

NEWBURY BETS A DOLLAR AND WINS THE MONEY

Attorney Gus Newbury, counsel for the defendant in the near-famous trial of George H. Millar before Mayor Eifert for immoral conduct won a dollar at the Friday morning's session of the mayor's court Friday morning. He didn't get the dollar but he would have if the money had been up.

The wager was offered by Newbury after practically every objection he had offered to testimony had been overruled by the mayor. On cross-examination he asked a question patterned exactly along the lines and to the same effect as those asked by Boggs which Mayor Eifert had allowed to be answered. Boggs objected.

"I'll bet a dollar," stated Newbury to the audience, "the objection is sustained."

Gus won. Friday morning's session of the mayor's court, though short, was anything but sweet. Newbury has evidently decided that he will have to fight for a square deal and he was on his feet objecting half of the time. He was overruled in every instance practically by the mayor while Boggs' objections were sustained. Mayor Eifert finally ordered Newbury to "shut-up."

So often was Newbury's objections overruled today that finally he quit cross-examining witnesses.

"Don't you wish to ask any questions?" queried Boggs.

"Sure not," retorted Newbury, "I couldn't get them in if I did."

"Well now," came back Boggs, "don't get funny, this isn't a vaudeville show."

"Oh! yes it is," was the reply, "and it's a dandy, too."

The witnesses called by Boggs today were simply character witnesses. Their testimony was of little value either way.

The case was continued until 10 o'clock Monday morning.

STOLE COP'S SIGHT THEN SNEAKS IT BACK

To steal a cop's eye sight, not knowing it was a cop's, and then sneak the eyesight back to the police station after learning it was a cop's, and mysteriously hang the eye sight on a door knob, is the latest stunt of some petty larcenist in the city. All of which is involved but true. Officer Mego was the victim.

Paddy was reading a night or two ago and thoughtlessly laid his spectacles down. A few moments later they had mysteriously disappeared. He took up the trail of the thief with blood in his eye but was unsuccessful.

Last night the night men on returning to headquarters found the spectacles hanging on the door knob. Evidently the thief had learned the identity of the owner and so hurriedly returned them.

AL G. BARNES' CIRCUS WILL EXHIBIT HERE APRIL 14

Advance Agent Wm. K. Peck was in town yesterday to make arrangements for the only real wild animal show in the world to give two performances here on Monday, April 14th, of the Al. G. Barnes animal show.

In a few days the publicity car will arrive and further advertise this attraction. It is not the old time circus with its many tiresome serial acts, but the biggest and best wild animal show which has ever visited this vicinity. Every animal known to the kingdom of wild beasts performing feats which fall little short of the impossible.

To gain some idea of the enormity it takes twenty-five extra length cars to convey them around the country; and acres of canvas to house them. Three hundred and fifty wild and domestic animals, three hundred employees, three arenas in the big top, the center of which contains a mammoth steel arena, where all the wild animal acts take place, scores of brilliantly decorated wagons for the street parade and the greatest show, both as an educational and amusement value, known to the amusement lovers of the country.

Through the personal supervision of Mr. Barnes the show is conducted upon the most refined and courteous principles with the one thought for the safety of the ladies and children. Mr. Peck states that those who are fond of the best amusement should not miss this opportunity. There will be two performances, afternoon and evening, with a monster parade at 10 a. m.

COAST TO SEND MILLION DOLLARS TO FLOOD VICTIMS

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 28.—Pacific Coast cities are responding generously to the call for aid for the Ohio and Indiana flood sufferers and officials of the Red Cross Society here today predict that the subscriptions from California, Oregon and Washington will reach $1,000,000.

With a start of about $400,000 yesterday, it was estimated that twice that amount would be subscribed today and that the fund will then grow by leaps and bounds until the $1,500,000 given by the San Franciscans for the relief of the Italian earthquake victims of 1909 will seem paltry in comparison. It was predicted today that San Francisco alone would send close to $400,000 to the flood sufferers.

The grand lodge of Masons has wired $5,000 direct for the flood victims, and today Allen Knight, treasurer of San Francisco chapter of the American Red Cross, wired $10,000 more to the society's headquarters in Washington. Thousands of dollars were promised Knight today by San Francisco merchants and manufacturers.

When San Francisco was in ashes, the state of Ohio sent nearly $500,000 and Indiana nearly $150,000, and San Francisco alone, its merchants say, will return dollar for dollar now that these two states are in distress.

