EAGLE POINT EAGLETS

Last Monday night the ladies of the W. C. T. U. gave the E. P. A. C. a banquet in their gymnasium and had another of those especially interesting times. The first thing on the program was some stunts by the members of the E. P. A. C. on the bar and rings, then high jumping, etc. Then they all took part in several kinds of innocent plays and games—not card playing—but the plays that Christian people can take part in and not do violence to their conscience or violate the rules of their church. After they had played a while the supper was spread and now comes the hardest part of my task, to try to describe the feast, for I have to give it from hearsay as I was unavoidably hindered from going that particular night, but my first informant said that it was the best feed he ever saw served and the next one said that the ladies simply outdid themselves, while another said that the supper was too good to talk about, so I judge by that, that it must have been up to the standard and if it was then it was A-1, for the E. P. ladies are noted for getting up the very best meals of any in the country. After the supper was served and order restored the next thing was the presentation of the medals by Rev. L. L. Simmons. There were four medals awarded, but there were only three on hand. The fourth one will be presented to Rev. Simmons in a short time. The first was a beautiful gold medal presented to A. E. Strong, Rev. Simmons making a neat and appropriate presentation speech, to which Mr. Strong responded with appropriate remarks. The next was a silver prize received
