GRANTS PASS ORGANIZES COOPERATIVE CANNERY

GRANTS PASS, March 21.—The Josephine County Growers' Association was formally organized Thursday forenoon when the meeting of interested land owners and producers of the district met in the commercial club rooms and adopted the constitution and by-laws as drafted by the committee that had been working upon them since last Saturday. The articles of incorporation that had been prepared were modeled after the articles of the Benton county association, and the incorporators named are the members of the committee named at the Saturday meeting, Messrs. T. E. Hill, H. T. Prather, Marshall Hooper, R. S. Dahlberg, A. Wylberg and H. E. Gale.

In order that every farmer in the district might become identified with the association, and to make it purely a producers' organization, the subscriptions to the stock were limited to ten shares of a par value of $10 each, to any one person, the cooperation of the individual being considered more valuable than the fund, though it was necessary to raise some cash to get the cannery under headway. Within a few minutes after the lists were thrown open, those in the club room had subscribed to 112 shares of the stock, mostly in one or two share subscriptions.

The last time I wrote I was in Three Pines and then promised the readers of the Mail Tribune to tell something of who and what I saw in that place. But before I proceed to tell you what I saw there I will try to give the reader some idea of the place and its surroundings. Three Pines is a small village situated on the Southern Pacific railroad about 15 miles north of Grants Pass and is surrounded with a farming country or rather a horticultural country and the soil is said to be peculiarly adapted to the culture of fruits, especially the peach, plum, pear and also to the culture of grapes. They have a large planning mill there and that it attached to a saw mill situated on the stream known as Jump Off Jo by a flume through which the lumber is brought to the planning mill, and when the full force is on the two give employment to quite a number of men. There seemed to be considerable excitement around there over the report that petroleum had been discovered. In small quantities, in some of the wells, and I learned that an eastern company was trying to get a bond on a thousand or more acres with the understanding that they would put in modern machinery and test the ground thoroughly.

The soil is said to be very deep, of a clay formation, mixed with enough sand to make it easy to work, and so that it will hold the moisture. While there I met a few of the old Jackson county people, among whom were William Rolfe and family. Mr. Rolfe was foreman for several years on the Burrell orchard and now has a nice farm and young orchard near the town of Three Pines.

I also met the family of Mr. Daen, formerly a blacksmith in Medford. He himself was at that time working in one of the big mines, that are so noted in southern Oregon, at his trade, combining blacksmithing and the machinist business together. I also met Thomas Rolfe, formerly of Medford and Eagle Point. He has a small tract of land planted to berries and trees, but is turning his attention to raising thoroughbred horses. He has some that he thinks are world beaters in trotting. I also met quite a number of others whose names I failed to remember, but this much I can say for the people of Three Pines and vicinity, that they are as nice and as hospitable as any I have found in the country. Taking leave of the friends there on Tuesday morning Brother Davis and I walked up to Hugo, a distance of a mile and a half, and there took the train for home. Mr. Davis stopping off at Grants Pass. When I reached Medford I made a business call on Mrs. Zora Daback and while there she gave me her subscription to the Weekly Mail Tribune. I also called on one of our townsmen, Henry Daley, who has been taken from here to Medford for medical treatment. I also met his uncle, George W. Daley, as the car came in from Eagle Point and was on his way to sit up with him that night. On my arrival home I found W. A. (Bert) Higginbotham at the Sunnyside and he paid me for two years' subscription to the Weekly Mail Tribune. But I find that I am getting this letter too long, so will have to wait until tomorrow to tell something more.
