

CITY ATTORNEY TO BE REMOVED BY COUNCIL TONIGHT

The city council will probably play to a crowded house tonight, the chief attraction to be offered the public being the removal of City Attorney Boggs. According to the councilmen today Boggs will be removed by unanimous vote.

A petition has been circulated by Boggs' friends asking the council to retain him. The petition also pledges all of the signers to be at the council rooms tonight, and to aid in starting a recall against the councilmen who vote to oust Boggs.

Boggs was asked last Friday to resign which he flatly refused to do. Since then he has been busy having pressure brought to bear on the councilmen to change their minds but in this he has been unsuccessful as the councilmen believe that he must be removed in order to restore harmony. The councilmen believe Boggs responsible for much of the discord between their body and the mayor.

Considerable other business is to be transacted by the council.

EXTENSION OF FRANCHISE ASKED DEAL IS PENDING

A 90 day extension of time for the construction of a trolley line in this city has been asked of the city council and will in all probability be granted. The extension is asked in order to allow a local syndicate, headed by F. B. Waite, S. S. Bullis and W. I. Vawter to make certain financial adjustments.

The 90 day limit imposed by the first franchise will expire within the next two weeks. When the franchise was first granted it was given to the M. T. Minney company who later turned it over to Mr. Waite and associates. This company is negotiating with an English syndicate which plans extensive development in the valley. Their engineer has been over the ground and has made a favorable report to them. The extension of time is asked in order to complete the negotiations.

MR. TAFT ON THE LINKS OF THE AUGUSTA COUNTRY CLUB

(RIGHT TO LEFT) MISS HELEN TAFT AND MISS KATHERINE DAVIS, WHOM SHE DEFEATED IN A MIXED FOURSOME AT THE AUGUSTA COUNTRY CLUB

Residents of Augusta, Ga., are vying with one another to make the stay of Mr. and Mrs. Taft and their party a pleasant one, and the entertainments given in their honor were among the most delightful of the season. Lunches, dinners, suppers at the Country Club and many other events on the social calendar have kept Mr. Taft unusually active, but he has found time for occasional trips to the golf links.

The largest gallery ever seen on the links of the Augusta Country Club followed the finals of the mixed foursome, in which Miss Helen Taft and Mr. R. S. Worthington won by a score of 2 up and 1 to play.

Mr. Taft was playing at the time on the over hill course, and when the first of the throng drew near he eagerly called: "Who's leading?"

"Miss Helen," was the response, and her father stopped his own game and joined the crowd following her over the course.

PERU DEAD BROKE SAYS MERCHANT

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., April 1.—"Peru is dead broke."

That is the declaration made here today by R. T. Sparks, head of a big mercantile house in Lima, who is visiting in San Francisco.

Sparks declares the last president of Peru left office without accounting for $75,000,000 which was supposed to be in the national treasury. The new president wanted to borrow $5,000,000 to tide the country over until the next tax harvest. The members of the chamber of deputies all wanted a special remuneration to vote for the loan. They were promptly "fired" through a special election and a new chamber is now being voted for.

The country will secure no relief until June. Until then it must subsist on bread and water, governmentally speaking.
