gong sound good to Brown. In the thirteenth Bud knocked Brown down, and had him all but out again. Bud's efforts to put Brown out in these three rounds seemed to tire him, but he held the lead up to the eighteenth when again he had Brown almost out. The nineteenth was even, Brown fighting fiercely to overcome Bud's lead. Bud held his own in the first two minutes of the twentieth, rushing Brown through the ropes when Referee Exton helped Brown back through the ropes Bud stepped up to Brown and gave him a brotherly handshake, a handshake that cost him a well-earned victory over Brown, and here is how it happened. Before Bud could get set after the handshake Brown rushed Bud towards Bud's corner, striking wildly when a left swing caught Bud fairly on the jaw, and then there the Medford bunch saw visions of ten thousand dollars on its way to New York, we having bet that amount, mostly with Danny Morgan. However, Bud got up quickly. With the scent of victory Brown tried his best to finish Bud, raining on Bud a shower of blows, one which sent Bud against the ropes. On the rebound Bud fell into Brown's arms. Holding on for a few seconds Bud's head seemed to clear somewhat when the gong rang. The gong had seemed to ring too quick in general of the rounds before, but in the twentieth round, well, it just seemed that that old gong never would ring.

Lost in a Minute.

A draw? Bud had lost a victory in one minute. That meant thousands to him in the hereafter, and we missed the ten thousand dollars that we thought was as good as won. But we had the pleasure of making Dummy Morgan quit betting, and I don't think that Dummy will ever be so reckless again with the Medford bunch. I have been asked a great many questions in regard to Bud's condition. I will say frankly that I think Bud was over-trained. Bud was on edge the Sunday before the fight, and to keep him on edge for six days before the fight was nerve-wrecking. With Bud's habits he does not need to train over twelve days. In all cases before he has liked training, but in training for Brown Bud tried to get into too perfect condition. In the ring with Brown Bud did not have his usual dash and vim. He seemed slow and listless at times, and appeared weak early in the fight. Kayo Brown was trained perfectly, is a tough customer for any light weight in the world. Bud did well against him, but he could have done much better. Has Bud gained or lost in the estimation of the fight critics in his fight with Brown? Anyway, Bud is a dangerous man to bet against for he is liable to bring the bacon home any round during the fight.

FIRE DESTROYS NEAHCXIE HOTEL AT GEARHART

GEARHART BEACH, Or. March 20.—The Neahcixie Hotel, for twenty-five years a beach landmark, is in ruins today following a fire which for a time threatened surrounding property. The loss is estimated at $25,000.

Bud should have a six weeks rest before fighting again. While I think Bud, in condition, can trim Brown handily, I think it poor policy to rematch him so soon with a boy of Brown's standing and endurance. For Bud has now trained nearly eighteen months with only a few weeks rest.

SUFFRAGETTES PLAN NATIONAL PARADE

WASHINGTON, March 20.—The National American Woman's Suffrage association today plans another suffragette parade in Washington on April 7, the date on which the extra session of congress is to convene. The April parade will be neither so long nor elaborate as the one on March 3 when, the women allege, the police failed to afford them protection, but that 351 women will be in line. Each state will be represented in the parade, the suffragettes marching to the capitol, where they will present to the members of congress their arguments for equal suffrage.

Try This Home-Made Cough Remedy

Mix one pint of granulated sugar with 1/2 pint of warm water, and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. You will find that this simple remedy takes hold of a cough more quickly than anything else you ever used. Usually ends a deep seated cough inside of 24 hours. Splendid, too, for whooping cough, croup, chest pains, bronchitis and other throat troubles. It stimulates the appetite and is slightly laxative, which helps end a cough. This recipe makes more and better cough syrup than you could buy ready made for $2.50. It keeps perfectly and tastes pleasantly. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, and is rich in gualacol and all the natural pine elements which are so healing to the membranes. Other preparations will not work in this formula. This plan of making cough syrup with Pinex and sugar syrup (or strained honey) has proven so popular throughout the United States and Canada that it is often imitated. But the old, successful formula has never been equalled. A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Splendid prices were realized for a car of Rogue River apples just sold at Los Angeles by W. E. Hoover, a brother of C. C. Hoover of this city whom accompanied the car to Los Angeles. The following prices were received net: Spitzenbergs $1.65 box, extra fancy $1.95 box. Orthleys $3c box, Newtowns $1.50 box, Baldwins $1.50 box, Rome Beauties $1.25 box. This shows that Pacific coast markets can be invaded profitably with Rogue River apples.

EXPERIENCE OF MOTHERHOOD

Advice to Expectant Mothers

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Of course nearly every woman nowadays has medical treatment at such times, but many approach the experience with an organism unfitted for the trial of strength, and when it is over her system has received a shock from which it is hard to recover. Following right upon this comes the nervous strain of caring for the child, and a distinct change in the mother results.

There is nothing more charming than a happy and healthy mother of children, and indeed child-birth under the right conditions need be no hazard to health or beauty. The unexplainable thing is that, with all the evidence of shattered nerves and broken health resulting from an unprepared condition, and with ample time in which to prepare, women will persist in going blindly to the trial.

Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

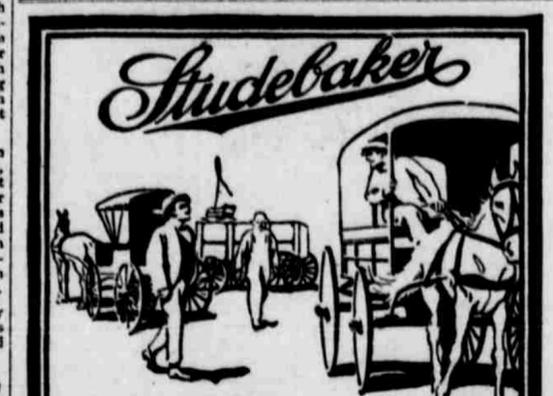

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Doctors Use This for Eczema

Dr. Evans, Ex-Commissioner of Health, says: "There is almost no relation between skin diseases and the blood." The skin must be cured through the skin. The germs must be washed out, and so salves have long ago been found worthless. The most advanced physicians of this country are now agreed on this, and are prescribing a wash of wintergreen, thymol and other ingredients for eczema and all other skin diseases. This compound is known as D.D.D. Prescription for Eczema. Dr. Holmes, the well known skin specialist writes: "I am convinced that the D.D.D. Prescription is as much a specific for eczema as quinine for malaria. I have been prescribing the D.D.D. remedy for years. It will take away the itch the instant you apply it. In fact, we are so sure of what D.D.D. will do for you that we will be glad to let you have a $1 bottle on our guarantee that it will cost you nothing unless you find that it does the work. Ask us also about D.D.D. Soap. It helps."