LANE PREDICTS JUDICIAL RECALL

WASHINGTON, March 27.—"Either the federal bench of the United States must be filled from now on with men who can win back the respect of the people for the judiciary, which has been forfeited, or the recall of federal judges is going to come, and is going to tear the robe from some of the highest judges in the country."

This is the opinion given to Attorney General McReynolds by Senator Lane of Oregon the other day. Lane is not a lawyer; he is just a doctor and a staunch champion of common folks' rights. His sincerity in this warning so impressed McReynolds that the latter asked to have Lane's remarks sent him in writing. Lane complied.

"It's a serious thing when the judiciary of the nation are the object of public suspicion," said the Oregon senator. "It indicates trouble ahead for the judges. We want men put on the bench in our part of the country, when vacancies are to be filled, who will not only be above suspicion, but will redeem the reputation of their rank."

MARTIAL LAW IN OHIO FLOOD DISTRICT

COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 28.—Twenty eight corpses were recorded today from the flooded districts of Columbus. A temporary morgue has been prepared for their care.

Martial law was declared in the flood districts here. Rescuers reached the United Brethren church on Avondale avenue this morning but found no corpses.

After Coughing Months

Brooklyn, N. Y., Woman Found Relief in Vinol.

Did you ever cough for a week? Then just think how distressing it must be to have a cough hang on for three months.

Mrs. Maria Primrose of 87 Newell street, Brooklyn, N. Y., says: "I had a very heavy cold which settled into a chronic cough which kept me awake nights for fully three months, and felt tired all the time because my rest was broken. The effect of taking your cod liver and iron remedy Vinol is that my cough is gone. I can now get a good night's rest and I feel much stronger in every way."

It is the combined action of the medicinal elements cods' livers aided by the blood making and strength creating properties of tonic iron which makes Vinol so efficient for chronic coughs, colds and bronchitis—at the same time building up the weakened, run down system. Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Medford Pharmacy, Medford, Ore.

His wife is Princess Sophia, a sister of the German Emperor, William II.

FRANK KELLY IS FOUND GUILTY

The case of the state vs. Frank Kelly, the "methodical" burglar, who kept books on what he stole in the city, was called in the circuit court today, a jury secured, evidence taken and a verdict returned, all in an hour. The jury was out less than four minutes, which is a record in this county.

The case was not particularly hard fought as Kelly confessed to the thefts and produced his "books" to show what he stole, where, and on what dates.

BOURNE PLANS WHEEL BARROW ROAD PATROL

WASHINGTON, March 27.—If the rural mail routes of the United States total 1,100,000 miles in length, how many wheelbarrow patrolmen will it take to keep these roads in good condition? That is the problem which Jonathan Bourne, Jr., recently senator from Oregon, has undertaken to solve this summer, and without charging Uncle Sam for his services.

Bourne was made chairman of the joint good roads committee of congress. His salary as senator was cut off March 4.

He has learned from French engineers that wheelbarrow patrolmen are the secret of economy in the upkeep of rural highways. A shovel and a barrow are all the equipment necessary.

Senator Bourne has written to all of the 42,000 rural mail carriers in the United States for a detailed report as to the length and character of road they cover. From state engineers he is securing data on the cost of construction and of maintenance.

When congress meets next December the joint committee will be ready to report a complete plan of highway construction and repair.

The company which Josselyn heads controls the traction lines in the city of Portland and vicinity.

CROQUETTES

Sweet and Nutritious With
to take Out the "Indigestion!"

Croquettes are likely to be greasy—if made with lard. Cottolene croquettes are never greasy. Cottolene heats to about 100 degrees higher than butter or lard, without burning, and forms a crisp crust which prevents the absorption of fat.

Cottolene

is more healthful and economical than lard. It costs no more than lard. You use one-third less of Cottolene than of either butter or lard.

The use of Cottolene is indispensable to good cooking, good health and true economy. TRY THIS RECIPE:

CROQUETTES
Chop fine any kind of cooked meat or fish. Moisten light meats with thick white sauce, equal amount, and dark meats with tomato or brown sauce made quite thick. Season with salt and pepper and onion juice if liked. When very cold, shape mixture into balls or cones; roll first in sifted bread crumbs, then beaten egg diluted with one tablespoon milk, then crumb again. Fry one minute in deep Cottolene. Drain on paper, and be sure the fat is hot for each frying. Serve plain or with sauce like that in the mixture, only thinner.
