By "Bud" Fisher

EDEN PRECINCT

Jay Terrill, Talent's deputy assessor, was at the county seat Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. C. Carey were trading in Talent Tuesday. F. E. Ferry and Lloyd Colver were up Wagner creek Wednesday, after cattle. Two inches of hail and snow fell in the vicinity of Phoenix and Talent Sunday afternoon and the temperature was low. George Morse and family of West Talent were in Medford Saturday. Harry Reames took a load of fat hogs to Ashland to market last week. George Alford of Fern Valley was in Ashland last Saturday. Mrs. William Fern and Miss Ella Fern were over from Fern Valley trading in Phoenix Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Shearer of Medford came out Saturday and stayed over Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. C. Carey. W. S. Stancliff was over in Roxy Ann district Friday and bought a fine brood sow. John Mast, an enterprising farmer of this section, was in Medford Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Emil Houston of Cottage Grove attended the funeral of Mr. Houston's mother, Mrs. A. H. Houston, of Phoenix. Mrs. A. M. Mayfield of Forest Grove, Ore., is in the valley. She will visit with her son, James Mayfield, and family of Phoenix and her sister, Mrs. William Knighten of Eagle Point. Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Huff have returned to their farm west of Phoenix. They have been living in Ashland the last three years. Mr. Huff is now in the east on business. Many auto parties that were caught out Sunday had trouble from their machines skidding on the hail covered roads in the upper end of the valley.

CENTRAL POINT POINTERS

Mr. and Mrs. Ashcraft spent Easter with relatives and friends at Ashland. Mrs. Hazelrig of Agate was shopping here Saturday. Mrs. Charles Dunfen spent Saturday afternoon in Medford. Rev. Brink of Phoenix spent the last of the week here. Mr. and Mrs. D. McKillop left Saturday evening for Alberta, a Canada, where they expect to reside. Their many friends wish them much success in their new home. Easter was duly observed here at the Presbyterian church in the morning. A very enjoyable program was rendered by the children. The church was crowded and everyone present enjoyed the program very much. Each child taking part was presented with a little Easter basket of flowers by Mrs. Heerst, which not only pleased the children but also the older ones present, to see how happy it made the little ones. In the evening the choir of the Methodist church with the assistance of others gave a sacred concert which was a great credit to them. Their leader, Rev. Aldrich, deserves great praise in the way he manages these things and trains night after night with the members, always in a cheerful disposition, in order it might be a success. Mrs. Ross Painter of Medford spent Easter here visiting relatives and friends. Mr. Ashcraft has moved from the Whiteside house to Henry Farnum's place. Mr. Farnum expects to leave in a few days for southern California. The Rebekahs had a great surprise on the Odd Fellows Saturday evening. About fifty were present. The evening was spent in various social amusements after which a very delightful lunch consisting of pie, sandwiches, pickled eggs and coffee were served.
